The Well Dressed Woman

By GLORIA SWANSON, Star in Paramount Pictures.

No, you are mistaken: it is not black and white this time, but white and Irish green, or scarlet and cream; or gold and brown, or any other of the season's popular color combinations.

However much we like black and white, and we do like it for sports wear, as well as everything else, we still cling very tenaciously to color for our doors.

This one is of white Italian silk and is as straight and loose as a chemise model. It is belted in ever so slightly by a ribbon of vivid green tricoilet, with silk tassels to match.

And then bands of the tricoilet are added all over the frock. The elbow sleeves are bound with it and set in a very low armhole under a band of the same.

A wide, slightly gathered sailor collar is bound with green, and the skirt is striped and latticed with the tricoilet ribbons.

The skirt is set up under a blouse length bodice that is finished with a line of Irish green darned stitch and triangles of French knots.

With it I wear a green and white broad brimmed sun hat, white hose and an entirely new and "spiffy" strap pump—green and white kid. Even I should hesitate to add any other color to the ensemble.

HOP ACREAGE IS INCREASED

Prohibition Does Not Decrease Demand, is Independence Experience

PICKERS FLOCKING IN

Quarter of Million Dollars to Be Paid for Labor Across River

INDEPENDENCE, Or., Aug. 16. (Special to The Statesman.)

Notwithstanding that many hop growers a few years ago plowed up their hop fields, thinking that the demand for hops would be a thing of the past, there is in the territory directly tributary to Independence more than 3300 acres in hops.

Growers Abandon Yards. Following the advent of prohibition in 1914, many of the hop yards were abandoned and the planting of sugar beets was substituted as an experiment, but as the season was one of the driest experienced in years, the growers became discouraged and the following year many permitted their lands to remain dormant.

Industry Growing. The extent of the industry continues to grow each year as the price of hops seems to be encouraging and yields a net return to the grower, especially to those who were fortunate enough to obtain profitable contracts during the high price period.

Hop growers in this section will put out in labor approximately a quarter of a million dollars this season for the harvesting of the 1921 crop, and 5000 extra workers will be needed. Present indications point to an over-supply of workers this season. The price of picking hops will be 50 cents a box and day labor will be paid from $4 to $5 a day, according to the class of work.

Wrong Party. Harry Carey, the picture star is about as affable a chap as one would care to meet; but once in a while he does get peeved and this side up!

is most likely to occur when the company is on location and is in a hurry to get the work done and return to the studio. Not so long ago, the Carey company was on location in the north country, but instead of finding sunny weather it was cold and cloudy. This was bad enough, but the explosion came in the tiny restaurant when the chatty waiter remarked: "The rain will be here in a minute or two, sir." "Who'll want rain!" thundered Carey. "I didn't order any, I'm waiting for eggs—sunny while he does get peeved and this side up!"

EUGENE LAWYER UNDER CHARGE

Lane County Bar Association Seeks Disbarment of L. R. Edmunson

Proceedings were filed in the supreme court yesterday urging that Leon R. Edmunson, until last April a practicing attorney of Eugene, be disbarred from further legal operations in this state.

Attorney Edmunson is accused by the complaint of being wanted by the Lane county officials on a charge of having liquor in his possession. The warrant for Mr. Edmunson's arrest was filed on April 26, 1921, but the accused man left the county before it could be served.

The accusations made against the attorney will be served by publication, and if he fails to appear and contest the proceedings a default order of disbarment will be issued by the court.

A. I. Wagner, Former Hotel Man Passes Away

Governor Olcott yesterday received a telegram from Stockton, Cal., announcing the death there of A. I. Wagner. Mr. Wagner was one of the early residents of Salem and conducted the old Chikemeta hotel here. This hotel was one of the popular meeting places of politicians long before the primary law became effective in Oregon. After leaving Salem Mr. Wagner went to Stockton where he was interested in several hotels. He also had other interests there.

Another way to get rich would be to invent a game as popular as baseball.

THE U.S. USCO TREAD

From the makers of U.S. Royal Cords to the users of Fabric Tires

In all of modern merchandising the biggest conundrum is the fabric tire situation.

Around 70% of all car owners use fabric tires. Their instinct for quality is as strong and insistent as any one else's.

Why, then, are they offered such hodge-podge stocks of "discount tires," "odd lots," "seconds," "retreads" and other so-called bargains of uncertain origin?

Sooner or later the public always seeks out quality. As a matter of self-protection—if for no other reason. The out-and-out opinion in favor of U. S. Fabric Tires has spread more this year than it ever did.

No Women Jurors on Multnomah Fall List

PORTLAND, Or., Aug. 16.—Unless somebody who is interested in the matter obtains a court ruling on the question there will be no woman jurors in Multnomah county until 1922. This is the decision of Lou Harlow, deputy in the office of county clerk, who will within a few days draw the regular fall jury panel from the list of eligibles prepared before the 1921 session of the legislature passed the women jury question on to the voters and the voters approved the bill. The eligible list contains the names of no women.
