Three Hundred Elks Are Delayed by Train Wreck
—EUGENE, Ore., Aug. 17.—Three hundred Elks on their way to Marshfield for the state convention of the order were delayed a day in Eugene on account of a train wreck on the Coos Bay branch of the Southern Pacific near Swisshome last night. Many of the Elks from Portland and other portions of the state arrived here last night and had intended to take the early morning train today for the coast city. Seven cars of logs on a freight train were derailed tearing up the track for a considerable distance.

It is billed as the big attraction for the evening program of the indoor carnival being staged at Dallas August 18, 19 and 20. About 20 girls will make the trip.
—L. Lauridsen and C. D. Mercer of Portland were in town for a short time Tuesday.
—A special school election has been called for September 1 at Buell to decide on the nature of the bonds recently approved for a new school building there. The site of the new structure will be considered. It is said that the school contemplated will cost about $5500.
—To enjoy a well-arranged and well-carried-out birthday party in honor of Mrs. Paul Peterson, former Sheridan resident, was the privilege of Mr. and Mrs. Matt Mous and Mrs. Clara Sheiker, who drove to Cash Dollar landing, 20 miles down the river, from Portland, to be present at the party. A company of 38 guests gathered Sunday to join in the affair celebrating the birthday of Mrs. Peterson. The local visitors made the trip by car, leaving here Saturday and returning Monday.

SALEM ELKS ARE LEAVING TODAY

Included in Contingent Will Be One of Snappiest Bands in State

Already about 35 Salem Elks have started southward to attend the annual convention of Oregon Elks to be held in Marshfield three days, beginning today. Many are going by auto while others will avail themselves of the special Pullman which will leave late today attached to the Portland special, to arrive in Marshfield about midnight.
For the benefit of the Salem Elks' band of 13 pieces and those who will accompany them, the Pullman will be spotted at the Southern Pacific depot early this evening. The special will leave Marshfield Sunday morning, with the assurance of arriving in Salem about 6 o'clock p. m. Sunday.
Oscar Steelhammer, director of the Elks' band, says he will carry to Marshfield one of the snappiest bands that ever left Salem, and that the Marshfield Elks will have to step lively if they step with the Salem players.
Membership of the band is as follows: Director and trombonist, Oscar A. Steelhammer; cornets, C. F. Paist, William Mills, Carl Armstrong and E. Arthur; clarionets, Earl Anderson, Louis Steelhammer, Ernest Derwent and Adolph Bombach; altos, John Graber, Richard Ryley and Ludwig Mickelson; baritone, Clarence G. Gray; trombone, L. R. Teeple; bass, John Steelhammer and R. B. Johnson; snare drum, Ralph Southwick; bass drum, Paul Stego.
Including the band and those who will travel in the band special, it is thought that more than 60 Salem Elks will be on hand at Marshfield to help make the annual event a great affair.
Official delegates from Salem lodge No. 336, B. P. O. E., are as follows: F. H. Southwick, Karl Hinger, Julius Alm, O. J. Fisher, Paul Stego, J. R. Smith, N. D. Elliott, O. A. Hartman, C. D. Gabrielson and A. L. Wallace.
Others who have signified their good intentions of going are J. C. Reilly, Paul Maurer, Eugene Eckstein, Jr., W. C. Heffley, L. S. Brown, G. J. Molson, E. C. Olson, A. R. Wilson, W. S. Love, W. F. Drager, Frank S. Ward, John Gantenbein, Louis Bechtel, E. Cooke Patton and Clyde Burdick.

OBITUARY

Henry Neuens passed away at his home near Liberty Friday, Aug. 12, at the age of 77 years.
He was born in Luxemburg, Germany, and at the age of 7 years came to the United States with his parents and was reared on a farm near Sheboygan, Wis.
Mr. Neuens was united in marriage to Mary Anne Landgraf also of Sheboygan, Wis., in 1866. He was engaged in business in Sheboygan until 1885, when he and his family moved to Nebraska, where they made their home until 1904. In 1904 Mr. Neuens and his wife came to Oregon and settled on a fruit farm near Liberty, where he remained until the time of his death.

Mr. Neuens had a very pleasing personality and was respected and well liked by the entire community and by everyone who knew him, and his influence and friendship will be missed by a wide circle of friends. He is survived by two sons, William J. Neuens of Salem, and Edward Neuens of Dallas, Ore., and by one daughter Mrs. Clara Hamel of Salem and by two brothers and one sister. He is also survived by 11 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.
He was buried Tuesday morning, August 16, from St. Joseph's Catholic church, in the Catholic cemetery, Rev. Father Buck officiating.
The floral tributes to his memory were many and beautiful.

Realty Association Will Elect Delegates Today

Today noon at the weekly luncheon of the Marion County Realtors' association, the address will be delivered by W. C. Squier, advertising manager of The Statesman.
The session will be mostly a business one, as delegates will be named to attend the Interstate Realty association meeting to be held at Tacoma August 25 to 27.
After reading a number of papers on the advantages of Marion county from the point of view of the real estate man, that written by A. C. Bohmstedt was selected as the best, and it will be this paper that will be given at the Tacoma meeting, where each locality will be allowed five minutes to sing its own praises. The real estate man who delivers the most impressive talk will be awarded a silver cup.

Silverton Building to Be Erected Without Delay

Since plans and specifications of the proposed grade school at Silverton have been approved by the county superintendent as provided by law, building will begin at once.
The plans call for a building to cost $60,000 and it will be so constructed that in years to come, an "L" may be added to the building, completing the general form of the structure. The new building will contain 11 class rooms and be lighted according to the most approved methods.
For heating purposes there will be constructed at once a plant to be placed between the high school and the grade school buildings. The new grade school will
