

INDEPENDENCE BRIEFS AND PERSONALS

INDEPENDENCE, Or., Aug. 19. (Special to The Statesman.)—Madeline and Gretchen Kreamer were calling on friends in Salem Monday.

James Carbray of Eureka, Cal., dropped in on his brother George Carbray by surprise and will remain here for about 10 days. This is the first time they have seen each other in 27 years.

Miss Margerite Reynolds, who has been making her friend Gertrude Snapp, who lives on route 1, north of town, a visit of about 10 days, left the first of the week for her home near Buena Vista.

Vera Fenton, who has been a member in the United States cavalry, has returned from the east where he has been stationed for several months.

Mrs. F. O. Parker and family will leave next week for a two weeks' vacation. They will spend a greater part of the time with relatives in Portland and St. Paul.

Mrs. F. O. Parker received a letter today from her son, Hugh Miller, who is a wireless operator on the steamer Frasch in the merchant marine, that he is scheduled to make a long voyage, his first stop will be Hamburg, then Norway and Finland.

W. B. Huggins, who recently acquired the Syles Motor Car company, was a business visitor at Astoria and Salem yesterday.

Mrs. T. D. Pomeroy and two children of this city, and Mrs. Sue Gathe of Hoskins, motored to Eugene Wednesday where they spent the day with friends.

There will be preaching services at the Methodist church Sunday evening at the usual hour. Subject: "The Power of a Lovable Personality." Rev. F. S. Clemo, the pastor, will preach at Buena Vista Sunday morning and the usual morning preaching services will be dispensed with here.

Fred Wiltshire and wife of Corvallis were calling on friends here Wednesday. They lived here for several years.

Mrs. O. A. Kreamer is visiting with her mother, Mrs. Richardson in Eugene this week. She was taken there by her daughter, Miss Gretchen, in her sedan.

Joe Eaton, who before the war made this city his home, but when the big scrap was on in Europe enlisted as a member in the aviation department, making a record for himself, is in town this week visiting at the Pearl and John Cooper home on First street.

The usual morning and evening services will be held at the Baptist church Sunday.

The morning subject will be "The True Church" and the evening subject "The Remarkable Conversion of a Business Man." Because of the sickness of Rev. Mr. Waehle, who was to conduct the Bible conference, it was decided to postpone the conference until October. Mr. Waehle became sick at San Francisco and had to give up his trip north for the present. He will be here in October.

T. A. Aiso and wife who live in the vicinity of Monmouth heights, attended a meeting of the Oregon Growers' association in Salem on Wednesday.

Will and Clem Fishback and Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Douglas of Salem spent Sunday with the former's brother, Pearl Fishback, who lives near Monmouth heights.

Mrs. Rittner of Paduca, spent Sunday with her sister, Mrs. A. Z. Tedrow, near the Elkins neighborhood.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Harman and C. W. Price received shocks during the electrical storm when lightning struck in three different places in Mr. Harman's grain field.

Mrs. A. Seymour of Centralia, Wash. was here last Friday and Saturday visiting friends and looking after her household goods at her home in the vicinity of Elkins. During her absence intruders broke into her house and stole a number of articles and in their search for money scattered what they did not want over the rooms. She is contemplating living in a tent house which she will erect on the school grounds during the school year.

Mrs. Jack Eakin and son of Dallas visited today with her sister in this city.

Al Whitney and wife will conduct the restaurant and butcher shop on the Wigan-Richardson hop ranch during the hop picking season. Hop picking will start Monday.

Thomas Hart and wife will look after the hop pickers on the Rupp ranch and supply them with their groceries.

Hugh Hanna and family, who have been spending about 10 days at Cascadia, arrived home today. Mr. Hanna is one of the big hop growers in this section. He expects to begin picking about the first of the month.

Mrs. Sherman S. Hayes, who has been spending a month or six weeks with her son and his wife at Tacoma, arrived home Thursday.

Dr. F. G. Hewitt is driving a fine Oakland coupe, purchased of Vick Brothers in Salem yesterday.

Mrs. Jason Byers of West Salem is visiting her son and other relatives here this week.

Mrs. Fatima Baldwin and her daughter, Gaynell of Portland were over Sunday visitors at one
