MY HEART AND MY HUSBAND
 Adele yarrison's New Phase of REVELATIONS OF A WIFE
 CHAPTER 147.
 THE WAY MOTHER GRAHAM GREETED MADGE.
 For a moment as I gazed upon the blank sheet of paper which Dicky had seen fit to enclose in the envelope he had given his mother for me I "saw red" in primitive feminine fashion, and could have shrieked my anger and humiliation at the trick my husband had played upon me.

Then, as I remembered that the keen eyes of my mother-in-law were fixedly watching me, I controlled my wrath with an effort of will power that cost me more than I realized, and laughed lightly as I crumpled the paper in my hand.

"Poor Dicky!" I said carelessly. "I wonder if nothing will ever cure him of being absent-minded. I suppose he is carrying the note to me around in his pocket under the impression that it is a sheet of blank paper, while he has put no writing at all into this envelope."

Madge Gets a Cue.

"Do I look like a fool?" was my mother-in-law's response to this contribution of mine. "You'd better own up the whole thing, Richard simply handed me that note in order to pull the wool over my eyes. But," grimly, "he never has been able to do it yet, and I'm not quite in my dotage, although you and he probably think that I am. Not you've had a disgraceful row, and I don't wonder Richard tried to get out of it by pretending he had such a rush of orders on that he couldn't get some to sleep for a month. Said a lot of them had come in yesterday,

PLANE PATROL IS HALTED, NO FUEL

Fire Service Will Be Resumed Over Oregon Forests, Gasoline Ordered

PORTLAND, Ore., Aug. 18.—Airplane patrol of Oregon national forests will be resumed within the next few days, it was decided at a conference today of forest service, air service and timber organization officials here.

If authority for local purchase of gasoline is not forthcoming from Washington immediately, it was agreed, sufficient money to operate the planes until a shipment of gasoline from the east will be donated by various fire protection organizations.

Not a week ago that a carload of gasoline had started for Placer Field, Calif
