

DR. BRUMFIELD IS BOUND OVER

LUMBER TRADE TO ORIENT IS SEVERELY HIT

All Operators United States Shipping Board Ordered to Cease Booking For Oriental Ports.

CAUSE ATTRIBUTED TO HEAVY LOSSES

Seventeen North Pacific Vessels Show Deficit of $25,000 Monthly

SEATTLE, Wash., Aug. 20.—All operators of the United States shipping board in the Pacific northwest today were ordered to discontinue booking lumber cargo to the orient, according to an announcement by R. M. Semmes, district manager of the shipping board.

It was said the order came from Washington, but Mr. Semmes declined to comment on it. The information was transmitted to the Pacific Steamship company, Frank Waterhouse & Co., and Struthers & Dixon, the three steamship concerns serving the Orient from this port.

Order Coastwise Operators also were requested to file with the district manager a report of all advance bookings pending.

Local shipping men interpreted the order as likely to throw the lumber trade to the Orient entirely to foreign ships. Losses of something like $300,000 monthly on the operation of the 17 shipping board vessels plying in the North Pacific were attributed to the cause. Mr. Semmes said the order was coastwise.

Reduction Causes Loss In local shipping circles, the present rate on lumber, $12.50 per thousand feet, a reduction from $17.50 having been necessary by foreign competition, was blamed for the reported losses.

To discuss the situation resulting from the order, a meeting of lumber and shipping interests has been called for Monday in the chamber of commerce. According to reports tonight, the suggestion will be made that an agreement with foreign interests raising the rate to $14 be proposed.

MALE TEACHERS ARE INCREASING

Men Drifting Back Into Profession, Superintendent's Records Show

There will be more men teaching rural school this coming school year, than for any other period since the war, according to the records of the county superintendent's office. This is due largely to the fact that the salaries paid for men in the rural districts are averaging about $100 a month and the school year in Oregon is eight months.

For the year ending June 20, 1920, there were 41 male teachers in Marion county, and 303 women teachers. For the year ending June 20, 1921, there were 54 male teachers and 325 female, showing an increase for the past year over that of 1920, of 23 male teachers.

For this coming school year, there will be a larger number of male teachers, according to the contracts that have now been signed by school directors.

METSCHAN WANTS FUND RELEASED

Representative of Tourist Association Confers With Mr. Van Winkle

Phil Metschan of Portland, was in Salem yesterday, conferring with I. H. Van Winkle, attorney general, with relation to approving the release of funds appropriated at the last session of the legislature for the operation of the Pacific northwest tourist association.

The legislature appropriated approximately $75,000 for the present biennium, with the provision that the money could not be expended unless the state of Washington raised a like sum either by legislative action or by some other means.

The Washington legislature failed to make the appropriation, but later the Oregon fund was matched by funds raised by popular subscription in the northern state. Mr. Metschan brought with him certificates showing that the state of Washington had raised its share of the fund. These certificates were turned over to the attorney general for consideration.

Mr. Metschan said the tourist association had been doing a great amount of work this summer and had been the means of attracting many thousands of visitors to Oregon. With the Oregon appropriation available, he said the scope of the association's work would be broadened, and that next year would witness the largest influx of tourists ever experienced by the state.

W.C.T.U. NOT FOR BLUE LAW

Present Day Amusements of Sunday Should Not Be Restricted

SEX MOVIES SLAMMED

Prize Fight Pictures Preferred to Morbid Drama, Cigarettes Hit

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 20.—Prize fight motion pictures, which are barred by law by more inspiring and desirable than some of the sex appeal pictures whose display is allowed, Mrs. Culla J. Vayhinger, Upland, Ind., a national director of the Women's Christian Temperance Union, said here today in addressing a Sabbath observance conference of the 48th annual convention of the union.

Mrs. Vayhinger charged that the present censorship of pictures is almost purely commercial.

Question Censorship "Pictures are not censored for what they contain," she said, "but for how well they will sell and where the best markets may be obtained. The censorship itself is left in the hands of the industry."

The conference resolved for a closer observance of the sabbath without any undue restrictions on amusements as they now exist under the law. Other speakers were Mrs. Emma Starrett, Central City, Neb.; Mrs. Mary B. Platt, Evansville, Ill.; and Mrs. Elizabeth Preston Anderson, Fargo, N. D.

Randall Against Tobacco Former Congressman Charles H. Randall of Los Angeles addressed the anti-narcotics section of the conference, which also met today. He said that the tobacco interests of the country launched a fight against him because he suggested that there might be at least a ten per cent saving in white print paper if cigarette advertisements were eliminated.

Mrs. Frances E. Beauchamp, a Kentucky delegate, told this conference that "if it had been a campaign to get rid of liquor or cigarettes she would have entered the anti-cigarette fight." She quoted authorities to the effect that 20,000 deaths in the United States last year were due directly or indirectly to cigarette smoking.

Tonight's program was in charge of the young people organizations affiliated with the union.

FOOD POST PLANNED

COPENHAGEN, Aug. 20.—It has been decided by the government to appropriate for Russian relief work the funds voted for aiding war devastated countries. With these funds it is proposed to establish a food depot for children at Petrograd.

FUGGLE PICKING IN OREGON HOP YARDS WILL BEGIN MONDAY

The great hop picking season in Oregon is now on with the picking of fuggles beginning Monday in the Harrisburg district, which is generally several days earlier than the Salem district.

According to H. A. Cornoyer, of the hop firm of Durbin & Cornoyer, it will cost pretty close to $1,650,000 to harvest the entire hop crop of Oregon, of which more than half will be spent within the trading area of Salem. He estimates the Oregon crop at 55,000 bales.

As to the cost of putting up hops in the bale, Mr. Cornoyer places the figure at about 15 cents a pound, and possibly 20 cents more.

Clean Work Demanded English buyers are insisting on clean picking, he said, the kind of picking that was done in Oregon before the war. A bad picker for Oregon hops is in shipment to the great breweries in England, he feels it of great importance that the crop should be picked clean.

Just at present the hop market is pretty strong, with 20 cents being offered for the 1920 crop and as high as 28 or 30 cents for this year's crop.

English Growers Aided The government in England handles its hop crop, as during the war. It induced hop growers to plow up their hops and put in grain. This was done with a promise that for five years after the war they would be protected against sales of foreign hops.

In the Salem district, picking will be in full swing by September 1 and already hundreds are coming to the big yards in the Independence district, mostly from Portland.

"I Ain't A-goin' to Jail," Says 7-Year-Old to Policeman, and He Lights Out on Another Tot's Bike

A feverish little boy rushed up to the police station Saturday afternoon to say pantingly that he'd found that gasp wheel—that tricycle—"y' know! One of the officers went with him to locate the vehicle and the culprit.

It was a 7-year-old lad riding the little three-wheeler, and he didn't look like such a terrible criminal. But when the officer and the informant identified the wheel, and suggested that the lad go back to the station to explain the youngster declared himself in a good tone of voice, "I ain't a-goin' to jail; I ain't!" And he lit off down the street.

The officer overran him, and carried the biting, squalling, kicking, tear-streaming tricycle up the street tucked under one arm and the triped vehicle under the other.

The procession attracted no little attention. At the station the boy claimed the wheel as his own, but finally admitted that he had taken the wheel, which belonged to the informant's little sister, and had hidden it over night. It was returned to the road owner, the lad was turned loose with a caution to use only his own wheel in the future—and the incident closed. But that lad certainly has a grand opera voice, at least in quantity, and the officer says he's an exquisite biter.

SALEM MEN NOT INJURED WHEN CAR TURNS TURTLE

As a result of an accident occurring at 11:30 o'clock last night a big Locomobile roadster lies upturned in the ditch on the highway a block southeast of the penitentiary and Dave Moore and R. W. Davis, employees of the Gingrich garage, and Ray Ruggles of the Capital hotel are congratulating themselves upon being alive. Aside from scratches and bruises no injuries were sustained by the men.

According to a report made to Chief of Police Moffitt, by Davis, owner of the car, the mishap occurred as the three men were driving toward Salem. Moore was at the wheel and Ruggles was sitting on Davis' lap when the big machine went over the bank and into a ditch eight feet deep.

Blinding lights of an approaching machine are blamed as the cause of the accident. Ruggles and Davis succeeded in jumping clear of the machine as it went into the ditch.

Moore was carried with the roadster as it turned turtle and he escaped injuries by crouching in the small space under the steering wheel but was rendered unconscious by the impact of the crash. When his companions hastened to the machine they thought he had been killed.

Upon regaining consciousness, Moore was taken to his home by Davis, who had hailed a passing car.

CONCILIATION IS HELD VALUABLE

State Board Files Report With Governor—Expenditures Are Small

That the value of a state board of conciliation lies principally in the fact that it is ready to serve in its prescribed capacity whenever called upon or when occasion may arise, was the expression contained in a report of the board filed with Governor Olcott yesterday.

"This alone constitutes a potent force in the adjustment of differences without the aid of this body," said the report. "During the period covered in this report the board has not acted in the case of any dispute as to wages, hours or conditions between employer and employee either as conciliators or as arbitrators. Such overtures and inquiries as have been received, while having sympathetic attention on the part of the board have not eventually resulted in action."

"The board is of the united opinion that controversies between employer and employee at this time have been adjusted in nearly all cases or are in process of adjustment, between principals concerned along lines involving mutual concessions."

Twenty-six cents expended for postage comprised the total expense of the board since July 1 of this year.

(INDEPENDENCE, Or., Aug. 20.—Special to The Statesman.)—E. M. Young, a prominent farmer and hop grower living north of this city, has an exceptionally fine crop of hops this season. The rooms are 10 by 10 with a six-foot porch, and 19 rooms in a section.

STATE DRAWS FIRST BLOOD IN POLK COUNTY ROAD CASE

The state highway commission yesterday won the first heat in litigation brought by residents of Independence, Polk county, to enjoin the state from proceeding with the improvement of certain sections of the West Side Pacific highway.

J. M. Devers, attorney for the highway department, received a telegram from Dallas to the effect that Judge Percy Kelly had approved the state's motion asking that the complaint filed in the case be made more definite. Judge Kelly gave the plaintiffs 10 days in which to file an amended complaint, after which the state will have five days in which to prepare an answer. According to Judge Kelly's ruling, it will be necessary for the plaintiffs to segregate the various alleged causes of action.

The plaintiffs alleged in their original complaint that the Polk county court exceeded its authority when it designated certain sections of the West Side Pacific highway as market roads. Also that it had no legal authority to contract an indebtedness in excess of $50,000 for the construction of the so-called Dallas-Salem highway.

ALIBI SURE FOR BURCH, IS CLAIMED

Lawyer Says Accused Man Can Account for Movements Night Kennedy Was Slain

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Aug. 20. Prediction that a "complete alibi" would be established for Arthur C. Burch, indicted with Mrs. Madeline Obichain for the alleged murder of J. Belmont Kennedy, was made today by Richard Kirtelle, one of counsel for the defendants. The attorney did not go into details, but said he was confident Burch would be able to account for every moment of his time on the night of August 5, when Kennedy was shot to death.

The case against Mrs. Obichain, he said, would fall because "there was no evidence to convict her."

Another development today was the announcement of Obichain that he would demand the prosecution to produce letters he declared were in the possession of J. D. Kennedy, father of the dead man. He did not indicate what the letters were except to say he believed they had an "important bearing" on the case.

At the district attorney's it was said no information had been received there of any letters of this kind.

Two Girls Escape from State Industrial School

Two girls named Louetta Lenay of Milwaukie and Cecil Elliott of Portland, ran away from the Girls' industrial school late Saturday. They were employed in the kitchen, where they made their getaway. In the brush nearby was found clothing they left and it is thought they had arranged for the get away by secreting their shirts and bloomers for their hike to Portland.

The police have been notified along the way and in Portland, as it is thought they will attempt to reach Portland, as Cecil Elliott lived at 266 1/2 Fourteenth street, Portland.

Monday morning a Marion county paving crew, supervised by William McIlwain, will be busy paving the two-mile stretch of highway.

Autoists will be required to detour over the Pacific from south Commercial street to Liberty and then take the county road west to Croisan creek. The work of hard surfacing the road will be started at the far end of the highway. Until the paving is completed to Croisan creek, the road will be completely closed except from midnight to 8 a. m.

This will be one of the last paving projects undertaken by the county for the season now closing.

ACCUSED MAN DOES NOT EAT MENU OF JAIL

Wife Visits Him at County Prison, Murder Question Not Discussed, Examination Waived.

GRAND JURY ACTION AWAITED BY DENTIST

Prisoner Has Own Room, Sheets and Extra Food; Woman Not Searched

ROSEBURG, Or., Aug. 20.—Waiving preliminary examination, Dr. R. M. Brumfield, Roseburg dentist charged with murder of Dennis Russell here July 13 last, was today held without bail for the grand jury upon his arraignment before Justice of the Peace George Jones.

Brumfield's wife visited him at the jail today, bringing him fruit and other food not provided in the prison menu. She remained with him for about an hour. The aspect of a prison conference was purely personal and the crime was not mentioned. In fact, it has not been spoken of by either of them since his return to this city.

He was much stronger physically today than at any time since his arrest. He slept well last night and told the officers he was feeling fine.

No Aspect of Cell Awaiting action of the grand jury, Dr. Brumfield is now comfortably installed in the Douglas county jail. On orders of Sheriff Starmer, the man accused of Russell's murder has been placed in an upstairs room, which, except for its barred windows, present little aspect of a prison cell.

"I don't want him thrown in with the roughnecks," explained Sheriff Starmer, in answer to remonstrance made by Roseburg citizens that Brumfield was being petted and pampered.

Prior to Brumfield's arrival at the Roseburg jail, the two prisoners now there had cleaned out a bunk for the dentist and prepared one of the nicest cells for him, but it is not occupied by Brumfield.

Laxly Alleged A second protest made by residents of the city is to the effect (Continued on page 5)
