Roast or Fried Chicken—Dinner all day today at the Gray-Belle.—Adv.

Story Telling Contest—It is understood that when the Salem and McMinnville Rotarians meet on the banks of the Willamette at Wheatland August 31, following the dinner hour, there will be a spirited contest in story telling. Although no official delegates have been appointed to uphold Salem's reputation, it is understood the burden will fall upon Charles H. Archer, C. B. Webb, Dr. H. H. Olinger and T. E. McCroskey.

Real Estate Business Improving—Realtors all report an active interest in real estate, with many inquiries the past week. In fact, there is a feeling among those interested in real estate that business will materially improve after the usual summer dullness. Several report having a number of big deals on hand, and there is a general cheerful feeling all around.

Serve—Gray-Belle French pastry.—Adv.

Mulligan Will Preach—Rev. A. S. Mulligan will leave by auto this morning for Tualatin where he will preach at 11 a. m. and at Wilsonville this evening. Alfred Bates, pastor of the Tualatin charge, will preach at McCabe and Sherwood churches today in the absence of Rev. Sydney Hall, who is spending his vacation at Crater lake.

For Your Dessert—Today—Gray-Belle French pastry and fresh apricot sherbet.—Adv.

Chicken Dinner All Day Today

The Elite, Dancing—Wednesday and Friday. Formerly Moose Hall.—Adv.

Last Union Service Today—The last of the Sunday afternoon services which have been held in Wilson park, will be held today at 4:30 o'clock, with Rev. Thomas Acheson of Jason Lee Methodist church as speaker. A vocal number will be given by Mrs. Charles Hagaman and Mrs. Fred Fargo. A. A. Lee will preside. Should the weather be unfavorable the services will be held in the tent opposite the supreme court building.

Is Pleased With Salem—Rev. U. S. Crowder of Hudson, Wyo., who has just purchased a home at 1045 Gains avenue, is very much pleased with Salem.

and he believes the prospects here for rapid growth are excellent. He says there are more new dwellings in Salem and its suburbs than there are in Omaha, Neb., or Des Moines, Ia., and he realizes that the building operations here will be vastly increased as soon as people generally believe the costs have gotten down to normalcy. He thinks investments in city and other property here will prove remunerative; that made, and that there is bound to be a steady advance in prices with the growth of the city and country. He himself expects to make more investments here. He comes largely on account of the excellent educational advantages offered in Salem.

For Rent—Strictly modern heated, furnished apartments. Phone 1123-W. Call 492 South High.—Adv.

Transients Want Beds—It's getting colder out nights and the transients realize the fact for Friday night they established a new record for the summer for the number applying for a sheltered bed in the city calaboose. Six men took advantage of the free boarding house provided by the city. Those who were guests of Night Sergeant Davies were: John Moore, William O'Donnell, Frank Canfield, Archie Prowse, J. N. Lockford and J. R. Sergeant.

Wool Market Dead—No change is noted in wool quotations and buyers say the market is dead. Taking up the matter of figures, wool buyers say that according to the government report of July 1, there was 900,000,000 pounds of wool in the country, including this year's clip, that the normal consumption of wool is 600,000,000 pounds annually, but that the demand this year will be hardly 60 per cent of normal. Hence, there is about twice as much wool in the United States and as a consequence, wool growers can hardly look for a very active demand.

Fire Calls Department—A chimney fire at the Miller Hayden residence at Columbia and Ferry streets called the fire department out last night. By the time the department arrived the roof had been sprinkled with a garden hose and danger averted.

Improvements Noted—Friends of Hurle F. Moore of the new Moore-Dunn music store are congratulating him on the wonderful transformation of the basement of the Masonic building into beautiful display rooms where may be seen a large line of Sherman Clay & Co. pianos and Brunswick talking machines.

State Trees Sprayed—Sam A. Koser, secretary of state and custodian of the state capitol building and grounds, says that the state has taken the lead in spraying beetle-infested elms. The presence of the beetle in the state grounds was detected first about five weeks ago and spraying began immediately. A second spraying of the trees has just been completed.

Two Cars Wrecked—Two cars were badly wrecked last night when a car driven by C. O. Wilson struck a car owned by L. G. Gardner which was standing on the left hand side of the road on the Silverton road about three miles north of the fairgrounds. The tall light and shock absorbers on the Gardner car were smashed and the radiator and front axle broken on the Wilson car. No one was injured.

Your Rush Plowing Done—By Brown's fleet of Fordsons $2.50 per acre. Satisfaction guaranteed. Plowing done in rotation as contracts are signed. Address E. G. Brown, Salem.—Adv.

Card of Thanks—To all who have assisted in our time of trial caused by the sickness and death of our beloved mother, and for the beautiful floral offerings, we tender our heartfelt thanks. Mr. and Mrs. John Schneider, Mr. and Mrs. John D. Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. Leo J. Mitchell.

Two Nabbed Again—"Punk" Foster and "Slim" Blue created considerable disturbance last night in the city calaboose when they were brought in by officers on a charge of being intoxicated. It was greatly against their wishes, which they made known emphatically, that they were accorded the hospitality of the city bastille. Both have been before the police court several times within the last six months. Officers White and Hayden were responsible for "Punk's" appearance at the station while Officer Branson introduced "Slim."

Just Arrived—The September Brunswick records. Come in and hear them. Moore-Dunn Music Store, basement Masonic building.—Adv.

A Complete Assortment—Of French pastries, fresh daily, at the Spa.—Adv.

$4,700 Real Estate Transfer—V. I. Reynolds and wife have sold to W. W. Elliott, for a consideration of $4,700 lots 1 and 4, of the Waldo Fruit Farms, No. 3. Lot 3 has $18.69 acres and lot 4 has 20.49 acres. Waldo Fruit farms No. 3, are a short distance south from Shaw.
