LOVE'S WAGES

SOCIETY NEWS HE WEEK

The wages of love are small, so small You scarce might know they were paid at all A glance, a smile or the clasp of hands, The coin of a heart that understands; A name soft whispered, a lingered kiss-The wages of love are paid in this.

But, Oh! The magic such coin can buy-The waking joy of a dawn-flushed sky, Drudgery speeding on sky-lark's wings Songs in the heartbeats of common things And firelit shadows of evening blent With peace and comfort and all content.

The wages of love are small, so small One scarce could say that they cost at all. Yet lives are lonely and hearts still ache In bitter lack for the wee coin's sake And many a silk-clad life of ease Would barter its purse of gold for these.

Closing Out Sale

Of My Entire Stock of High Grade

MILLINERY

I have decided to close out my entire stock of millinery wear and go out of business. An unexpected opportunity to sell the lease on my building, with advantages it seemed unwise to let pass, brought this decision Friday. I can do no more than thank my friends and customers, who have given me their generous patronage, unless it would be in the remarkable values I intend to offer in this sale.

Everything Reduced For Quick Sale

And this means EVERYTHING for I must move out before many weeks.

Salem Women Know

Of the high class of millinery I have turned out for the past ten years. I need only say that so unexpected was this change of plans that I had all my fall stock purchased and the newest pretty fall hats will be included in this closing out sale. Economical women of Salem will do well to see my showing early Monday morning.
