Body to Assume Control of Stipulations in Hungary-Rumania Treaty

GENEVA. Aug. 30 .- (By The Associated Press)-By a resolution adopted by the League of Nations council today, that body will McMinnville "Nuts" is assume control of stipulations in the treaties with Hungary and Rumania regarding the rights of minorities in territories which changed their sovereignty.

This was the only definite work accomplished today, and the council adjourned until Thursday to give members time to study the Silesian sifuation and exchange

The meeting of the disarmament committee also has been deferred until Thursday.

Chief interest in the work of the council now centers on the international court or justice, which is regarded as promising better results than any other action of the league. Speculation has begun as to the probable choice by the council and assembly of the 11 judges from among about one hundred names submitted.

As geographical considerations will enter into the election, it >. generally assumed the western hemisphere will get two and perhaps three, judges, one Spanishspeaking from South or Central America and one each from the United States and Canada.

Great Britain is granted one for for the colonies besides Canada.

France will receive one, the Scandinavian countries one, the Slav countries one, and the German speaking states one, while and Siam each have nominated two candidates.

South Americans thus far nomi nated are: Senor Alvorez, Chile; Ruy Barbost and Dr. Rodrigo Octavio, Brazil; Senor Ortonez, Uruguay, and Senor Gonzales, Argentina. Cuba has nominated Dr. Antonio S. De Bustamente: Haiti nominated Konomy and Verono, while Pan-America's candidate is Senor

The British candidates are Lord Finlaw, Baron Phillimore and Sir Henry Erle Richards. From Canada there are Charles J. Doherty, Premier Sir Robert L. Borden;

Greece has nominated Nicholas Politis, former foreign minister and Georgelos Streit, legal adviser to the foreign office; Italy, Signor Anzilotti and Signor Cassetti; France, former President Poincare, M. Fromageot, counsellor to MAKES PROGRESS care, M. Fromageot, counsellor to the French foreign office, professor Ferdinand Larnaude, deal of the Paris law faculty, Dr. G. De the Paris law faculty, Dr. G. De Lapradelle, of the University of Paris, Leon Bourgeois, president of the senate and M. Dupuis; Crevea and Senor Honoria: Portugal, Senor Spares; Switzerland, Dr. Eugene Borel and Max Huber. Bulgaria, Rumania and Norway have two candidates each. Polind and Denmark have one each, while Sweden has four.

The report that the McMinnville boosters had adopted the name of "McMinnville Nuts" now organization similar to the Salem Cherrians, although the city has an active Rotary club and a Commercial club that is getting ready to do real things. However, it is probable that a number of real boosters from Mc-Minnville will attend the state fair on Tuesday, September 27, Boosters' day, just to get a line on things when they get away from home and frolic around at the time. state fair grounds.

Armed Men Assemble LOGAN, W. Va., Aug. 30 .- Extradordinary precautions continned tonight following reports of a gathering of armed men at Jeffery, in the adjacent county of Boone. Reported estimates of the number vary from hundreds to housands.

Fearing that the men would ross to Logan county, companies Plentitude of Bids is of ex-service men were being formed today to reinforce detachments of deputy sheriffs and state police guarding the border. Additional forces of former soldiers were reported to be coming here from Welch and MsDowell.

Munitions Received A special train, one coach of which was loaded with arms and ammunition, arrived tonight from The munitions were taken to he court house, where the men began cleaning the weapons. In the meantime, armed guards were thrown around the building. The approach of nightfall brought with it increased tense-ness and additional men were sent from here to the hills to reinforce the border patrol. War Songs Heard Excitement was caused near midnight when a volunteer at tempting to unload his rifle discharged the weapon. The bullet struck a stone step. Fragments were scattered in the crowd and several women were struck by flying pieces. Bruises were the only wounds suffered. During the night fully thousand men, mostly reinforcements from outside the county. rested under arms about the court house. They were fully equipped for field service. A fleet of motor cars entirely surrounded the building, drivers at the wheels, ready to start eastward on a moment's notice. Many of the men were legionaires and they amused themselves singing old army and war day songs.
