Reported from Dallas

District Yesterday

Prune growers who were for tunate enough to hold their 1920 crop have been rewarded, as according to sales made yesterday, reported from the Dallas district 55-60s sold for 6 1/2 cents a pound. This price is much higher that growers have received in general. as from 4 to 4 1/2 cents a pound has been the prevailing price for the 55-60 size.

It is understood that Mason-Ehrman & Co. were purchasers of these holdings, which fairly well cleans up the 1929 prunes in the Dallas district.

Reports are that there is but ttle demand for the 1921 crop of dried prunes, although the fresh fruit market is showing considerable strength. While some have been selling at $1.25 a cause of the burns which he re- bushel, offers of $1.35 are re-
