

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

Son Is Born—A son was born Friday, Sept. 2, to Mr. and Mrs. Donald Brooks of 390 South Twenty-fourth street. He has been named Glen Vernon.

Olympia Oysters—Olympia oysters are now in the market. We are serving them any style. Gray Belle.—Adv.

The Grocer Says—Now is the time to buy canning tomatoes. They are of fine quality, and the price is reasonable.

A Classified Ad—Will bring you a buyer.

Army Officer in City—Col. Pagram Whitworth of the regular United States army, and chief of staff of the 96th reserve division, was in the city yesterday.

Dreamland Rink—Follow the crowd to the Big Dance. Largest hardwood floor in valley. Orchestra increased to 7 pieces.

Returns to Evanston—Gustav Anderson is preparing to leave some time next week, to resume his studies in Northwestern university at Evanston, near Chicago.

Barber Shop—Notice to my friends: I have changed my location from 320 State street to 173 N. Liberty, H. G. Coursey.—Adv.

Woodpile Obstructs View—A report that a wood pile had been standing on Ferry street, between Commercial and Liberty streets for a long time and that it made a blind alley which was dangerous to traffic, was sent to police headquarters yesterday.

Attorney Pogue Returns—Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Pogue and nephew, Edwin Cox, are home from a hunting trip in southern Oregon, out from Drain. Mr. Pogue brought back one fine buck which he says is one of the largest killed in that part of the state.

Estate Closed—The county court has approved the final report of Henry DuVal, executor of the estate of Andrew DuVal. According to the provisions of the will the executor paid each of the two sons $5 each. The two daughters, Elida Bowman and Elsie Weaver, were each paid $659.14.

Quitclaims for $5000—Charles F. Simon, one of the heirs of Isabelle Simon, has sold his interest in the estate for $5000. The land is adjoining the Willamette river about four miles northwest of Quinaby.

Saturday Morning—Dr. Kantner, pastor of the First Congregational church, has returned and will hold services on Sunday at 11 a. m. Sunday school at 10 a. m. No evening service.

Miss Mulligan to Teach—Miss Vestie Mulligan, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. A. S. Mulligan of 1660 Fairmount avenue, who graduated from Willamette university with the class of '19 and last year completed a course in the San Francisco National Training school, in preparation for home missionary work, has accepted a position in the Franciscan De Pauw mission school for Mexican and Spanish girls in Los Angeles, where she will teach English and general science in the high school department. She left for Los Angeles August 31.

Box Wood, $3.50 Per Load—Prompt delivery. Spaulding Logging Co.—Adv.

Campers Must Move—Begging on the part of campers who were stopping at the foot of Chemeketa street, near the gas works for the night, was the basis for complaints coming into the police station Thursday night. Officer White was detailed to investigate, and finding the report to be true, ordered the offenders out of town.

Gray Belle Pastry—Serve Gray Belle French Pastry.—Adv.

Horses Run Loose—Campers in the vicinity of Turner and Lee streets annoyed the neighbors Thursday by allowing their horses to run at large over their yards and gardens. Officer Hanson of the police department was sent to investigate the conditions and obtained promises from the campers that they would be tied up.

Freight Blocks Traffic—A complaint that a Southern Pacific freight train had blocked traffic from the Southern Pacific station to Court street for about a quarter of an hour was sent to police headquarters Thursday night.

China Cups—GOLD BRAND China cups and saucers—Special, 20c each. C. S. Hamilton's.—Adv.

West Salem Methodist Episcopal—Alexander Hawthorne, pastor. Sunday school 10:30; Epworth league 7; preaching at 8 by the pastor. Subject: "Individual Responsibility." Tuesday evening, singing practice at 7:30; Wednesday evening Sunday school board meeting 7:30; Thursday evening prayer meeting 7:30; Friday evening fourth quarterly conference at 7:30. Dr. E. E. Gilbert, superintendent, presiding.

Wood Special—For a few days only—5 loads 16-inch mill wood, $16.25. Spaulding Logging Co.—Adv.

Students Register—Applications continue to come in to the registrar of Willamette university for registration for the coming school year. Among those whose applications were received yesterday are the following: Jack Burleson of McMinnville. He was awarded a scholarship by the Oregon conference, and out of six state institutions to which he was eligible on the scholarship, chose Willamette university. Miss Alice Heacock of Portland, Miss Mary L. Sarr of the Mabton, Wash., high school; Miss Mary May, a graduate of the Okanogan, Wash., high school.

Booster Lives in Arizona—Peter Corsteyn, who formerly lived in this part of the Willamette valley and acquired valuable fruit property in the Liberty district, is now a resident of Phoenix, Ariz. According to letter-heads, he is thought so well in that city that he is now serving as mayor. But at the same time he deems it a pleasure to continue his membership in the Salem Commercial club.

Law Library—Law library for sale. W. W. Bailey, Brownsville, Or.—Adv.

Grocery Purchased—Miller Bevier, 775 North Cottage street, has purchased and permission to distribute $500 of the estate. Of this amount, $250 was for herself, executor and $125 to each of the other two heirs, Veda May Byrd and Curtis B. Cross. The petition was approved by the county court and the order issued. The E. C. Cross estate was appraised at $94,301.56 of which $20,000 was life insurance.

Realty Association Success—The Marion County Realtors association, which was officially organized a few months ago, has already proven to be a success. According to the opinion of a number of real estate dealers in Salem. During August, there were more than $30,000 worth of real estate sales made through the central listing office. Through the office there have also been hundreds of replies received to advertising placed in eastern farm magazines.

For Rent—Front office room. Apply Gray Belle.—Adv.

September Starts Well in Licenses to Marry—The month of September is starting out strong in marriage licenses issued by the county clerk. Yesterday three were issued, and almost four in the latter case, when the couple applied for the license, it was discovered that the bride's home was in Multnomah county, and no license could be issued in this county. The three granted licenses yesterday are as follows: Forest Rycraft of Lebanon, a teacher, and Alta Matten of rural route 6, Salem, also a teacher. George Croisan of Salem, who gave his occupation as a salesman, and Esther Marie Busch of Salem.

John Armstrong of Portland, who gave his occupation as that of farming, and Rose M. Thompson, a nurse, of Salem.

King Bing Makes Call For First Fall Meeting—Cherrians will receive notice through the mail in a day or two in which King Bing Knowland notifies them that the first general meeting of the fall will be held at the Commercial club next Tuesday evening at 6:15 o'clock.

The meeting will be in the form of the regular monthly dinner and the invitation to attend rather than as a witness. The plate will be reserved, it will cost each Cherrian just the same, eating or not eating.

For this first meeting, King Bing announces that a special entertainment will be prepared, something not heretofore witnessed by Cherrians. Then, of course, there will come up for discussion the big thing as to what the Cherrians will do for Boosters' day, September 27, Tuesday, at the state fair.

Sheridan Hop Picking To Begin Next Monday—SHERIDAN, Or., Sept. 2.—(Special to the Statesman)—Hop picking will commence in this vicinity next Monday according to announcements of local growers. The yield will vary, some owners reporting large crops while others say they expect a light run. F. H. Heider with a 30-acre field one mile north of town, has the largest field near Sheridan. The majority of growers have their yield already contracted at prices from 23 to 25 cents.

Property Appraised—The estate of Mary A. Booth, incompetent, of Silverton, has been appraised at $14,914, half of which is money in bank. The appraisers were C. A. Reynolds, J. A. Campbell and A. Hamer.

Newport Merchant Here—O. E. Franke, merchant of Newport, was in Salem yesterday en route to Newport on his return from a buying trip to San Francisco. Mr. Franke is a very enthusiastic booster for Newport, and an all-round optimist. He considers business prospects for the coming season as exceedingly bright.

Wanted to Lead—$1000, $300, $500 and larger sums now on hand on real property security; $100 on piano security. Elmo S. White, Masonic Temple.—Adv.

REALTY EXCHANGES—Reported by Union Abstract Company

Jennie Tolman to A. and Rose Croy, part of Block 13, Cap. Park add. to Salem, $10.

Dora and W. R. Lander to Allen and Martha Mills, lots 6, 7, 8, block 2, Brookside, $500.

John M. and Margaret Kolen to W. H. Veerrier, lot in Silverton, $300.

AUGUST REGISTRY AT PARK IS 1444

Number is More Than Half of Registration for Whole of Last Season

A total of 1444 cars were registered during the month of August at the Salem auto camp grounds, which is over half as many as were registered during the entire season last year. Of this number only 110 cars were picnickers from Salem and vicinity.

Next to Oregon, which sent 412 cars here, Washington sent the largest delegation, 315 cars from that state registering. Thirteen cars came from Canada and two from Mexico. The complete list of states, with the number of cars from each, follows: Oregon, 412; Washington, 315; California, 250; Idaho, 42; Montana, 31; Kansas, 24; Illinois, 23; Colorado, 21; Iowa, 17; New York, 15; Minnesota, 15; Nebraska, 14; Ohio, 14; Oklahoma, 14; Michigan, 12; Indiana, 12; Texas, 11; Pennsylvania, 10; Wisconsin, 10; South Dakota, 7; Wyoming, 7; British Columbia, 7; Utah, 7; North Dakota, 6; Missouri, 7; Nevada, 4; Arizona, 4; Alberta, Can., 3; Massachusetts, 2; Florida, 2; Virginia, 2; Saskatchewan, Can., 2; Connecticut, 2; Washington, D. C., 2; Mexico, 2; Toronto, Can., 1; New Jersey, 1; Vermont, 1; Kentucky, 1; West Virginia, 1 and Arkansas 1.

Superintendent T. G. Albert of the grounds predicts that next season's record will be even greater than this.

"The travel will increase as the amount of paved road increases, and Oregon roads are improving all of the while," he says.

PERSONALS

Miss Flora Case, city librarian, was in Silverton yesterday on library business.

Mrs. J. B. Litter, Mrs. E. E. Upmeyer, Robert Litter and Wallace Griffith drove to Portland yesterday.

Miss Bell Zaker of Aumsville was a Salem visitor Friday.

Real Estate is Moving Local Concerns Report

The real estate business is picking up decidedly in Salem, and all the active realtors are reporting more inquiries, and more business, than for a long time.

Joseph Barber & Son have in the past few days sold a $6,000 house in Portland, to James Hall, an engineer of the Southern Pacific railroad, who has been living at 370 North Thirteenth street, and who will henceforth make his home in Portland.

They have also sold the residence at 1045 Gaines avenue, Salem, to E. S. Crowder of Wyoming, who, with his family, will soon come to Salem to live.

Also a five-acre tract on the Turner road to a Mr. Gysbon. Salem to Rev. W. M. Garner of Seaside, who will build and come to Salem to make his home.

RICKEY NEWS

A wedding of interest to this community was that of Alice Schaller and Fred Diekmann which took place in Salem August 28. Mrs. Diekmann is a successful Marion county teacher and Mr. Diekmann is interested in prune and berry growing.

Margaret Magee is visiting her aunt, Mrs. A. L. Baker of Mill City.

A. Hager and son are having their clover hulled this week.

Mrs. Kermano spent Saturday afternoon in Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Binegar of Central Howell visited their son A. W. Binegar Thursday.

Fresh Stock of Pickling Spices Stone Jars Fruit Jars

WM. GAHLSDORF 135 N. Liberty Phone 67

LADD & BUSH, BANKERS

Established 1868 General Banking Business Office Hours from 10 a. m. to 3 p. m.

Our Regular Grocery Prices

Table listing grocery items and prices: Best Creamery Butter, per pound .48c; Veribest Cheese, per pound .25c; Breakfast Bacon, per pound .25c; No. 5 Pure Lard .75c; Libby's Milk, 9 cans for $1.00; Royal Chinook Salmon, 2 cans for .25c; Van Camp's Pork and Beans, per can .10c; Snider's Catsup .35c; American Sardines, 5 for .25c; Deviled Meat, 5 for .25c; Kellogg's Corn Flakes, 2 packages for .25c; Shredded Wheat, per package .15c; Grape Nuts, per package .18c; Rolled Oats, 4 lbs. for .25c; 60-70 Prunes, per lb. .5c; Corn Starch, 2 packages for .25c; 22 bars Borax Naptha Soap $1.00; Large package Sea Foam .28c.

"We make deliveries"

Bert B. Eshelman

Phone 305 175 S. Commercial Street

They're New Fall Hats!

And They're Being Sold at Reductions from $2.50 to $8.00

This is an opportunity for every woman in Salem to get a pretty fall and winter hat at a great reduction—in some cases it will halve your millinery bill.

Closing Out Sale

Because we must sell our stock as soon as possible—this is the only reason we can make these low prices. We're going out of business and must sell everything in stock. Salem women get the benefit of our loss.

MRS. L. G. CURTIS

Masonic Building 125 North High St.

OREGON Theatre Anna G. Nilsson In "What Women Will Do" Comedy Fox News TODAY Hartman's Glasses HARTMAN BROS. Phone 1255 Salem, Oregon NOMKING Updates at 1024 N. Commercial street Chop Suey, Noodles and American Meals, Ice cream and drinks. Open 3 a.m. to 3 a.m. Special Sunday—CHICKEN DINNER TREES For Spring Planting Order From THE SALEM NURSERY CO. 428 Oregon Building SALEM, OREGON Phone 1763

SAVE $$$ by buying your hardware and furniture at The Capital Hardware & Furniture Co., 285 N. Commercial street. Phone 947

L ARMER Phone 930 TRANSFER We Move, Pack and Store ANYTHING WOOD TRY COAL US

Do you take TURKISH BATHS If not, why not? No other baths or treatments can produce the permanent relief to the person suffering from disagreeable cold or ailments of the flesh or body like the Turkish Baths will. Open 8 a. m. until 9 p. m. OREGON BATH HOUSE Lady and Gentlemen attendants

FOR SALE Republic truck in fine condition, pneumatic tires, will trade or sell on easy terms. Apply Sam Solof. People's Cash Store

Attorney Pogue Returns—Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Pogue and nephew, Edwin Cox, are home from a hunting trip in southern Oregon, out from Drain. Mr. Pogue brought back one fine buck which he says is one of the largest killed in that part of the state. He also says that due to the large number of hunters this year it was necessary to hunt well up in the mountains.

STEINBAUGH—At his home, one half mile south of the Pringle school house, Frank Walter Steinbaugh at the age of 42, September 2. He is survived by his wife, Millie; a small son, Frank Walter, and two brothers in California. Funeral announcement later. Body at Webb & Clough.

RIGDON & SON Leading Morticians

Webb & Clough Co. Funeral Directors

CLOSING OUT SALE CAPITAL BARGAIN HOUSE 215 Chemeketa St.

WOOD TRY COAL US

GAS BALL RODENT KILLER Kill the Squirrel, Gopher and Mole at a Small Expense and No Danger to Stock

FOR SALE This Gas Ball has given wonderful results in California where it has been used for the past year. We have secured the agency for this section and sell it both wholesale and retail. D. A. WHITE & SONS 251 State St. Salem, Ore.

Special Chicken Dinner All Day Sunday

TODAY BILLY BRIGHT THEATRE 2 Acts Vaudeville And Big Bill Fairbanks In "Montana Bill" A Ninety Thrill Power Western First See Our Stationery Here you have so many more pretty designs to pick from and our policy of low profit gives you a better value in the long run. See our stationery first. COMMERCIAL BOOK STORE 168 No. Com'l St. Phone 64