A checkroom girl in a Broadway hotel told the story and the photographer verified it—here's the result. Why, New York men now are pasting pictures of their wives, sweethearts, children or mothers inside the crowns of their hats.

GUS ZOELLNER FUNERAL TODAY

Hero of Chateau Thierry to Be Given Full Military Honors

Funeral services for Gus Zoellner, sergeant 128th infantry, who was killed in France, will be held this afternoon at 2 o'clock at Lyons, under the auspices of the American Legion and the Masonic lodge of that city. The funeral party will leave Stayton at 1 o'clock this afternoon, and services will be held at Lyons at 2 o'clock. All Masons, Odd Fellows and ex-service men are invited to attend. B. F. Pound, commander of the Salem American Legion post, will be accompanied to Stayton by members of the local post, and Capt. Erle P. Dudley of Kellogg, Idaho, who was delegated by the Gus Zoellner post of that city as its representative.

The body will be given a military and Masonic burial, the local American Legion post being represented by a firing squad consisting of G. D. Moir, in charge of squad; Hugh Martin, Eldon Hewitt, Archie Elliott, Will Carver, Charles Elliott, Donovan R. Wiggins, and Paul R. Hendricks. Zoellner worked in the Coeur d'Alene mining district. He was wounded while fighting near Chateau-Thierry, and passed away at a hospital shortly afterward. He was a member of Wardner lodge No. 24, A. F. & A. M., and of Samaritan lodge No. 99, I. O. O. F. His parents live in the southern part of the county. Commander Pound has issued a special request that all Legionnaires who can possibly do so, report in uniform at the Salem armory today to volunteer as pallbearers.

SHRINE CLUB TO HAVE FINE HALL

Cotillion Dancing Floor Rented and Will Be Used During Winter

The Salem Shrine club has rented the hall over the Penney store, generally known as Cotillion hall, taking a lease for one year. The hall will be entirely renovated, with additional ventilation installed, all floors made over, and the entire hall rebuilt to make it one of the finest halls for social affairs in the city. It will hereafter be known as the Salem Shrine hall.

The Salem Shrine club will hold its monthly dances on the fourth Thursday of each month, beginning in October. Decorations to be placed in the hall will be in keeping with Shrine symbols. El-Karaz Grotto, which was recently organized, will also hold its social entertainments in the Salem Shrine hall, with the first monthly event scheduled for the fourth Wednesday of October, with the fourth Wednesday of each month reserved for the Grotto.

In addition to the two clubs mentioned, the Salem Shrine patrol will rent the hall for its winter entertainments. The social committee of the Salem Shrine club for the coming fall and winter includes the following: F. G. Brock, chairman; Albert Gille, David Wright, Glen C. Niles and George E. Schune. For the social activities of El-Karaz Grotto for the coming season William H. Frank has been whole. A dozen times a day she besought him to have her called as one hove in sight. "But, madam," the captain asked her, rather impatiently, after long suffering in silence, "why creature cry." "Unidentified."

UNIQUE NEW TREAT
"Never, if your head is only a hazy, your body is heavy, you are to be a diseased rack. Get the new idea."

Boy Is Well Now

"My son, twelve, became sick with St. Vitus dance. He could not eat or dress himself. He was under care of physicians for six weeks without improvement. I was advised to try chiropractic. In four weeks the boy was able to play again. Now he is back in school and doing well." — Anna Koudela, Chiropractic Research Bureau, Statement No. 1279.

THE REWARD OF LABOR

NOBODY else appreciates possessions quite as much as the man who has worked hard for them. He has a keen delight unknown to the man born to riches.

The United States National welcomes the accounts of men who are laboring to develop the resources of Oregon—who work in its shops, factories, and manufactories. Without you there would be no progress.
