

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

Now Lives in Portland—Miss Ruth Faxon, former school librarian in Salem, has accepted a position in Portland as school librarian. She is making her home at the Campbell Hill apartments.

It's A Great Life—The big fun show at the Liberty today; all new.—Adv.

Help Wanted for Girls—Here is where many women in Salem can secure help this winter and at the same time aid many deserving young girls who wish to attend Willamette university, but cannot do so unless they are able to earn part of their expenses. A call is being made by Willamette university to all housekeepers who need a girl to do housework in return for room and board. The call is more urgent this year than ever before. Those who can help in this way are asked to telephone the university.

Card of Thanks—For the beautiful floral offerings and for the sympathy and kindness shown us in our recent bereavement in the loss of our beloved husband and father, we wish to thank our many friends. Mrs. W. J. G. R. Maeker, Jack, Henry and Alice.—Adv.

Once Lived in Salem—Frank X. Bouillard and wife were in Salem yesterday, accompanied by D. G. Arbuckle and wife and Sam Sherman, all of Chico, Cal. Mr. Bouillard passed his boyhood days in Salem, attending the East Salem school. He is now manager of a nursery in Chico.

Law Library—Law library for sale. Box 43, Brownsville, Or.—Adv.

Miss Richards Home—Miss Frances M. Richards, dean of women, Willamette university, is home from an all summer visit at Otter Rock and other coast points. Miss Richards is greatly pleased with the number of applications that are coming in for Lausanne hall. She reports only 12 reservations remain not taken. All of which indicates that Lausanne hall will be occupied to capacity, a total of 125.

Don't Weaken—"It's a great life," showing at the Liberty today; all new show.—Adv.

Returned From Spokane—Dr. Carl Gregg Doney is home from Spokane, where he delivered three addresses before the Columbia River annual conference. He reports that two new trustees were elected—G. E. Hunt of Spokane and the Rev. H. F. Pemberton, who is superintendent of the Dalles district. Dr. Doney reports that 12 students are coming this fall to the university from the Spokane district, 10 from Wenatchee and several from the Yakima district.

Frank E. Churchill—Who recently returned from eastern study with Joseph L. Linn and Frank Van Dusen, will receive pupils in piano and pipe organ. High school credits given. Studio—Grand Theater Bldg. Residence phone 16714.—Adv.

Cannot Rent Houses—Shortage in desirable houses to rent in Salem has been reported from time to time to the Commercial club. Yesterday several persons appeared at the club, asking for information as to where they could find desirable houses.

Big Reduction—On new pianos for quick sale. It will pay you to see us. Tallman's piano store, 121 S. Commercial.—Adv.

Liberty District Votes Money—At a recent meeting of voters in the Liberty school district, not only was the required budget voted, but in order to have money on hand in case of emergency, there was voted $600 in addition to the proposed requirements of the district. The budget of the Liberty school district for the coming school year is $3,626.

Full Line Ingersoll Watches—Tyler's Drug Store.—Adv.

Encouraging Pig Clubs—W. H. Baillie, county school supervisor, was in the Liberty district Monday calling on boys and girls who have been planning to make an exhibit at the state fair. Friday of this week he will visit in the Shaw district to encourage all boys and girls to enter for prizes.

Wants Boy Drum Corps—At the meeting of the Cherrians last night, Hal D. Patton said the city should have a boys' band or a boys' drum corps, attached to some organization like the Cherrians. As other matters of importance occupied the time of the meeting, and as Mr. Patton had to attend a council meeting, no action was taken.

We Are Equipped—To rebuild, tune or refinish your piano or player piano. J. W. Tallman, 121 S. Commercial, member national association piano tuners.—Adv.

Marriage Licenses—Marriage licenses have been issued as follows: C. W. Jorgensen, 474 North Liberty street to Margaret Knapp, a bookkeeper of Salem. Edwin H. Norene, student of Salem, to Dorothy D. Lamb, of Salem, also student. Stanley J. Ostrander, of Salem, auto mechanic, to Mary I. Savage, of Salem, a stenographer. William F. Gleim of Ashton, Ill., a farmer, to Hazel Fuestman of Salem, rural route 6.

For Rent—Front office room. Apply Gray Belle.—Adv.

Buffum Pleads Guilty—F. M. Buffum pleaded guilty in the police court yesterday to a charge of being drunk and disorderly and was fined $20 with the opportunity to take 10 days in jail as an alternative. Buffum failed to furnish the fine and began his service in the city jail.

Putnam Loses Dog—A Mr. Putnam of 1045 North Cottage street, reported to police yesterday the loss of his pointer dog.

Considerable House Repairing—Contractors report that dozens of houses are undergoing repairs of some kind, either a new roof, addition of one room, or extending sizes of rooms. The report is that more improvements are going on of this nature this year than ever before.

Helping Service Men—The urgent report of the local branch of Red Cross, known officially as Willamette chapter, is that during that month 110 ex-service men were given assistance in filing papers, writing for papers of value to ex-soldier and in helping in various ways. With the many service men asking for information regarding the bonus law and the necessity of securing original discharge papers, it is thought that the local Red Cross will be called on for more work of this kind this month than during August.

More Teachers Wanted—More teachers are wanted for high schools throughout the state and for positions that will pay $150 a month, according to Dr. Carl Gregg Doney, president of Willamette university. And the call he says, is for Willamette graduates. During the past few weeks, Dr. Doney has received letters asking for Willamette university graduates and he could now place 12 teachers. However, every Willamette graduate, and this includes all who graduated this year, who have wanted to teach, have been placed in good positions.

Miss Crockett Here—Miss Lucile Crockett, who was some time ago elected to have charge of the children's department of the city library, has arrived from New York and is now attending to the duties of her new position. She will make her home with Mrs. B. E. Carrier on Court street.

To Be Examined Saturday—Applicants for postmastership at Both Stayton and Jefferson will arrive in Salem next Saturday for the civil service examination to be conducted here. This examination is really a test of one's general knowledge and fitness for the position of postmaster, and not merely an application like the one to be filed by applicants for the position of postmaster at Salem.

"Our Oregon"—In a recent issue of "American Cookery," published in Boston, Mass., appeared an article written by Ruth Fargo. It is entitled "Our Oregon. A Land of the Campers' Delight." It tells of the pleasures of camping along the Columbia highway and elsewhere.

Legal Blanks—Get them at The Statesman office. Catalog on application.—Adv.

Piano Man Arrives—George Scullio, who has arrived in Salem to be associated with Tallman's Piano store, comes from one of the large piano factories in the east. Mr. Scullio is a first-class varnish and case man. This makes the Tallman shop one of the best equipped in the city.

All in Eugene—At the meeting of the Cherrians last night, P. E. Fullerton, T. E. McCroskey and M. L. Meyers were in Eugene yesterday attending to some special Boy Scout matters.

Canned Goods Going Up—Grocers say it is really true that during the past two weeks there has been an advance in canned goods. While one of our advances in price are absorbed by the retailer, when the price continues gradually to climb, it is passed on to the consumer, which often means a price of 5 cents per can higher than the ruling price of a few weeks ago.

More Road Work—The county paving plant is preparing to lay one mile of paving and already machinery and working force are on the ground. The new paving will begin at the end of the pavement on Twelfth street and will extend south to Potter's road. The paving is being done within one mile of the state institution for the feeble minded.

Poultry Show Coming—L. J. Chapin, director of the bureau of agriculture for the Commercial club, says plans will be started soon for the biggest and best poultry show ever held in Salem. The date is about the middle of December. He reports a general interest throughout the valley in poultry and the Marion county show. George Shaw of Salem is president of the poultry association; W. C. Connor, secretary and Harley O. White, advertising manager.

Milliken to Assist—C. C. Crowston last night delivered his concluding address in the series of tent meetings on Willamette university campus and leaves for California to begin his winter work. Dr. W. T. Milliken, pastor of the Salem Baptist church, will now be associated with C. H. Conliffe the tent during the remainder of the campaign here.

Thomason Not Sued—P. E. Thomason, flax grower, was recently mentioned in a published article as a defendant with J. F. Hutchason in a suit relative to a flax crop. Explanation is made that Mr. Thomason is really not a defendant in the case and is named merely because of an indirect connection with the crop.

Trunk Broken Into—Clara Gaerne of 424 South Cottage street reported to police yesterday that someone had broken into her trunk while it was stored Frances Humphrey, nurse; George A. Cherrington, sergeant; William Walker Kettle, captain medical corps and Lloyd T. Rigdon of Salem.

The Auto Camp Did It—W. W. Fuller of Minneapolis, came to Salem a year ago and stopped a while at the automobile camp. Then he drove south and spent the winter at San Diego. But the memory of green fields and a real fruit country was before him at all times. Hence this summer he came back to Salem, again camped at the auto camp, and finally purchased a lot on North Eighteenth street. He is now preparing to build a home.

Will Quit Farming—Louis Bechtel announces that he will discontinue the farming game within a short time and dispose of his farming stock and implements.

Tired of Farming—G. W. Hewitt, who lives in Polk county near Lincoln, one of the prominent farmers of that district, is about to quit the farming game, so he announces to his friends.

Good-Bye Party—About 30 graduates and students of Willamette university held a little get-together party Monday night at 840 Union street, the Alpha Psi Delta fraternity house. The occasion was one in the way of a farewell to the many Willamette graduates who will soon leave for their various teaching positions. The party was chaperoned by Professor and Mrs. W. H. Hertzog.

Will Live in Salem—Captain Paul Hathway who has recently been detailed as machine gun instructor of the Oregon national guard, will make his home in Salem. Before taking up his new duties here, he will visit in Washington, D. C. He has recently been stationed at Camp Lewis.

Some Busy Office—The offices of Captain H. C. Brumbaugh, secretary of the World war veterans' state aid commission, now includes seven rooms in the United States national bank building. In order to care for applications promptly, a force of 24 is now employed.

at 219 Court street and goods of considerable value taken. A lavalere in a velvet case, a leather case containing four pairs of scissors, a cigarette case on which was engraved the initial "D." a black Hawaiian doll, two boxes of stationery, a pair of silk hose, a bracelet and six handkerchiefs were the articles known to have been taken.

Lieutenant Kiel, the veteran forest patrol man of the whole coast. He was in charge of the aviation field in Salem two years ago, when the planes were first used for forest service. This was really the pioneer service of this kind in the United States for though one or two lone-wolf machines had flown over the forests of California, they were mere experimental flights, and didn't seriously count. The Oregon station was established in force, with a whole fairground full of machines.

There are now 13 planes in the Eugene squadron, and four others on detached service at Camp Lewis, Wash. The demand for the curtailment of national expenses may result in the disbandment or at least the crippling of the patrol service next year. But for now, it is proving wonderfully effective, and a worth-while national investment.

The new municipal aviation field, dedicated at Eugene, Labor day, is declared by Major H. H. Arnold, in charge of all the forest patrol for the Pacific coast and with headquarters at San Francisco, to be the best in the whole west. Major Arnold was present at the dedication of the field. Governor Olcott was there, the flyers having come up to Salem for him, on Monday, and they brought him back on Tuesday. The city has put up almost every necessary or even desirable convenience to make it a complete field that the aerial service can call "home," and the boys are appreciating it to the limit. Ten thousand people attended the formal opening.
