PORTLAND ATTORNEYS WILL DEFEND MEN IN JAIL HERE

Lewis, prohibition enforcement Brown's bullets shattered Lewofficer was done in an effort to protect himself from a supposed hold-up", will be the detense of J. M. Brown, according to state-ments made by relatives and legal counsel who visited Brown at the county jail yesterday.

T. Walter Gillard, of the law firm of John Collier, Henry Collier and T. W. Gillard, of Port-land, was in Salem yesterday and in conference with Brown during the afternoon. This firm was in the limelight in Multnomah county recently, successfully defending Mrs. Agee from charges brought against her in connection with the death of her husband.

Shots Fired During Raid Brown is held under $2500 conds in the county jail awaiting the action of the Marion county grand jury in connection with the shooting of Arthur Lewis on the night of September 6.

The shooting occurred when raiding party headed by Special Agent S. B. Sandefer made efforts to intercept a reported de-livery of 20 gallons of moonshine whiskey; which, it is alleged was to be turned over by J. M. Brown and Forrest Brown, his son, to third parties.

Officers Describe Occurrence. The four men accompanying Sandefer furnished District Attorney John Carson with statements that J. M. Brown came up to their machine and after questioning Lewis regarding the fired on Lewis, who afterwards Justice of the Peace McCord at stated that he had no weapon in Woodburn, October 3.

Lewis is confined to a local hospital and is reported to be recovering as rapidly us could be expected under the circumstances According to physicians attending him, it will be several months before he can walk again.

Unfairness Claimed "We have heard J. M. Brown's story of the shooting affair that occurred south of Salem, recently and believe that he has been sub jected to the most unfair and unust accusations," stated Mr. Guillard. Monday after interviewing

"Since the shooting Brown has been held at the county jail, his version of the shooting of Lewis untold," stated the attorney in outlining Brown's defense,

Says He Peared Hold-up. According to his lagal counsel Brown's story to those who question him will be that the Anti-Saloon league employe, Lewis, presented a gun at Brown's head Without explanation of his act "I fired in the belief that I was being held up" Brown is quoted as saying, "and not until I was brought to the sheriff's office at Salem did I realize that some members of the party were officers."

Forrest Brown recently entered a plea of not guilty to the charge of having liquor in his possession whereabouts of the younger Brown and his trial will be held before

Many Pupils In Hop And Prune Harvest

DALLAS, Or., Sept. 12 - (Special to The Statesman.) - The Trinity Young People Dallas public and high schools opened this morning for the fall term with but 456 pupils enrolled. This is about 250 short of the enrollment last year on the opening day. R. R. Turner, the city superintendent, thinks that the prune and hop harvest, which is still going on, is responsible to a great extent for the nonattendance of a large number of pupils today, but thinks that within a few weeks the enrollment will exceed that of last year by a big majority.

This is the earliest date heretofore remained closed until of the thief. after the hops and prunes were gathered. This year there is such a light prune crop that the school directors thought it was not wise to delay the opening date, and the schools will remain in session unless something comes up that will require the teams scored but Salem opened discussion, it was decided to have help of the school children to put
