

CONTEST KEEN AMONG NATIONS

Contest For International Court of Justice Adds Zest At Geneva

ROOT MAY BE CALLED

Large Number of Declarations Includes Notable Jurists of World

GENEVA, Sept. 13.—(By The Associated Press.)—Competition among about 25 out of the 48 states, members of the league of nations, for the 11 seats on the bench of the international court of justice and for the four seats in the league council gave life to the assembly sessions today.

List of nominations, including that of Elihu Root, who is not regarded as having officially declined. Only about 25, however, are expected to receive votes. Viscount Finlay, Great Britain, Dr. Andre Weiss, France; Yorozu Oda, Japan; Commendatore Dionisio Anzilotti, Italy; Dr. Ray Barbosa, Brazil; and Dr. E. P. C. Loder, Holland, are regarded as practically certain of election.

John Bassett Moore of the United States, is considered a strong probability. Competition for the four remaining seats is very lively, between South and Central America, Scandinavia, the Slavs, the Czechs and the British dominions.

Cuban Much Favored
A. S. De Bustamante of Cuba is much favored, as well as Dr. A. Alvarez of Chile. It is impossible to figure how the South and Central American can elect more than one judge, so strong is the pressure on other countries, which otherwise would be left unrepresented. Dr. Max Huber of Switzerland, was most prominently mentioned as a German-speaking candidate. Judge Nyholm of Denmark, and Judge Hamarskjold of Sweden, are favored by the Scandinavians; M. Jovanovic by the Slavs and Czechs, while Sir Robert L. Borden of Canada, is the leading candidate of the dominions.

Sweden Strong Candidate
It is thought likely Chile will succeed Brazil as one of the four non-permanent members of the council. Czechoslovakia is strongly supported to succeed Spain, while China, under the resolution adopted by the assembly last year providing that one of the non-permanent seats should go to Asia would be entitled to a seat again. But the point has been raised that this was a mere statement of sentiment and was not adopted as a part of the procedure. Sweden is a strong candidate for the seat occupied by Belgium.

An official list was issued today containing the names of men nominated for international court judgeships, who had declined to stand as candidates.

Many Decline
The list bore the following names: Gustav Ador, former president of Switzerland; Charles J. Doherty, Canadian minister of justice; Leon Bourgeois of France; Manuel Gonzalez Hontoria, foreign minister of Spain; Paul Hymens of Belgium, former president of the league assembly; Raymond Poincare, former president of France; Henri Fromaget of France; Christian L. Lange of Norway; Baron E. T. Marks de Wurtemberg, of Sweden.

The name of Elihu Root, from whom a message was received yesterday, declining to be a candidate, was still missing from the list today.

Frost Does Damage of $5,000 At State Hospital

Garden vegetables to the value of about $5000 were destroyed at the state hospital for the insane by a severe frost of Sunday and Monday nights. Dr. R. E. L. Steiner, superintendent of the hospital reports. This includes tomatoes, pumpkins, squashes and similar vegetables.

Damage elsewhere in the valley is reported.

IRISH ISSUE IS TIED UP

Unexpected Hitch Arises And De Valera's Men Visit Lloyd George

CONFERENCE IS DELAYED

Colonel Maurice Moore Comes Forward With Entirely New Solution

LONDON, Sept. 13.—(By The Associated Press.)—An unexpected hitch has arisen in the Irish negotiations. Premier Lloyd George, who is at Gallicho, Scotland, today received Harry, secretary to Eamonn De Valera, and Joseph McGrath, another Sinn Fein representative, according to an official communication issued tonight and Messrs. Boland and McGrath are returning to Dublin with his explanation of certain points in the government's proposal for consideration by the Dail Eireann.

It is said Mr. De Valera's reply dealing with the question of accepting or not accepting the invitation to a conference will not be delivered until Friday or Saturday.

New Explanation Asked.
It is understood that the letter which McGrath and Boland bore to the premier asked for fresh explanation of the British government's latest communication and that these points are of vital importance, necessitating return of the couriers to Dublin for consultation with Mr. De Valera and his colleagues.

The new developments will delay the proposed conference between the government and the Irish plenipotentiaries beyond September 20, the date suggested by Mr. Lloyd George.

Collins Possible Delegate.
Apparently nothing has been definitely decided as yet on the composition of the Irish delegation. Michael Collins, commander of the Irish Republican Army, is mentioned now as a possible delegate and it is still possible Mr. De Valera will consent to head the delegation.

DUBLIN, Sept. 13.—Colonel Maurice Moore, commander of the Irish national volunteers today suggested a solution to the Irish controversy an agreement on the lines of the old dual-monarchy in Austria-Hungary. Under such an arrangement, he said, England and Ireland would be separate kingdoms under the same king, neither having the right to interfere directly or indirectly with the other, the king acting for England on the advice of his English ministers and for Ireland on the advice of the Irish ministers.

Viceroy Proposed.
If, on account of the king's residence in England, it became necessary to appoint a viceroy, he would be chosen by the Irish ministers, in which case, according to Colonel Moore, Eamonn De Valera probably would be the viceroy.

and member of the Salem Elks lodge.

Julius Alonzo Churchill, superintendent of public instruction for the state of Oregon, was born at the state of Oregon, in 1862. He attended Northwestern Ohio university in 1883 and later taught in the public schools of Ohio. For three years he was principal of the Crookston, Minn., high school. 1887-88 he held elected superintendent of the Baker, Ore., city schools from 1891 until 1913. That year he was elected superintendent of public instruction for Oregon and has served continuously. He is a member of the Oregon state library board, and executive officer of the state board of vocational education. He is a Republican, member of the Episcopal church and an Elk.

Dr. Carl Greg Doney, president of Willamette university, was born at Columbus, O., in 1867. He attended the Ohio State university in 1891 and took a post graduate course in philosophy at Harvard the following year. He entered the Methodist ministry in 1893 as pastor of the church at Bainbridge, Ohio, 1893-95. He was pastor of the Centenary church at Granville, Ohio, 1895-98 and at St. Paul's church, Delaware, Ohio, 1898-1900, then King's Avenue church, Columbus, Ohio, 1900-1905.

In 1907 he was elected president of West Virginia Wesleyan college at Buchanan, W. Va., remaining in that position until elected president of Willamette university in 1915. Inclined to literary work early in life, he has written a number of books including "The Throne of the Soul," and "An Efficient Church," in addition to contributing to a number of national magazines. He was in France in 1918 as Y. M. C. A. lecturer and in liaison work. He is a 32d degree Mason.

F. G. Franklin, lineal descendant of Benjamin Franklin of the Revolutionary war period, was born in Plover, Wis., in 1861, studied at the state normal school at Whitewater, Wis., 1887, later at Columbia university and in 1901 at the University of Washington. He was professor of history at Southwest Kansas college, Winfield, Kans., 1893-95, instructor of history in the University of Nebraska, 1897-99 and at the University of the Pacific from 1904 to 1909. He was with Albany, Ore., college from 1909 to 1918 when he came to Willamette university as teacher of social science. He has written "Legislative History of Naturalization in the United States."

Lawrence T. Harris of the Oregon supreme court, was born in Albany in 1873. Attended the University of Michigan and admitted to the bar in 1896, practicing at Eugene. He was a member of the Oregon house of representatives in 1901, and again in 1903, when he was elected speaker of the house. In 1905 he was elected judge of the second judicial district, serving until 1912. In 1915 he was elected justice of the supreme court of Oregon and re-elected for a second term. He is a Republican, Mason and Elk.

Miss Cornelia Marvin is the only woman in Oregon who has the honor of mention in the 1921 "Who's Who in America." She was born at Monticello, Iowa, educated in the St. Paul, Minn., schools and by private tutors. Studied library science in Chicago at Armour institute and became reference librarian and instructor in the institute. She was elected librarian of the Scoville institute at Oak Park, and later became instructor. Her next work was with the free library commission until 1919, when she was elected state librarian for Oregon. Just before coming to Oregon she was head of the Wisconsin library school at the University of Wisconsin.

Miss Marvin served as state historian for records, Oregon volume of World's war, and with the American Library association on the Mexican border during the war. She is a member of the Oregon board of regents, Oregon Normal school and in 1919-20, served as president of the American Library association, an exceptional honor. She is a Republican, Unitarian, member of the Professional Women's league and author of a book entitled "Small Library Buildings."

Charles Linza McNary, United States senator from Oregon, was born near Salem in 1874. He attended Stanford university in 1898 and also received instruction from private tutors. In 1902 he was married to Miss Jessie Brezina of Salem. He was admitted to the bar in 1898, and from 1906 to 1912 was deputy district attorney with his brother John H. McNary. He served as justice of the supreme court of Oregon 1913-15 and on June 1, 1915 was appointed United States senator for the unexpired term of Harry Lane, being elected senator at the following general election.

He was president of the Taft-Sherman club and chairman of the Republican state central committee 1916-17. He is a Baptist, Mason, Elk and Odd Fellow.

Ill Health Prevents Tour By French Star
NEW YORK, Sept. 13.—Mlle. Suzanne Lenglen, French woman tennis champion, has been compelled to cancel her proposed exhibition tour because of ill health, it was announced tonight by the American committee for devastated France, under whose auspices she came to the United States to play in benefit matches.

PETITIONS TO BE CIRCULATED

Property Owners See Necessity of Extending North Capitol Street

GIESY TO BE CONSULTED

Determination To Improve Is Expressed By Members of Committee

Residents of North Capitol street are in dead earnest about extending the street north from its present end to meet with the paved Fair Grounds road. At a meeting held last night at the city hall, there was more enthusiasm and downright earnestness than ever before shown at any meeting where North Capitol street extension was discussed, according to Fred A. Erlson.

Property owners now see the necessity of extending the street, or of becoming simply a side street for the great Pacific highway, as already bids have been asked for by the city council for the paving of North Summer street.

Residents living on North Capitol street do not intend to be left out, Mr. Erlson said, and for this reason three petitions will be circulated today. Raising of money with which to pay damage to property when the street is extended to a point in front of the Wirth house, where it connects with the Fair Grounds road.

Believing in action, the committee in charge of keeping things moving will interview John Giesy, chairman of the street committee of the city council, and have a survey made at once of the two or three blocks necessary.

"Everybody on North Capitol street wants the road extended," Mr. Erlson said, "and we are going to have it."

Coming Thursday
COURAGE
Liberty Theatre

Last Times Today Tomorrow

Courage

A Sidney A. Franklin production

Andrew Soutar's vivid drama of a wife's faith in conflict with the torments of solitude and separation.

LIBERTY THEATRE

Extra Special

Ladies' Silk Crepe De Chine Waists, a new shipment just received in colors navy, black, white and flesh

$2.98 Each

Our Prices Always the Lowest

GALE & CO.

Commercial and Court Streets

Careful Buying

Explains our System Of Low Prices

Buying is the most important factor in the successful management of a business institution. By careful buying, and a low overhead expense, it is always possible to give bargains. People naturally go where the prices are made lowest. That's why they come here. Buying is the secret of our success. That explains our crowded store full of eager shoppers.

HUB MERCHANTILE CO.

373-77 Court Street Phone 464

THE SON OF TARZAN

THE WORLD'S WONDER JUNGLE SERIAL

FREE MATINEE For Children

Friday—Saturday 11 a. m.

BLIGH THEATRE

SALEM FARES WELL IN WHO'S WHO VOLUME

(Continued from page 1)

The "Alleghenians," published in 1897. He is a Republican and member of the Methodist church.

Justice Henry J. Bean, of the Oregon supreme court, was born in 1853 at Bethel, Me. He read law in Bethel and was admitted to the bar in 1891. Was city attorney of Pendleton 1883-84 and recorder of the city in 1885. He became a member of the Oregon house of representatives in 1889 and district attorney for the sixth judicial district 1896-1900. He was county judge of Umatilla county 1904-06 and circuit judge 1906-10. He was elected to the Oregon supreme court in 1911 and has served continuously on the bench. He is a Republican and member of the Masonic lodge.

Henry L. Benson, member of the supreme court of Oregon, was born at Stockton, Cal., in 1854. He attended the University of the Pacific at Santa Clara and was admitted to the bar in 1878. He practiced law at San Jose. In 1892 he was elected district attorney for the first Oregon district, serving four years. In 1897 he was a member of the Oregon house of representatives and a year later was elected judge of the circuit court, first judicial district, serving from 1898 until 1915. That year he was elected member of the Oregon supreme court. He is a Methodist and a Republican.

George M. Brown, member of the Oregon supreme court, was born in Roseburg in 1864 and was graduated from Willamette university in 1885. He practiced law at Roseburg in 1891 and in 1895 he was elected district attorney of the second judicial district, serving from 1895 until 1914, when he was elected attorney general for Oregon. He resigned this position to accept an appointment on the supreme court bench of Oregon and was elected to the Oregon supreme court at the last general election. He is a Republican, Presbyterian, member of the Masonic lodge and an Odd Fellow.

George H. Burnett, chief justice of the supreme court of Oregon, was born in Yamhill county in 1850. He went to school at McMinnville and also at Monmouth. In 1879 he was married to Mrs. Belt of Salem. He practiced law at Salem from 1876 to 1892. He was district attorney 1876-78 and reporter for the supreme court of Oregon, 1890-92. Elected judge of the circuit court serving from 1892 to 1911, when he was elected member of the Oregon supreme court, serving continuously. He is a Republican, Mason, Odd Fellow

"Come Everyday"

It is not necessary to wait until Friday or Saturday to make your money have its greatest buying power at Skaggs United Store. Our "EVERYDAY PRICES" are winning us Satisfied Customers daily. Compare "OUR EVERYDAY PRICES" with so-called "SPECIAL PRICES" at other stores.

Pure Cane-Berry Sugar, 15 pounds	$1.00	M. J. B. Coffee
Crisco		5 pound tins	$1.75
3 lb. tin	50c	3 pound tins	$1.08
6 lb. tin	99c	1 pound tins	.37
9 lb. tin	$1.47	Skaggs Blend
Syrup		Distinctive in Flavor, Ground fresh as sold, lb.	35c
White Karo, 10 lb. tin	78c	Canned Milk
Amber Karo, 10 lb. tin	68c	Has advanced, this price is right. Borden's, Carnation or Libby's, (tall) 8 cans for	95c
Marshmallow, 10 lb. tin	$1.05	Good Tea
Large Log Cabin, 10 lb. tin	$1.17	Have you tried Our Tea?
Small Log Cabin, tin	.29	No. 1 Gunpowder	50c
Creamery Butter, Etc.		No. 1 Spider Leg Japan, pound	59c
Have you tried Clover Queen Butter? Best grade, pound	48c	Ghirardellis Bulk Cocoa
Nut-Butter, 2 pounds	55c	4 pounds	53c
New Pack Pineapple Arrives		Macaroni and Cereals
Here's a real buy—Honolulu 2 1/2 size (new pack) 4 cans	99c	Best Macaroni, 10 pounds	89c
Golden West Coffee		Kellogg's Corn Flakes, 3 for	35c
5 pound tins	$1.95	Post Toasties, 3 for	35c
3 pound tins	$1.14	Cream of Wheat, 2 for	55c
1 pound tins	.40	Roman Meal, package	35c
"NORTHERN FLOUR" continues to PLEASE, 49 lb. bag $2.13 Barrel (4 bags) $8.50		Olympic Pancake Flour, package	28c
Buy now to be assured of "OLD WHEAT Flour—it's best."

SKAGGS UNITED STORES

Portland—Salem—Hillsboro Oregon

Why Wait?

Buy Your Furniture Now at Closing Out Prices

(Furniture Dept. 2nd Floor)

Linoleum 12 ft. wide, heavy quality per yard	Rugs $40.00 Tapestry Brussels Rugs, size 6x9 while they last at	Congoleum 6 ft. wide, Good Quality, per yard
$1.00	$17.45	60c

Toilet Articles	Notions
Colgate's Tooth Paste..... 8c	Clark's O. N. T. Lustre Cotton..... 5c
Colgate's Talcum..... 15c	Hair Curlers..... 10c
Williams Shaving Soap..... 25c	Hair Nets..... 10c
Odo-Ro-No, small size..... 23c	Darning Cotton..... 5c
Odo-Ro-No, medium size..... 43c	Silk Dress Shields..... 32c
Odo-Ro-No, large size..... 79c	Baby Hose Supporters..... 10c
Pro-Phy-Lac-Tic Tooth Brushes..... 39c	Dr. Parker's Waist and Garters..... 50c
(Main Floor)	(Main Floor)

Percales	Children's Hose	Genuine Japanese Crepe
In fancy stripes, checks and pretty designs to choose from at, per yard	Children's High Grade Black Hose, in all sizes at, per pair	Large assortment of all the new wanted shades to choose from at, per yard
15c (Main Floor)	19c (Main Floor)	29c (Main Floor)

Worth & Gray Dept. Store

177 North Liberty Street, Salem, Oregon