Cheap Mill Feed.—Mill feed has never been so cheap during the past 12 years as it is now, according to D. A. White. In fact, he cannot remember a year during the past quarter century in Salem, when mill feed has been much cheaper than this year. Twenty-five years ago, wheat was selling in Salem at from 43 to 45 cents a bushel and bran feed was selling at about $3 a ton. Mr. White said. Flour was then selling for 60 cents a sack.

Small Blaze Checked

The combination of a hot stove and a pastboard carton caused a small conflagration in the store of Foster & Baker at 339 North Commercial street last night. The fire department made a quick run but were not obliged to use water or chemicals, the burning material being carried to the pavement in the rear of the business place before a serious blaze developed. Persons occupying rooms over the store were attracted by the smoke and turned in the alarm.
