Miss Ruth Johns was honored as a guest at a pleasant affair given on Friday evening by Mrs. W. E. Anderson at her home, 1451 Court street, only members of the Salem Music Teachers' association being invited. The principal portion of the evening was given to the study of the life of Caruso. Many interesting sidelights on the character and temperament of the great singer were culled from various high authorities and contributed at this time. A number of Caruso records formed a pleasing feature of the evening's entertainment.

HARDING SOON GETS TAX BILL

Revision Measure to Reach President Late in October, Says Penrose

BIG RETURN POSSIBLE

Not Less Than $3,200,000, 000 Will Be Yielded Annually, is Estimate

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19.—The tax revision bill will be sent to the president by late in October, Chairman Penrose predicted today in announcing that the senate finance committee had formally approved the house measure as amended. Neither the Smoot manufacturers' sales tax nor the Calder proposal to impose a tax of $6.50 a gallon on all alcoholic liquors withdrawn from bond for other than manufacturing purposes will be included in the measure as it will be presented to the senate Wednesday.

Early Action Promised. Senator Penrose said that it was the plan to take the bill up immediately and press for final action. He added that some features, particularly the profits tax repeal and the proposed reduction of the maximum income surtax from 32 per cent, would be opened for certain quarters, "but that there seemed to be a desire to expedite passage. "Under these circumstances," he continued, "there is a reasonable expectation that the bill can be passed in the senate with two weeks' consideration and ought not to require more than a week in conference."

Heavy Revenue Possible. While treasury experts have yet to complete their final estimate as to the total revenue that probably will be realized this fiscal year under the measure, it was stated that the amount would not be less than $2,000,000,000, the minimum which Secretary Mellon informed the committee would be necessary. For the next fiscal year it is estimated roughly that the return would be around $2,700,000,000.

Whiskey Clause Accepted. The Smoot sales tax plan was discussed further in the committee today with treasury experts participating, but Chairman Penrose said Senator Smoot had stated afterwards that he was willing not to press the amendment in the committee but would reserve the right to do so at a later date. The committee did not take a vote on the proposal, the chairman added.

The Calder whiskey tax amendment already has been accepted in principle by the committee and Senator Smoot would present it in the senate practically as a committee amendment. Senator Calder also has reserved the right to offer another amendment to tax 2.75 per cent beer at $5 a barrel.

Two Changes Made. Before finally approving the bill, the committee voted two additional changes. Under one amendment admission charges not exceeding 10 cents, would be exempt from the 1 cent tax imposed by the present law. Under the other hotels would pay a tax of 10 per cent on the amount charged to transients for rooms, if the sum exceeds $5 for one person and $8 for two persons.

Could Hardly Straighten Up. When the kidneys are overworked and fail to throw out waste matter from the system, it causes aches, pains, lame back, swollen ankles, sore joints, dizziness, floating specks, etc. J. W. Seabock, Chester, Pa., writes: "My kidneys and back hurt me so when I got out of bed in the morning I could hardly straighten up. Had to rub the small of my back before I could walk. I could hardly button my shoes. I haven't felt the soreness since I took Foley Kidney Pills. Sold everywhere.—Adv.

TOMORROW SELLS-FLOTO WILL ARRIVE IN SALEM WITH THE GREAT "POODLES" HANNEFORD

Tomorrow the red wagons will roll. Tomorrow the white and green trains of the Sells-Floto circus will bring to town the clowns, the elephants, the pink and be-sungled ladies, the jungle pets, the bands and the calliope. By the time morning exercises with the safety razors and the turkish robes are well under way throughout the city, 15 acres of tents will be laid out about towering center poles and hundreds of workmen, to say nothing of staff folk and 400 performers, will be watching for the flag to race up the cookhouse halyards on the Salem circus lot. For tomorrow is circus day—Sells-Floto circus day, and that's saying a mouthful, if one can rely at all on the solemn oaths of the four score and ten advance agents and billers of "the second largest show on earth."

Any way, all of these self-effacing circus lads have one answer when you ask them for the 1921 feature. "Poodles!" they exclaim. "Poodles!" Hanneford, of course! and they seem to think they ought to know. Maybe, we do, but it is not well to tell all one knows. Anyway "Poodles" Hanneford, his sister, his brother, his mother, his bride and the rest of the Hanneford troups have the whole hearted admiration of the Sells-Floto advance. "The greatest clown rider of all time," explains the press agent, "and the highest salaried circus act the world has ever known"—that's one of the items on the feature list of the big show. Of course, they have the Nelsons, the Codonas, the La Fears, and other aerialists; the Hobsons, the Hodgrins and other riders; Victoria and Herberta Beeson and other wire dancers, including the Stelmers; the Otawagas and the Hamilo Madri Arabs and other acrobatic troups; the Luckeys, the Rowlands, the Hamiltons, the Sweeneys and so on—three rings and two stages filled with features, but it's "Poodles" they adore.

Fire at Pratum Almost Destroys Lumber Plant

PRATUM, Or., Sept. 19.—Saturday forenoon about 11 o'clock sparks from the sawmill owned by the Smith Wilson Lumber company dropped in the dipping plant where everything was soaked for a time made it almost impossible for anyone getting near enough to throw water on the fire which was constantly coming closer to the mill, but finally a bucket brigade and a steady stream of water from a pressure hose subdued the fire so it could be kept under control, and the heavy rain has eliminated any further danger. Fred Bishop, Lowell Lambert, Earnest and Henry Roth spent yesterday at the beach. On account of the Hayesville district Sunday school convention at Waconda there will be no meeting at the church here next Sunday. Mrs. H. de Vries is a visitor at the home of her daughter in Portland. Among other things, the cost of raising children is going up right along. It used to be that the overhead expense of gasoline and fines need not be considered in the home establishment. But that was some time ago.
