Y. M. C. A. Leaders Tell of Plans in Conference at Wallace Farm

BOYS HELD IMPORTANT

Annual Financial Campaign Is Slated for October, Chairman Reports

A. Kells, secretary. The attendance was 60 and the exercises of the afternoon and evening held in the Wallace house.

W. I. Staley, president of the Salem Y. M. C. A., presided, stating that the object of the meeting was for a full discussion of plans for the coming season.

T. E. McCroskey, chairman for boys' work, said that 30 or more boys clubs would be organized this winter to help the boys in developing Christian citizenship. This would include father and son club and a mother and son club.

Dr. Frank Brown told of how, for the coming season, every boy in the city would be in the 5th grade and up to the senior high school would be given a free membership in the Y. M. C. A., with the privilege of giving from his earnings.

Athletic classes in prospect. Ross Miles explained a program of study for boys this winter. Dr. C. W. Southworth told of gym classes for high school boys and wrestling classes.

John H. Farrar told of the 22 swimming meets last month and plans for the winter. George Hüg spoke of the triangular rally being held in Salem, Portland and Eugene in volleyball playing as a part of the fall program.

Women Promise Support. Mrs. J. B. Littler, chairman of the Mothers' club, said that girls who are in preparing luncheons for the Hi Y. meets would be chaperoned as in the past. Also plans for helping the "Y" in securing better kitchen equipment.

Mrs. F. A. Elliott, president of the Y. W. C. A., spoke of the girls' reserve work similar to the Hi Y work for boys. A. B. Stillman said that courses would be opened in the Y. M. C. A. for study in public speaking and salesmanship. W. T. Jenks told of Bible classes to be conducted and of the observance of national prayer week. Joseph H. Albert said that thrift week would be observed.

Paul Wallace, chairman of finances, said that the annual campaign would be put on during October, and that as so many boys of the high school would be admitted without charge, a little more money must be raised this year than last.

Newspaper Man Speaks. Fred Lockley of the Oregon Journal delivered an address on "The Y. M. C. A. as a Community Asset." He took the stand that the raising of the right kind of boys in a community was a bigger thing than the biggest business in the city.

He Swings It Several Times on Volonno, Who is Now in Hospital

"Mr. Chief, would you please tell me if that Italian is going to kick the bucket, and send for me a rabbi, please. And also if it asks not too much could I see a newspaper?"

Irving M. Kaplan asked all these questions of Chief of Police Moffitt last night when he learned that he would be brought before Justice Unruh at 10 a. m. tomorrow morning to answer a charge of assault with a deadly weapon.

The stabbing affair is said to have occurred after the pair had staged two exciting fistie combats in the downtown district. According to police report, difference arising over the ownership of a $10 bill was the cause of unrest. Officers Miller Hayden and Elmer White arrested Kaplan, following the knife-wielding scene. It is reported from the local hospital that the Italian is rapidly recovering from the effects of his wounds.
