"The Country of the Big Heart"—that is the description of America given to her friends by little Miss Alice Kim, Korean student who is visiting this country for the first time.

A slender little maiden with lustrous dark hair and deep expressive brown eyes, Miss Kim, her charming smile and exquisite poise found her way quite readily into the hearts of the kindly women through whose efforts the Korean school for girls is maintained.

Miss Kim occupies a unique position in her own country, being one of but four unmarried girls in the entire country, which covers about as much territory as does the state of Oregon and contains 17 millions of people. To understand this situation, however, one must remember that in many Oriental countries, children are married when very young, the wife often not making the husband's home her own for some years.

Miss Kim's age, reckoned by our methods, is 24 years. In Korea she is counted as 26. The reason is this: In many of the Far Eastern countries, a child is reckoned a year old on the day of its birth. This is true in Korea, but here is a variation in the usual custom.

PEACE What was the first prophetic word that rang When down the starry sky the angels sang. That night they came as envoys of the Birth— What word but peace, "peace and good will on earth" And what was the last word the Master said That parting night when they broke brother-bread, That night he knew men would not let him live— Oh, what, but "peace I leave" and "Peace I give?" And yet behold: near twice a thousand years And still the battle-wrath, the grief, the tears. Let mercy speed the hour when swords shall cease And men cry back to God, "There shall be Peace!" —Edwin Markham.

As charming a collection of beaux and belles as ever graced a ballroom was in evidence on Saturday afternoon at a pretty affair given at the Elite hall by Mrs. Ralph White. Mrs. White's guests were demure little maidens of very tender years and gentlemen who, despite their gallantry and sophistication, were extremely youthful as to countenance and stature.

This is the first of a series of three parties which Mrs. White gives annually. The second is a masquerade and the third a May dance. The only out of town guests on this occasion were little Miss Mabel Digniss of Silverton.

Earl Shafer was host at a dinner party given on Thursday evening to honor Ralph E. Wilson, a former school mate who left Saturday for Annapolis where he will resume his work at the naval academy. Italy's 1921 Harvest is Near High Pre-War Mark ROME, Sept. 24.—Italy's harvest this year will reach its pre-war productivity, according to the government crop forecasts. The total harvest anticipated will reach 51,200,000 quintals (of about 220 pounds each) comprising all kinds of grain.

The average pre-war crop was calculated at 48,000,000 quintals. During the war production decreased to 38,000,000 quintals. The present year's crop is also distinguished by the fact that it lacks but 6,000,000 in equaling the record grain crop of Italy, which was in 1913, when it reached nearly 58,000,000 quintals.

Paris Police Want New Style of Service Garb - PARIS, Sept. 24.—The Paris police—known as "agents"—are going to change their clothes. Their uniforms are quite dignified but they have found that a high-collared, long-tailed double-breasted uniform doesn't add to their speed in a 440-yard sprint after an offender. They object, too, that criminals are "quick on the draw." Several designs of costume and material are being tried out on some of the men so as to develop new models.
