

SPECIAL VENIRE IS ORDERED TO OBTAIN SOUTHWARD JURYMEN

TWIN FALLS, Idaho, Sept. 27.—The venire of 75 talesmen impelled to provide a jury in the case of the state against Lyda Meyer Southern, charged with the murder of her fourth husband, Edward F. Meyer, was exhausted today and court adjourned until 2 p. m. Wednesday to permit of the impelling of a special venire of 40 men.

The entire day's session was spent in the work of selecting a jury. At the hour of adjournment the prosecution had exhausted four of its peremptory challenges and the defense three. Each side has 10 peremptories and it is expected there will still be many changes in the personnel of the jury before the box is filled to the satisfaction of both sides. The courtroom was well filled with spectators during the afternoon session, many of whom were young girls. The defendant and her husband, Paul Vincent Southern, occupied their accustomed seats but there was a noticeable of Zeh Prevost that Mrs. Delmont had knocked and kicked at the door of room 1219 and asked to be let in. Miss Blake, however, said she did not see the first entrance made into that room, testifying that after an interval while she was in room 1221, she walked into 1219 and found Miss Rappe lying on a bed unclothed.

Remark Not Recalled. Although Miss Prevost was unable to recollect a remark which Assistant District Attorney Milton U'Ren said Mrs. Delmont made to Arbuckle about the ice, Miss Blake said she remembered Mrs. Delmont had said something about Arbuckle always taking everything as a joke.

Miss Prevost said the only times she saw any ice was when she observed it in a bowl in room 1221, again when Arbuckle brought in a piece to administer to Miss Rappe and when someone put a bag of it at the back of Miss Rappe's neck.

Drinking Described. She testified that she saw Miss Rappe take only one drink, but that when Miss Rappe entered the room in which Arbuckle followed her she "sort of skipped along." Miss Prevost described Mrs. Delmont's condition at the party as "drunk."

TRIAL CHARGE TO BE DETERMINED

change in the manner of each towards both the proceedings and the newspapermen present. Both announced that they would have no further statements to make and that any further information they might have to give out would be provided by Mrs. Southern's attorney.

Minor legal tilts between attorneys alone served to break the monotony of the work of jury selection.

TODAY'S PROGRAM AT FAIR GROUNDS

Evening 7:30 p. m.—Program in auditorium of new pavilion, featuring folk songs, dances and instinctive musical numbers by foreign born citizens, all participants appearing in native costumes. Introductory remarks by B. G. Skulason, native of Iceland. Special numbers will be led by John Olson of Portland, former member of famous Skansen dancers. Violin solo by Miss Elizabeth Levy, accompanied by Edward Courson of Portland. Piano solo by Dr. Emil Enna of Portland. Danish tableau, "Denmark and Slevig," directed by Mrs. George Lindahl of Portland.

8 p. m.—Horse show in stadium featuring a field of 17 lightweight hunters; 18 horses in water jump, most sensational of week's horse show program; and three special entertainment features. Also 12 competitive events.

Note—There will be open air band concerts, music by Old Salsbury life and drum corps and miscellaneous entertainment events at different hours of the day and night.

Hostesses in Daughters of American Revolution booth in American exhibit in educational building today are Mrs. C. C. Clark, Mrs. Russell Catlin and Miss Ola Clark of Chemeketa chapter.

Announcements will be fire drills at unannounced hours of the day, participated in by expert fire teams under direction of Chirh Thomas Graham of Corvallis.

Famous Whitney Boys chorus of 1000 voices will give concert on fairgrounds Sunday afternoon, Oct. 2, at 3 o'clock.

Members of Oregon Pure Breed Livestock association for reorganization and affiliation with county organizations will be held at 8 o'clock Wednesday night.

Pavilion Program Program to be given Wednesday night at 7:30 in the auditorium of the main pavilion by the foreign born citizens of Oregon who will appear in native costumes.

The numbers will be as follows: 1. "Columbia the Gem of the Ocean." 2. Opening address by B. G. Skulason, a native of Iceland.

3. Violin solo, selection, Miss Elizabeth Levy, native of Belgium, accompanied by Edgar Courson of Portland.

4. Folk dance, part 1—John Olson, "Rospispolka" (from the middle part of Sweden). Part 2—"Flallnaspolka" (from the northern part of Sweden). Assisting musicians, Otto Wikstrom, John T. Tuglerund, Agar Haslam.

5. Tableau, Denmark, directed by Mrs. George Lindahl. First scene, "Maldens of Slevig," by Miss Grace Hagersten and Miss Marie Hagersten.

6. Vocal solo by J. W. Thielad, "Do vog den vi grov ben." Intermission, orchestra music. Scene 2—Tableaux, Denmark, "Denmark's Genius," by Miss Ella Anderson.

Scene 3—Reunion of Denmark and Slevig. By Miss Grace Hagersten, Miss Marie Hagersten, and Miss Ella Anderson.

Solo—"Der er et land"—By J. W. Thielad. Piano solo by Dr. Emil Enna. Folk dance led by John Olson, "Oxidane."

(A stent dance from the United States of Sweden, 1600 A. D.) Dance, "Vava Velma" (from southern Sweden). Misses, men and women in Swedish folk dances. Dancers, Elsie Bolstrom, Ruth Johnson, Anna Olsen, Ellen Wikstrom, Elsa Mattsen, Selma Dyrtang, Messrs, John Olson, C. B. Nordblad, A. T. Donaldson, Gustave Johnson, Signa Horzen, Nils Wicks.

Song, "America," led by Mrs. C. C. Clark.

MALHEUR WILL BE QUARANTINED

State Board Takes Precaution to Prevent Spread of Alfalfa Weevil

Charles A. Park, president of the state board of horticulture, has returned from the eastern part of the state where he looked into alfalfa weevil conditions. After a thorough investigation, Mr. Park announces that it will become necessary to quarantine Malheur county on account of weevil and that action will be taken at once to prevent the shipment of alfalfa into other counties.

This action is taken by proclamation by the governor, acting with the state board of horticulture and when once the proclamation is issued alfalfa will be permitted to be shipped out of Malheur county until permission is given by the state board. This is just a precautionary measure, Mr. Park said, to prevent the spread of the weevil throughout the state. It is regarded as a most dangerous pest. It was originally brought into Utah some time ago from Italy, and from that state is spreading west, until now it has infested Malheur county.

In his trip into Eastern Oregon, Mr. Park found apple conditions especially with alfalfa, and producing sections having in sight a bumper crop. In the prairie districts of eastern Oregon, he found prunes were being sold green and at satisfactory prices.

While Malheur has been growing alfalfa, the opinion that farmers will go into other lines and scatter their crops the coming year.

BLACK GIANT CAPON WEIGHS 19 POUNDS

(Continued from page 1)

prize pullet in the Western Winter show held at Portland last December, the other birds in the pen being in the same class.

McElroy Has Large Show Another exhibit which is admired on all sides of fine poultry is the Buff Orpington entry of Burton McElroy of Portland, which includes 26 birds, every one of which would pull down a prize in almost any show. There is no better flock of Buff Orpingtons in the state.

Judge Cook, assisted by Judge Keeney, is making good progress in judging the cows, and Judge Carter of Tacoma will have the awards up on the rabbits today.

Robb Record Made EW Hogan, a breeder of steel gray, silver black and black Flemish Giant rabbits has the distinction of receiving 45 awards on an entry of 48 rabbits.

The picnic exhibit of Wallace Sears, Edwards & Son, of Salem and C. A. Matt of Portland is attracting much attention. Mr. Matt as well as Edwards & Son has some very rare birds, among which is a pair of blue Marbled Turbets, English Trumpeters and Scandaroons.

The Pacific Co-operative Poultry Producers' association of Oregon is conducting an egg candling and grading demonstration in the old pavilion, an expert candler from Portland being on the job and R. E. Sheriff, assistant secretary of the association in charge. This demonstration gives poultrymen some inside information on receiving, grading and candling eggs for the market for the members of this big egg marketing organization.

The list of awards announced yesterday follows: George Downs, Portland, 1st and 2nd cocks; 1st cocklet; 2nd hen; 1st old pen; 3rd young pen. H. J. Hamlet, Portland, 2nd cock; 3rd cocklet.

Mrs. J. C. Murray, Portland, 2nd cock, 2nd pullet. J. O. Wattle, Eugene, 1st hen, 1st pullet. Ben F. Keeney, Eugene, 3rd pullet.

C. B. Wheeler, Pleasant Hill, Or., 1st young pen. O. L. Turner, Eugene, 2nd young pen.

Light Hurred P. Rocks C. B. Wheeler, Pleasant Hill, Or., 1st cock; 1st and 2nd cocklets; 1st hen; 1st and 2nd young pen.

Nate L. Wiley, Rex, Or., 2nd cock; 3rd cocklet; 3rd hen. J. O. Wattle, Eugene, 2nd hen; 2nd and 3rd pullet.

White Wyandottes J. A. Wattle, Eugene, Or., 1st, 2nd, 3rd cocks; 1st and 2nd cocklets; 1st, 2nd and third hens; 2nd and third pullets; 1st old pen.

H. E. Bell & Son, Milwaukie, Ore., 2nd cocklet; 1st pullet. Silver Laced Wyandottes Henry W. Domes, McCoy, Ore., 1st and 2nd cocks; 1st, 2nd and 3rd cocklets; 1st, 2nd and 3rd hens; 1st, 2nd and 3rd pullets; 1st and 2nd old pens; 1st, 2nd and 3rd young pens.

Buff Wyandottes Fred A. Johnson, Tacoma, Wash., 1st and 2nd cocks; 1st and 2nd cocklets; 1st and 2nd hens; 1st and 2nd pullets.

Columbian Wyandotte A. P. Wheeler, Pleasant Hill, Oregon, 1st cock; 1st hen. Partridge Wyandotte V. M. LaDue, Salem, Ore., 1st and 2nd cocklets; 1st hen; 1st pullet.

S. C. Black Minorca, Nate L. Wiley, Rex, Or., 1st cock. G. W. Speight, Hubbard, 1st, 2nd and 3rd, cocklets; 2nd and 3rd, hens; 2nd pullet, 1st young pen.

O. B. Winters, Newberg, 1st, hen; 1st and 3rd, pullets. S. C. White Minorca, Roy C. Smith, Oregon City, 1st 2nd, cocks; 3rd cocklets; 1st, 2nd and 3rd, hens; 1st, 2nd, 3rd, pullets. William Tupper, Hillsboro, 2nd cocklet; 1st old pen; 1st young pen.

S. C. White Leghorn, Fred A. Johnson, Tacoma, 1st cock; 2nd pullet. A. P. Wheeler, Pleasant Hill, Or., 2nd cock; 1st hen; 2nd young pen. E. D. Hosmer, Sherwood, Or., 3rd cock; 2nd and 3rd, hens, 1st pullet.

Roy Warfield, Aulsea, Or., 1st, 2nd and 3rd cocklets; 3rd pullet; 1st young pen.

BOOZE IS MILD AND THEN RESOLD

(Continued from page 1)

Charles F. Clynne, district attorney tonight still was preparing a full report to Chief Fitzmorris in which he promises to name every member of the police force against whom he has evidence.

Replying to a statement by Wayne B. Wheeler, counsel for the Anti-Saloon league, that blame for lack of enforcement of the prohibition laws in Chicago lay with the city and federal officials, Chief Fitzmorris said:

"There is an old Arabian proverb that will reply to Mr. Wheeler. It runs something like this: 'He that knows not and knows not that he knows not, is a fool. Shun him.'" the demand. The fear is that so many poor sires will be brought into the breeding business, and will have the effect of lowering the production standard. The prices for good draft horses are going up every day. One three-year-old Percheron stallion sold not long ago for $30,000, and Carnot the sire of Coreno that brought me the grand championship here today, brought an offer of $20,000 for a one-half interest which was refused because he was worth more money. When draft horses bring these prices, the horse is surely coming back."

BIG HOLSTEIN BULL CENTER ATTRACTION

(Continued from page 1)

Final Awards Made. In several of the swine classes—the Poland Chinas, Chester Whites, Hampshire, Tamworths, Duroc-Jerseys; there are still the Berkshires for this morning. Most of these classes were well filled. The Hampshires brought out the most wonderful lot of belted hogs ever shown in this part of the west. The herd of Hayes & Harter of Grants Pass, recently brought up from California, made a fine showing. They have one herd boar for which they paid $1000, and their whole herd shows gilt-edge quality. J. C. Kunzman of Oregon City, who made a fine showing at the Clackamas county fair, also had a good showing in this class, and J. M. Fruits of Cambridge, Idaho, had some fine stuff. Most breeders who have looked on this as a "small" breed, were astonished at the size of these animals exhibited. Competition Spirited. The Duroc-Jerseys were the real thing in numbers, and the quality was fully commensurate. The fierce competition brought out some widely scattered awards: everybody had to fight for what he got, and was glad enough to secure in any place. There were 45 entries in one class of the Durocs. If anybody ever dreamed that Oregon does not possess some champion Duroc stock, bred by enthusiastic breeders, it was a bad dream.

The Poland China class brought out a large field of excellent animals that would make up a show anywhere on earth. These showing all-purpose hogs are found on almost every farm in the valley, and they have been making money for thousands of people. C. K. Lee of Silverton was one of the big prize winners in this class.

Yakima Man Exhibits. I. J. Oder of Yakima, Wash., was the only exhibitor of Tamworth hogs. He filled all the classes and carried away well earned awards in every classification. The Tamworths are bacon hogs, that do excellently on pasture.

Three entries were made for Rambouillet fine-wool sheep but only one flock actually came for exhibition, the world-famous flock from the Butterfield Livestock company of Waisner, Idaho. The farm presents enough fine animals to fill all the classes, and their sheep made an excellent showing. The Butterfield sheep have been shown all over America, with conspicuous success.

Corriedale Exhibited. Phillips & Wisecarver of McMinville presented a small flock of Corriedale sheep, a breed developed by a cross between the Merino fine wools and a larger, long-wool variety. There are only five flocks of this breed in the United States, one of these being owned by the United States government. The exhibitors recently received a shipment of 20 ewes from New Zealand, but showed in only a few of the classes in which they easily won firsts.

Only one exhibitor, R. A. Templeton of Halsey, Or., appeared with the Cheviots, one of the less common breeds of sheep in this part of America. He filled all the classes for which awards were made, and carried away all the honors for the breed.

JEFFERSON BANK ROBBED BY BANDIT

(Continued from page 1)

however, that there was no more currency.

Gold Overlooked. "Where's the silver, then?" he queried, and upon being told, he took a bag containing $440 in silver dollars from the safe. In his search of the safe he overlooked $4000 in gold.

At the point of a sun he forced Howell to remain in the safe where he had gone to get the silver, and after closing the vault he spun the combination which would have locked the door from the outside until morning.

Quick work with the screwdriver which the firm had placed in the safe for that specific purpose, soon freed him and he rushed into the street to spread the alarm.

Robber Described. Curiously, no one saw the bandit enter the bank or leave it, despite the fact that there was a score of people on the street in the near vicinity. Smith, who opened the bank at 8:30 o'clock, claims that he noticed a tall, slender man pass the bank several times. The description of this man coincides with that of the man who later robbed the bank.

The bandit is described as being tall and slender and between 30 and 35 years old. He wore a dark suit and dark cap and his beard was about a week old. He made no attempt to secure any of the gold reserve, nor did he disturb any of the bank's securities. The loss was entirely covered by insurance.

Cashier Smith recalled that an attempt was made about a year ago to rob the bank by blowing open the safe at night. At that time three young men, returning from a dance, had disturbed the thieves.

Many Deputies Working. A suspect of the first attempt was arrested shortly after. He wore a moustache at that time. Mr. Smith says that the bandit yesterday had a description similar to the man who made the previous attempt with the exception that the man yesterday wore no moustache.

Deputies from the sheriff's offices of both Marion and Linn counties are at work on the case. Deputy Lee Morelock has been detailed from the local office and is working in conjunction with Sheriff C. M. Kendall and Deputy J. V. Rodgers of Linn county. Officers are of the opinion that the robber removed his loot in an automobile.

FAMOUS SCIENTIST VISITOR AT FAIR

(Continued from page 1)

various countries to its conference. The invitation to Dr. de Jacewski was opened by the censor of the Russian soviet government. Contrary to his expectations, the Bolshevik officials heartily urged that the scientist attend the conference to get into touch with world advances in pathological science from which Russia was isolated during the World war period.

"Under the last czar's regime, my work was encouraged to the utmost," stated Professor Jacewski yesterday. The present Soviet government has not molested me and I believe I am the only Russian citizen, loyal to the old aristocracy, who has received a passport out of Russia. My wife and children are held as hostages."

Reimer Experiments Watched. While at the state fair, the scientist was especially interested in the pathological exhibit of Professor F. C. Reimer, in charge of the A. O. C. experiment station at Talent, Or.

Professor Reimer's exhibit shows the development of the department's crusade against fire blight, the disease that has ravaged the pear orchards throughout the United States. The disease has established itself in Oregon and has been severely felt by pear growers in eastern Oregon.

Scientific research has failed to reveal any practical method of combating the disease. Dr. Reimer's findings are to the effect that control and eradication of the disease is only possible through the development of a hardy stock that is immune to the scourge. He found that certain Asiatic pear stock had been found to be resistant to fire blight and after two trips to various Chinese provinces secured the stock from which he hopes to develop his new blight-proof pear. The Chinese pears are diminutive in size, but one small tree has defied as many as 14 weekly inoculations of the blight. One inoculation will kill any of the American varieties. The demonstration shows.

Goos To Medford

"Professor Reimer's patient work is most wonderful and in Russia we will await with impatience the development of his new stock," said Jacewski. "Our pear orchards in the Crimea, Caucasus and Turkestan regions are susceptible to the blight and this would indeed prove to be a grand advance for science."

La Follett Markets Over 4000 Boxes of Peaches

In addition to discussing high taxes and the like, Alex LaFollett, Marion county senator, occasionally talks of his peach crop. Yesterday the senator said that this year he has marketed more than 4000 boxes of peaches and that on an average he has received $1 a box. Next week he will continue gathering Crumwell's October, the Saiways and Wazer peaches.

"Trees are getting back to normal, following the great freeze of December, 1919," Senator LaFollett said, "and by next year I expect a crop as heavy as in 1919 when I marketed 18,000 boxes."

In 1920 there was practically no crop, and having nothing special to do, Mr. LaFollett made a trip back to Crawfordsville, Ind., to attend the La Follett family reunion.

While he met a lot of LaFolletts there, he told them that to see a real thriving branch of the family tree they should come west. As a conservative estimate he figured there were 116 LaFollette on the coast. As for himself, he said he had 19 grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

Youth Rifling Auto is Taken to Police Station

"Where are you from?" "Oh, San Francisco, I guess." "What address?" "Can't remember the street name, it was 740, near the union depot."

The foregoing questions and answers were exchanged last night between Police Sergeant Elmer White and one Lester Beard, 17, when the latter was brought into the Salem station following his seizure while searching the car of W. G. Patterson, 1089 North Court street.

Beard, as he gave his name, was roughly surprised when he attempted to pilfer the latter's car. The youth gave evasive answers to all questions. When searched it was found that all identification articles or marks had been removed from his clothing.

There must be a good deal of distress these times among men whose wives have been thrown out of employment by the business depression. — Burlington (Vt.) News.

TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY

FOR SALE—PAIR YOUNG BELGIAN mares, weight 3300, blocky build, sound, gentle; good workers; sell separately. 528 State St.

It's toasted to seal in the delicious Burley flavor— LUCKY STRIKE CIGARETTE

Used Ford Bargains ARE YOU AWARE that you can buy a used Ford cheaper here than any other place in the Willamette Valley? YOU CAN for we have all models from $50 upwards. No Ford Touring or Roadster over $400. We also have 1—1920 Used Sedan.....$550 and 2 or 3 other closed cars to pick from at greatly reduced prices. When a car goes through our Repair shop it comes out RIGHT. Valley Motor Co. 260 North High Street Phone 1995 We Have a Special Exhibit at the Fair

186,000 Trainmen May Be Ordered to Strike CHICAGO, Sept. 27.—An immediate strike of 18,000 railway trainmen employed on American roads will be ordered if the strike vote, now being counted, favors it, James Murdock, vice-president of the trainmen's organization, announced tonight. "As a matter of fact," he said, "a strike really has been authorized already by the leaders. The minute the vote is counted—the strike order will be issued—provided the vote favors a strike, and there is little chance that it won't. The leaders will not oppose the wishes of the men."

Elgin SIX The Better Car World's Champion Light Six —the good things folks are hearing— thinking—saying, about it. I am here. I was born in 1921. I broke the record from Chicago to San Francisco, Cal.; it only took me seven days; one driver drove me all the way. I jumped 81 feet 3 inches in Los Angeles in June. Jack Fox of the Fox Film Company drove me. Lee Gilbert is my boss and sells all of my brothers and sisters. I always lead. I lead the Sells Floto Circus parade. Every one wants me because I am so beautiful, I am so powerful, I am so fast, I am so easy to handle, I want to meet you at the Fair all this week. LEE L. GILBERT Western Oregon Distributors. Live Dealers Wanted in Unoccupied Territory