PAUL C. BROWN of Los Angeles, Pacific Coast secretary of the Christian Endeavor movement, was the guest of Rev. and Mrs. Putman, 1106 Leslie street for luncheon Monday evening. Mr. Brown was here for a conference with the local endeavorers and general committee of arrangements for the coming all state Christian Endeavor convention to be held in Salem February 16-19. He was a guest for the night at the Miles home, 293 Court street. He is on his way to Eugene to attend a conference of Presbyterian ministers. He will also confer with the local endeavor leaders there and Walter L. Myers, state Christian Endeavor education superintendent.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Bagley of New York City are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son. Mrs. Bagley was formerly Mrs. Helen Goltra of Salem. The baby has been named John Goltra.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Wilson have just moved into their new home at 1156 Court street. It was formerly occupied by C. O. Constable. Professor John Sites occupies the former home of the Wilsons at 1237 Court street.

Mr. and Mrs. George Thompson have as their guests their daughters, Mrs. Ruth Bair of Bay City and Mrs. Marietta Knoes of Camas Wash. Mrs. Bair was accompanied by her two children, Dorothy and George. They will stay for a month's visit. Mrs. Knoes has returned to her home in Washington after a week's visit.

St. Monica's Ajar society will be hostess Thursday afternoon at a silver tea at St. Joseph's rectory from 3 to 5 o'clock. The proceeds will be used to finance the coming bazaar.

Women's Activities

FEDERATION with the American Federation of Arts was decided upon by the Salem Arts league at their meeting last night, which was the first of the year. Affiliation with the federation affords besides minor privileges, three illustrated art lectures each year.

Two musical numbers, compositions of members of the league, were much appreciated by the audience. The song "Oregon," the words written by Mrs. J. M. Clifford and the music by Carrie Adams, was sung by Mrs. Arthur Rahn. Miss Dorothy Pierce accompanied her on the piano.

A delightful luncheon written by Mrs. F. S. Barton was sung by Mrs. Barton, Mrs. Monroe Gilbert played the accompaniment.

Proposed new sections of the league were discussed and where the necessary five members were interested temporary leaders were appointed by the president, Mrs. J. W. Harrison, and meetings arranged for at some future time.

Sections arranged for were Poetry, Dramatic, Interior Decoration, Arts Crafts, to include those interested in pictorial expression of different kinds, Miss Kathryn Gunnell, leader; Civic Art, W. C. Gunnell, leader; Interior Decoration, Mrs. Monroe Gilbert, leader; Dramatic Production, Mrs. J. M. Clifford.

The Modern Writers section, under the direction of Mrs. W. P. Fargo and the story telling section under the direction of Miss Flora Case will continue as usual. The story telling section will meet in the library Wednesday, October 19 for their first meeting.

Warren Gilbert of Denver gave an account of the work of art leagues in Denver and expressed pleasure in the work being done in the Salem organization.

The designing of interiors for Salem homes which were to be built and also for those which are to be rebuilt is one of the things which the Interior Decoration section plans to take up. These designs might be accepted or rejected by the owners but would give practice and training to the workers.

The Civic Pride section will be along the line of landscape gardening, its rules and art and also the development of different flowers and shrubs.

Miss Kathryn Gunnell offered the use of her studio to the Arts Craft section for their meetings and several expressed a desire to join the section.

A board meeting was held previous to the general league meeting and routine business taken up. The revised constitution was read and adopted at the general meeting. It was decided to have the fiscal year begin with the installation of the new officers in the spring.

The musical program followed the business meeting and a social hour was enjoyed later. Refreshments were served by Mrs. F. N. Derby and Mrs. Esther Harding. The next meeting will be held November 8.

Civic improvements and discussion of common problems will be the object of the proposed City Federation of clubs which will be perfected tonight when delegates of 10 clubs in the city meet at 7:30 in the Commercial club rooms.

Organizations which will be a part of the federation and their delegates are: Salem Woman's club, Mrs. William Everett Anderson, Mrs. F. A. Elliot and Mrs. George J. Pearce; city council, Ed Schunke, A. H. Moore and Hal Patton; Rotary club, H. S. Gile, J. O. Perry and William Hamilton; Kiwanis, Dr. Henry E. Morris, Roy Shields and W. L. Needham; American Legion, B. F. Pound, Walter Kirk and Paul Wallace; Cherrians, Dr. E. E. Fisher, L. W. Gleason and E. Tillinghast; Realtors, L. G. Hayford, A. C. Bohrnstedt and Knight Peary; Commercial club, T. E. McCroskey, L. J. Chapin and J. William Chambers.

The Labor council and the Business Men's club have not chosen their delegates yet.

A farwell reception in honor of 60 dolls was held at the Christian church in Albany last night. The dolls are destined for Nankin, China, where they will find homes at the Christian girls' school.

The human miniatures were prepared by members of the Christian church. They include society, baby dolls and all kinds. With them other presents will be sent to China.

The Women's Foreign Missionary society of the First Methodist church meets this afternoon with Mrs. E. E. Fisher. The members are urged to bring their October number of the Missionary friend. Mrs. J. B. Littler will be leader for the afternoon.

The Berean Sunday school elected officers at their recent meeting. This class is one of young women in the First Baptist church which has been working together for some time. Olive Lester was chosen president for the coming year. Other officers chosen are vice-president, Myrtle Jensen; secretary, Alice Roth; reporter, Ruth Ross, and chairman of the social committee, Gladys Rafferty.

The Women's Missionary society of the Leslie Methodist church will meet this afternoon with Mrs. Philip Claus, 1525 South Liberty street.

The Women's Catholic Order of Foresters sewing club will meet this afternoon with Mrs. Mary Pfeiffer, 1226 North Winter street. The members are getting ready for the parish bazaar.

The Bend Woman's Civic league held a successful made-in-Oregon dinner at which 280 guests were served recently. Following the serving of the menu, which was made up entirely of contributions from Oregon manufacturers, a program was carried out. A. G. Clark, ex-head of the Association of Oregon Industries, acted as toastmaster and toasts were responded to by D. C. Freeman, present manager of the Associated Industries, and by other members of the party of ten Portland manufacturers present.

Smoking compartments for women will be installed in some of the trains. The next thing will be spittoons wherein they may deposit their "snipes."—Exchange.
