One has been received by Governor Olcott.

Brandon took the position in the debate that the Irish trouble is a religious controversy in which the Catholics seek political ascendancy. Cantrell took the negative. There was considerable doubt over the country as to Brandon's sincerity, and apparently the Ku Klux Klan had no faith in him, for, according to his letter, they gave him a "mid-trial" in Portland on September 23 last and forced him to flee from the Pacific coast to his home in Missouri.

Brandon claims he formerly was a member of what he terms the "blood-oath bound clan," was honored with an office of klansman.

Funeral of John Hart Will Be Held at Catholic Church Early Today—In the passing of John Hart, at 8:30 Monday morning, October 8, at his home, 160 North Eighteenth street, Salem and the Salem section lost a loyal friend and advocate. He liked Salem and the country surrounding, and the people here. The life of John Hart covered a long span of the world's history; over 93, nearly 94 years. He was born in Ireland December 15, 1827. He kept his hearing almost perfectly up to the last, and his eyesight was such that he could read without glasses. His mind was perfectly clear to within a half hour of his passing. In 1852, as a young man, he came to New York, and shortly afterwards settled in Winona, Minn., where he was married in 1858 to Mary A. Murphy, who died in Salem only six years ago last month. They first came to the Liberty fruit district south of Salem in 1888. They went to Aberdeen, S. D., from the Liberty district, and they were with a son in Idaho for a time. After the death of the son in Idaho, being very partial to Salem, they came back to this city eight years ago. Miss Mary Hart, daughter, survives, at the home place here.

Col. W. H. Hart of the United States army is a son of the deceased. He went from Aberdeen, S. D., to West Point and was graduated from West Point in 1888. He was in Cuba during the war with Spain, and afterwards was stationed in the Philippines, at San Francisco, and other points. He served in France in the World War, and he was decorated there. He is now in the quartermaster's department with headquarters at Brooklyn.

EAT LESS MEAT IF BACK HURTS

Take a Glass of Salts to Flush Kidneys if Bladder Bothers You

Eating meat regularly eventually produces kidney trouble in some form or other, says a well-known authority, because the uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish; clog up and cause all sorts of distress, particularly backache and misery in the kidney region; rheumatic twinges, severe headaches, acid stomach, sleeplessness, bladder and urinary irritation.

The moment your back hurts or kidneys aren't acting right, or if bladder bothers you, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity; also to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts cannot injure anyone; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then to keep the kidneys and urinary organs clean, thus avoiding serious kidney disease.—Adv.
