

UNEMPLOYMENT CONFERENCE AGREES ON WORKING POLICY

WASHINGTON, Oct. 11.—A summary of the more important economic problems facing the country "that request constructive and immediate settlement" if recovery in business and permanent employment are to be accomplished expeditiously was agreed upon unanimously today by the national conference on unemployment when it reconvened after a recess of more than a week.

A general resolution adopted declared for:

"Readjustment of railway rates to a fairer basis of the relative value of commodities, with special consideration of the rates upon primary commodities, at the same time safeguarding the financial stability of the railways."

Would Hurry Tax Bill

"Speedy completion of the tax bill with its contemplated reductions, so business now held back pending definite determination may proceed."

"Definite settlement of tariff legislation so business may determine its future conduct and policies.

"Settlement of the financial relationships between the government and the railways, having in mind the immediate necessity for increased maintenance and betterments, making effective increased railway employment and stimulation of general employment so the railways may be prepared for enlarged business as it comes."

Heavy Armament Opposed

"Limitation of world armament and consequent increase of tranquility and further decrease of the tax burden of the United States and other countries."

"Steps looking to the minimizing of functions in exchange, because recovery from the great slump in exports, due to the economic situation cannot make substantial progress as long as extravagance daily fluctuations continue in foreign exchange."

"Definite programs of action that will lead to elimination of waste and more regular employment in seasonal and intermittent industries, so the drain upon capital may be lessened and the annual income of workers may be increased."

Agriculture at Low Ebb

"In the field of all the different industries and occupations," the resolution said, "the rapidity of recovery will depend greatly upon the speed of proportionate adjustment of the inequalities in deflation."

"It will be observed," the resolution continued in commenting upon appended tables of relative prices and wage levels, that agriculture has reached an unduly low plane, while transportation, coal and some branches of the construction industries are of the highest. It will also be observed there is an entire disproportion between the price of the primary commodities and the ultimate retail price. These disproportionate increases are due to increased costs of transportation, enlarged profits, interest, taxes, labor and other charges."

Farmer Must be Paid

"If the buying power of the different elements of the community is to be restored, these levels must reach nearer a relative plane. The farmer cannot resume his full consuming power and give increased employment to other industries until his prices increase or until more of the other products and services come into fair balance with his commodities and the reach of his income."

On the question of settling the financial relationships between the government and the railroads, Matthew Woll, vice-president of the American Federation of Labor stated that while labor agreed with the resolution in principle, it would defer until a later conference session the discussion of methods to be used in effecting such a settlement.

Foreign Debts Considered

After agreeing upon its general recommendations, the conference adopted the unanimous reports of the foreign trade and employment agencies committees.

The foreign trade committee suggested that the administration be given authority immediately by congress to deal with the funding of foreign debts. He added that the limitation of armament conference should result in a reduction of the military budgets of the nations which should ease the exchange situation and suggested further that "the United States should be effective in the deliberations and decisions of the reparations commission and other agencies so that its influence may be exerted toward a reasonable control of the present unregulated payment of reparations by Germany."

Employment Agencies Favored

The report of the committee on employment agencies urged that congress appropriate $400,000 to enable the United States employment service to operate in the interstate field in co-operation with municipalities, and recommended that the state be the operating unit for a permanent system of employment offices. Bird S. Coler, commissioner of public welfare of New York city, declared the city was better prepared to handle this work.

Not because they did not earn enough when they were young, but because they failed to save a part of their earnings.

This is probably the largest list of high grade groceries ever offered at such low prices to the people of Marion and Polk counties. The prices are not equalled in any city in Oregon. A very large per cent of the earnings of the average working man is spent for supplies for the table. Are you, as the housewife, helping to reduce that high percentage by buying intelligently? Or are you following the line of least resistance?
