ROSEBURG, Ore., Oct. 13.-Contents of the box which was sent by express from Myrtle Creek to Seattle, and which Dr. R. M. Brumfield sent for when he was working as a farm hand near Calgary, Alberta, were shown today for the first time at the dentist's trial here for the alleged murder of Dennis Russell, whose headless body was found in the wreckage of the Brumfield car near here on July 13. A pink satin skirt, lingerie, some Christmas tree decorations and candles, comprised the contents of the box, the request for which, sent to a Scattle express office, was the clue that led to the arrest arrest of Dr. Brumfield.

The defendant laughed when he saw the skirt. His wife For the annual Elks memorial laughed when the other things day exercises, to be held in the came to light. The packed courtroom intently watched the opening of the box, which was it has secured Judge George M. produced in connection with Brown, of the supreme court as the testimany of Mrs. Francis E. Burchard, who said she sold the skirt to a woman about noon July 13. She said she never saw the woman before or afterwards. While the purchase was being made Dr. Brumfield entered the store, she said, bowed to the woman and went to the rear of the store, where he obtained the pasteboard box in which the things were found.

Human Blood Introduced The state introduced today a number of witnesses who told of discovering a pool of blood on the highway near here the day after the alleged murder, and others who said they saw Dr. Brumfield's car in the vicinity at the time Russell is alleged to have been killed. A bottle containing blood which Grant S. Clayton said he gathered up when he discovered the pool, was introduced as evidence, and Dr. Frank R. Menne of the University of Oregon medical school, testified chemical tests he had made showed the samples were human blood.

Four Saw Doctor's Car Four persons testified today to having seen Brumfield's car on the night of the alleged murder. They were Edward Kohlhagen, Virgil McMullen, Andy Friend and Mrs. W. R. Bowman, William R. Moore of Ruckles, identified the piece of scalp found under the wrecked car as that of Russell, whom he said he had known for 30 years.
