Pioneer is Valuable

George P. Litchfield, who can remember more of what happened in Salem 50 years ago than almost any other person in the county, comes in most convenient to by abstractors. In making out deeds in the early days a result was that many of the records were careless about their middle initials and often in incorrect spelling of names. To correct this, it is often necessary to secure an affidavit from some one who knew the old timers. Yesterday a deed was subscribed to an affidavit, stating that E. Cartwright and Edwin Cartwright were the same identical person who signed his name to a deed under that of E. Cartwright. Such affidavits are necessary from some one who knows to correct chain of title. The Cartwright deed was made in 1876 and Mr. Litchfield knew all persons concerned.

Branch Office Looted Located in Center of Financial District

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 14.—Four armed and masked bandits this evening held up three clerks in the Rialto branch postoffice in the downtown district and escaped in an automobile with one pouch of mail estimated to contain 200 registered parcels. The value of the loot is not known. The robbers failed to obtain the day's receipts of the postoffice which is situated in New Montgomery street, near Mission street.

Office in Banking Center The office in the banking and financial districts than any other branch and has the largest volume of registered business of all in the city. As a result the amount involved in the robbery is expected to be high.

The robbery took place after the day's business had been completed through work of sorting and sacking late mail still was going on. The robbers, according to H. J. Griffith, who saw the holdup from his automobile, parked across the street from the branch, gained entry when one of the late workers came out of the office to take up mail from a box in front.

Automobile Awaited The trio of robbers whom some reports said were supplemented by a fourth man who remained outside in their automobile, followed this clerk into the rear office, pointed pistols at the two others there and made their way quickly to the place where the registered mail was piled. Postoffice Inspector W. J. Madala said it was impossible to make an estimate as to the value of the mail in the stolen pouch. He stated that a check to determine the loss was under way.

ROTH'S "QUALITY GROCERIES" "A Safe Place to Trade" FISHER'S BLEND FLOUR When a busy housewife is taking the time and using expensive fuel to bake bread she wants to know that she has the very best flour to work with as it takes just as much time and fuel to make a poor loaf of bread out of poor flour as it does to make the best possible bread out of the best possible flour. All successful bakeries use blended flour, blending a medium hard such as is grown in eastern Oregon and Washington with the real hard wheat grown in Montana and Dakota. This makes the ideal bread flour and this is the combination of wheats that makes FISHER'S BLEND. It costs a few more cents per sack but you are amply repaid by more loaves to the sack and what is better still, a better quality of bread. We are still selling the flour ground from old wheat and we would advise laying in several months supply. Per sack $2.30 Four Sacks $8.80
