Complaint Against Former Officer Asserts That Amount is Missing

GRAND LARCENY CHARGE

John Stringer's Account of Federal Funds Not Accounted for, Said

SEATTLE, Oct. 13.—John Stringer, for two terms sheriff of King county here and a candidate for the Republican nomination for governor at the primary last year, was arrested here tonight on a complaint charging grand larceny for the alleged misappropriation of certain funds said to have been received by the sheriff's office for the board of federal prisoners at the county jail.

He refused to discuss the case. Mr. Stringer last January completed his second two-year term as sheriff. The complaint alleges that he withheld $1,962.84 of the sums provided for federal prisoners in the custody of the county. The sheriff's office is said to have received $21,722.64 for this purpose in 1919 and 1920. Books kept during the preceding administration of the sheriff's office showed, according to prosecuting Attorney Malcolm Douglas, the county had received from the government less money than federal grand bank records indicated had been paid.

BUREAU POLICY HIT BY FORBES

Disabled Service Men Are Subjected to Criminal Conditions, Asserted

SCHOOLS ARE SLAMMED

Inadequate Training Methods Are Blamed, Machine Politics Must Go

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.—The placement of disabled service men "under conditions that are criminal and relating to slavery" was charged by Director Forbes of the veterans' bureau, in an address today at the first meeting of the bureau's district managers and Colonel Forbes criticized the system by which service men had been placed in training and in his address later through a statement announcing his disapproval of contracts held by 33 schools and individuals for training disabled veterans. In this connection he told the district managers that in a number of cases they had been derelict in their duty.

Will Wreck "Machines" "The word has also gone around that certain districts have their own little political machines here in Washington to run affairs of that district," he said. "I want to warn those men who may have such an idea that I'm going to wreck all political machines, and before I am through with this position this bureau is going to be operated on sound, modern business principles and every phase of it is going to be clean and above board."

TICKETS MUST BEAR PHOTOS

Gloom and Desolation Mapped on Gotham Faces as Rule is Enforced

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—The new face-on-the-ticket rule of the New York Central railroad has put a stop to the old practice of transferring or selling commutation tickets to suburbanites. But the commuters didn't like the idea and they groaned as the cameras clicked. Their protests were unavailing, however, for the railroad decreed that no more commutation tickets would be issued after October 1, unless a photograph of the holder was attached to the ticket. The rush to have pictures taken was so great during the last week of grace that almost every station along the railroad's lines was converted into an emergency photograph gallery. All available photographers were rounded up and posted at stations, thus giving the commuter an opportunity of being "mugged" while waiting for his train to carry him to work in the city.

After the first rush, these photographers were no longer said, "look pleasant, please." The commuters said it was impossible. An observing train conductor remarked that many of the photographs showed scowling countenances. The railroad explained that one of the first effects of the new regulations was a tremendous falling off in the sale of commutation tickets at a small station on the West Shore division. Although this station had only a corporal's guard of commuters, it used to sell 40 commutation tickets every month. This was the explanation, according to the railroad: The commutation rate from this station was only 32 cents, whereas the regular round-trip fare was $2.70. Some one was buying commutation tickets and then farming them out by the day at scalper's rates—$1.50. On a transaction of this kind the passenger saved $1.20, the scalper made $1.18 and the railroad lost $2.32.

IF KIDNEYS ACT BAD TAKE SALTS

Says Backache is Sign You Have Been Eating Too Much Meat. When you wake up with backache and dull misery in the kidney region it generally means you have been eating too much meat, says a well known authority. Meat forms uric acid which overworks the kidneys in their effort to filter it from the blood and they become sort of paralyzed and loggy. When your kidneys get sluggish and clog you must relieve them, like you relieve your bowels; removing all the body's urinous waste, else you have backache, sick headache, dizzy spells; your stomach sours, tongue is coated, and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment, channels often get sore, water scalds and you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night. Either consult a good, reliable physician at once or get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes, and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder weakness. Jad Salts is a life saver for regular meat eaters. It is inexpensive, cannot injure and makes a delightful, effervescent lithia-water drink.—Adv.

LEGION READY FOR CONCLAVE

Relief of Unemployed, Soldier Aid and Other Queries on List

ASK BERGDOLL'S RETURN

On October 31 Veterans of World War Will Meet At Indianapolis

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Oct. 18.—National headquarters of the American legion announced today that it is expected that the legion will, in its third annual convention at Kansas City beginning October 31, reaffirm its stand for adjusted compensation for veterans. Headquarters predicts that the convention will lay plans for a "fight to the finish" on that issue before Congress and that it will take steps to relieve distress among 900,000 ex-service men who are reported to be unemployed. More than 1000 voting delegates will be present, representing 11,000 posts of the legion. Preparations have been made to care for 100,000 out-of-town visitors in Kansas City during the convention.

Sentiment Expressed A survey of legion sentiment throughout the country, as expressed in instructions to delegates and in actions by state and county conventions of the legion, reveals, says the announcement, the following additional issues on which it is likely the national legion assembly will declare itself. It is held certain at headquarters that immediate action will be taken for temporary if not permanent relief of the jobless veteran. A national committee of the organization has been making a study of relief measures following a country-wide survey. It is affirmed by some members of the legion that passage of the Sweet bill, creating the Veterans' bureau, has not fully overcome all the difficulties which have prevented disabled men from obtaining all their rights, and this question will be considered. In each of the 14 regional districts of the Veterans' bureau a representative of the legion has been assisting the bureau in adjusting points between posts and individuals. These representatives will be able to present to the convention reports showing just what the new bureau is or is not doing.

Aid Measure Up. Further plans for obtaining passage of the federal-adjusted compensation bill are to be considered. Legion representatives say that almost every state convention since the recommitment of the measure has passed resolutions of finest support for its policy of pushing the bill. The organization's national legislative committee will present a report on the subject with recommendations for further procedure. The convention, it is expected, will consider the question of limitation of armaments in view of the importance of the international conference in Washington opening on Armistice day. At its first and second national conventions, the legion dedicated its course as a medium between jingoism and blind pacifism, and its military policy that of preparedness.

Definition Demanded Questions have arisen among the membership concerning the definition of the legion's policy of absolute neutrality in politics, the states and posts being at variance in their interpretations of the rulings. The Wyoming department has proposed an amendment to the constitution to allow "protection of the candidacy of any person seeking public office when his election would, in the judgment of the legion, promote the purposes for which the legion was organized as defined in the preamble to its constitution." The legion is pledged to "law and order" and "neutrality in disputes between capital and labor," it is pointed out. Means of disciplining single posts or individuals, which violate these rules are to be brought up in the convention. To Discuss Oriental The legion's recommendations at its first two conventions that "the so-called Gentlemen's Agreement with Japan be abrogated" and that "foreign-born Japanese be forever barred from American citizenship" is expected to come up again. The legion in California, Texas, Arizona, Washington, Colorado and Nebraska has supported the enactment of laws prohibiting land-holding by the Japanese. Washington legionaires went on record as favoring the return of all Japanese in this country to their native land. Whether the legion will stand for civil service preference for world war veterans not only in appointments but in promotions is expected to be up for decision. Reds and Bergdoll Almost every legion state convention has passed resolutions demanding the return of the slacker Bergdoll, and this point, with a review of the publication of slacker and draft-deserter lists, will come up for discussion. It is believed likely that the movement for the release of Eugene V. Debs also will be considered. Legion committees have gathered a mass of information on these subjects for the convention's guidance. The national committee on naval affairs will present a report dealing with the size of the navy, the relative importance of the surface fleet, air forces and underwater craft, disintegration of the naval reserve, etc. The military affairs committee will offer a report, chiefly on the possibilities of legion encouragement of the national guard and organized reserve. All told, national headquarters announces a dozen national committees will present important reports to the convention and several of them will make far-reaching recommendations. On the last day of the convention a national commander, five national vice-commanders and a national chaplain will be elected. There are no announced candidates. New Orleans, Baltimore, San Francisco and Houston, Tex., are in the race for the meeting place of the 1922 convention.

Cooperative Society to Undergo Investigation

CHICAGO, Oct. 18.—A federal investigation of the affairs of the Cooperative Society of America, with a view to action by the federal grand jury will be started at once, it was announced today by C. F. Cline, United States district attorney. Mr. Cline intimated his action would be based on the fact that Harrison Parker, president of the society, had admitted he had avoided direct answers in his testimony Saturday before Federal Judge Evans in an attempt to shield the society from unfavorable publicity during bankruptcy proceedings. Mr. Parker today presented a statement saying assets of the society were $20,989,738 greater than its liabilities.

Aches and Pains Of Rheumatism Sometimes They Are Unbearable

There are weather conditions that make rheumatism worse. They are not the same in the case of all persons. Some rheumatism suffer more in dry, warm weather than in moist, cold weather, but all suffer more or less all the time. The cause of rheumatism is in excess of uric acid in the blood affecting the muscles and joints causing aches and pains. Here the blood must have attention permanent results in the treatment of this disease. Hood's Sarsaparilla has given entire satisfaction in thousands of cases. Do not fail to try it.
