Three Touchdowns and Place Kick do Work for Oregonians Yesterday

CORVALLIS, Or., Oct. 22.—Three touchdowns and a place kick gave Oregon Agricultural college a 24 to 0 victory over the University of Washington here today in the first conference game the Fighting Aggies have had this year.

The battle was waged in Washington territory, and while the visitors made a valiant effort, Captain Eckman, Ziel, Quass and Ingram doing notable work, they could not make headway against the smashing onslaughts of the Aggies.

Using the straight attack the Aggies ripped Washington's line, scoring the first touchdown by Kasberger without losing the ball. The Aggies scored their second touchdown through a combination of line bucks and forward passes, McFadden scoring on a final four-yard pass from Kasberger.

Near the end of the second quarter, Kasberger intercepted a forward pass, following which the Aggies began their off-tackle bucks and passes.

The third touchdown was made by Kasberger in the last period, the place kick was made in the third by Crowell.

Many of the home team line-up were replaced in the last period.

Nebraska never was within scoring distance and did not make a first down until the third quarter. The Cornhuskers made but three first downs during the game.

Notre Dame threatened in the first period but fumbles lost the opportunity. Early in the second quarter Rockne's men forced the ball to the one-yard line, but Nebraska's line held and forced a pass which was incomplete. Dewitz was the principal Nebraska gainer.

The victory, the first earned against the so-called "big three" of the east by a middle western team gave the Chicago contingent great joy. The western triumph had not been looked for by the Princeton followers.

Ohio State, 14; Michigan, 0 ANN ARBOR, Mich., Oct. 22.—Ohio State took another stride toward the western conference title today, outplaying Michigan and winning 14 to 0.

ALFRED OTHERWISE ENGAGED.

Alfred was a boxer and his father was very anxious to hear the result of his great fight with the redoubtable heavyweight champion, Bill Bruiser.

He made his boy promise that he would wire the result as soon as the contest was over. "You won't disappoint me, will you, Alfred?" he said.

"No, I promise," said Alfred, and sallied forth to the fray. The father waited impatiently and at last the wire arrived. Eagerly he seized the envelope and tore it open.

It was signed "Bill Bruiser," and ran: "Alfred would wire if he could, but he can't."

OREGON LOSES TO CALIFORNIA

Heavy Bear Backs Gain at Will Through Oregon Line at Berkeley

FINAL SCORE 39 TO 0

Southern Team Entirely Replaced by Substitutes in Last Period

BERKELEY, Cal., Oct. 22.—University of California's team overwhelmed the University of Oregon in the first Pacific Coast conference game here today on a rain-soaked field and won 39 to 0.

The veteran blue and gold linesmen made big holes in the Oregon lines through which heavy bear backs gained at will. On the defensive California was a stone wall and the Oregon men were able to make down only five yards in the last period when the entire California first team was replaced by substitutes.

Only in kicking did Oregon hold its own, "Spike" Leslie booting for as big gains as Nisbet made for California.

Nichols, California star half-back, made most of his team's yardage, practically all in off playing almost impossible and passes after two or three unsuccessful attempts made early in the game.

Oregon made two successful passes, but abandoned further attempts when California nearly scored again by intercepting one.

The rain failed to keep a crowd away, for several thousand attended and stood under umbrellas from the first to the last whistle.

The teacher was trying to be up-to-date and explain monarchies. The pupils seemed to understand what she told them. "Now," asked the teacher, "if the king dies, who rules?"

"The queen," suggested one little girl.

"Yes, under certain circumstances which I shall explain later, that is true," said teacher. "Now, if the queen dies, who takes her place?"

Silence reigned for a moment, then a boy responded, "The Jack," he said.—Ladies' Home Journal.

BITS FOR BREAKFAST

Some were at home. All did not go to Corvallis; Salem had a busy day.

Corvallis means heart of the valley; she was, yesterday. The live advertisers are saying a good many mouthfuls this morning.

If the worst should come, Europe might scrape together a few shiploads of grain to feed New York.

But the strike is growing both less likely and less formidable as the day approaches. The thought of it is bad enough.

While Marshal Foch is in this country, it is planned to have him go over the route from New York to Boston traveled by La Fayette in 1824.

Heligoland is to be made into a rival of Monte Carlo, by American and German capitalists, as soon as the island has become completely rid of its fortifications. That will be bad, but it will not likely disturb the peace of the world.

The New York church which is to employ symphonies of electric lights in its service might have them connected with the organ keyboard. Organ music with an obligation of changing colored lights might be made highly effective.

One myth is dissipated after another. Mrs. Hylan, the mayor's wife, did not reply to the Belgian queen's praise of New York. "Queen, you said a mouthful." And probably the late Mrs. Leiter did not explain her departure from Rome on the ground that she was "tired of seeing so many pictures and statues of the wolf giving nourishment to Romeo and Juliet."

PRE-WAR PRICES . . . Salem Woolen Mill Store News In furtherance of our letter of last week.

The great purport and intent of the management of the store is now and has been the entire year is to try to get our goods to the consumer at as near pre-war prices as it is possible. Many items we have been able to reach that by selling at a very small margin. It would be a very simple matter to sell most merchandise at pre-war prices, provided we wanted to put in cheap goods and decrease the standard and quality of our lines, but patrons may be fully assured that the quality of our goods will be kept up to the standard of the past 21 years, and every market will be ransacked to enable us to find good merchandise.

In his trip east this summer Mr. Bishop made a number of new alliances that will enable the store to buy good merchandise at as low rates and favorable terms as any one, and these conditions will be passed on to each customer in making his purchases. SALEM WOOLEN MILLS STORE—Adv.

"Say looky yur!" truculently demanded a citizen of the Fiddle Creek neighborhood. "Did you tell Tug Hornbuckle that I was an infernal liar?"

"Nope!" was the reply, "I loved he knowed it already."—Country Gentleman.

A H—OF A PAPER The Thomas Cat is a farm member. Its tongue a sword of fire, its tail a chain of electric currents, hotter than the famous Hot Springs. Not built for babies or Conventia Club women. A periodical for penitence people. It rends the roasting riot racket and spreads sulphuric "service." Every issue is a necromantic narrator of the nigrescent, noxious, nozzling nuisance of a nation swollen with ignorance and pride.

It is published by a heathen who is criticised and lambasted by the empty, cackling elements full of liver pads and bile who go through life as though 'twere a hospital.

The Thomas Cat is very gabby and gossipy and says many audacious things. It is sold on all the news stands and bobs around on public favor like a fish cork on a frog pond. If you want a purple moment cop off a copy.

KING GEORGE ENJOYING A LAUGH.

The ruler of Great Britain and his Premier, David Lloyd George, snapped at Inverness, with Mackintosh of Mackintosh, whose guests they were. It was evidently a funny story, judging from their expressions.
