

WHEAT TAKES UPWARD JUMP

Calling off of Railroad Strike Helps Boost the Price of Grain

STOCK MARKET THRILLS

Shorts Contribute Largely to Day's Movement in New York City

CHICAGO, Oct. 28.—Wheat took an upward swing in price today helped by the calling off of the railroad strike. Closing quotations, although unsettled, were 1 1/2 to 2 1/2 cents net higher, with December 1.08 to 1.05 5/8 and May 1.13 1/8 to 1.13 1/2. Corn gained 1 1/8 to 1.38 and 1 1/2 and oats 7/8 to 1-18. In provisions the outcome varied from 25 cents decline to 5 cents advance.

Only moderate strength showed itself in wheat at the opening, and the buying was far from being of an aggressive character. Later, however, bulls displayed more confidence, and there were material gains, with practically all of the advance being held at the finish. Aside from the rail strike settlement the chief stimulating factor was an estimate that the yield this season in 29 countries was 154,000,000 less than last year's total. On the other hand, export business appeared to be at a halt, and bears declared that higher values would be difficult to attain pending the removal of export congestion. Complaints of dry weather continued, especially from the southwest, where lack of moisture was said to have jeopardized the new winter crop.

Corn, Oats Up
Corn and oats rose with wheat. Besides, unfavorable husking returns from Illinois had considerable effect in the corn.

Provisions were lower most of the time in line with hogs. January lard, however, was in demand from outside packers. Future delivery trading in cotton seed oil was begun here today. Sales totaled 300,000 pounds at 8 65 and 8 75 for May.

NEW ORK, Oct. 28.—The stock market today responded to the abandonment of the proposed railroad strike by an active session in which sales approximately 1,000,000 shares and leading rails, industrials and many specialties scored extreme gains of 1 to 2 points. Shorts contributed largely to today's movement, but commission houses reported a substantial investment inquiry from local and out of town sources.

Oils Move Forward
Steels, equipments, motors, copers and a wide variety of miscellaneous issues contributed their proportion to the day's large and diversified operations under professional guidance.

Domestic oils, the real feature of the past few days, continued to move forward, California issues again being most prominent. Relaxed money conditions accelerated the upward movement, call money declining from 6 per cent to 5 per cent at midday. In private negotiations demand loans were made at as low as 4 1/2 per cent, 30 and 60-day accommodations also showing slight concessions.

Exchanges Lower
All the important foreign exchanges were lower, sterling reacting 3 1/2 cents from the week's highest quotation, with declines of 3 to 10 points for the more active continental remittances, excepting the French rate, which was comparatively steady.

Railroad bonds were strengthened in strike settlement and domestic industrial were moderately better. Victory notes closed at advances. Leaders of the foreign division also strengthened. Total sales, par value, $14,875,000.

It's a Grand Old Remedy
You can't keep strong and well without sleep. Whether your rest is broken by a painful hacking cough or just an annoying tickling in the throat, the system becomes weakened and run down.

Mrs. K. M. Drake, Childs, Md., writes: "After an attack of the 'flu' I was left with a severe cough. Nothing relieved me till I used Foley's Honey and Tar, which I can highly recommend. It covers irritated membranes with a healing and soothing coating, loosens phlegm and clears air passages. Sold everywhere.—Adv.

Philadelphians Make Quick Time by Auto

C. K. Gill and wife of Philadelphia were visiting Salem yesterday, accompanied by H. L. Gill of the Woodburn Independent, who is an uncle of the former.

Mr. and Mrs. Gill left Philadelphia on October 2, and they arrived in Portland on October 22. They came in a Buick car, and their actual running time was 150 hours. That was certainly good going, when it is considered that the running time of the trains between Philadelphia and Portland is 10 1/2 hours.

They followed the Lincoln highway, through Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Iowa, Nebraska, Wyoming, Utah, Idaho and Oregon. They found some bad stretches of road, too.

This is the first visit of C. K. Gill to Oregon. He is employed by the Pennsylvania railroad, and he is on a vacation of three months. But he has fallen in love with Oregon, and he will not likely go back to Pennsylvania to live.

Mrs. Gill has been in Oregon before. Her mother is a resident of Portland. He was already in love with this state, and she coaxed her husband out here on this trip. He is a tender, and would make a splendid Oregon citizen and booster. The car that made the trip looks as new and bright as the day it came out of the factory; looks good for many such journeys.
