

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

Mandate Mailed—A mandate in the case of Florence Rostad against the Portland Railway, Light & Power company...

Country Store—Bligh theater tonight.—Adv.

Scenery Policy Applauded—Mrs. A. H. Russell of Ashland, 83 years old, is doubtless as much interested as any other person in the state in preserving the scenic beauty of Oregon highways.

Gun Play Alleged—Mrs. Violet Groshong, 17, who lives nine miles north of Salem, was placed under arrest yesterday upon complaint of her father, James Emerson, who asserts that Mrs. Groshong had pointed a gun at a younger sister. Mrs. Groshong, who was married only recently, emphatically denies the allegation, declaring that the trouble arises from her family's disapproval of her marriage.

Card of Thanks—I wish to extend to my neighbors, the A. F. & A. M., the G. A. R., the W. R. C., L. O. O. F., and the ones rendering the music my sincere appreciation for the sympathy, floral offerings and services rendered in my recent bereavement.—Adv. Mrs. P. M. Jones.

King S. Bartlett—Recent foreman for the Marion Garage will meet his old friends and customers in his own shop at the rear of 175 N. Commercial street. Save by paying less per hour and getting more done.

Gopher Business Good—During the month of October the office of the Marion county clerk paid out the sum of $372.20 in bounties for gopher, grey digger and mole traps. The gopher and mole in the way of a bounty are worth 10 cents each while the legislators in passing the law figured that a grey digger was worth only 5 cents.

Forged Caught—"Jim, the Penman," at the Liberty today.—Adv.

Roof Shingling Popular—As far as churches are concerned, it is the proper thing to shingle all or part of the roof. Within the past month or so roofs of the Christian, Unitarian and Baptist churches have been shingled all or in part.

Visitor Here—John G. Tait, a staff member of the head camp of the Modern Woodmen of America is in the city and will address the lodge members of Salem in their hall on Court street tonight.

Wood—Five loads 16 inch mill wood $13.75. Guaranteed two-thirds cord per load. Prompt delivery. Spaulding Logging Co.—Adv.

BUCKNER—Levy L. Buckner, died at his home, 1232 North Commercial street at 1:20 a. m. yesterday at the age of 64 years. He is survived by his wife, Fannie Buckner, and three sons, Fred and Harley Buckner of Salem and Howard Buckner of Independence and two daughters, Daisy Buckner of Scio and Nellie Buckner of Portland. Funeral services will be held at the Webb & Clough chapel Friday, November 4, at 10:30 a. m. Burial at Scio.

Hunting Season Closed—Just in time for you to enroll in the new classes in shorthand and commercial law at the Capital Business college next Monday, November 7.—Adv.

Chance to Keep Their Goat—Members of the Salem high school football team are doing some hard thinking regarding the game to be played Saturday at Corvallis with the Corvallis high school team. If the home team can manage to defeat Corvallis, they will be in better mental trim to tackle the Lebanon team on Armistice day, playing at Salem. Lebanon bear Albany and Eugene. Only one school this fall has passed through the Lebanon line and Lebanon stands first in the valley.

Lost in Lobby—Marion hotel on south on Pacific highway, two suit boxes marked W. F. Johnson, room 394 Benson Hotel. Finder return to Marion hotel and receive reward.—Adv.

Enrollment Grows—The total high school enrollment yesterday was 339 girls and 321 boys, a total of 720. This passes all records for enrollment and the indications already are that a year from now, the enrollment will be at least 100 larger than the record of yesterday.

M. W. A. Notice—J. G. Tate lectures tonight.—Adv.

Tire Stolen—A Zebra of Salem route 9, told police yesterday that a spare tire, covered, and of Portage make, had been taken from his machine while it was parked near the Oregon Pulp mill Tuesday night.

Roseburg Auto Stolen—Chief of Police Verden Moffitt and Sheriff Oscar Bower received word yesterday from Sheriff Sam Stemple of Roseburg that a Buick car, 1917 model, motor No. 316199, Oregon license No. 42-637, had been stolen from the Douglas county city Tuesday night and was headed Salemward.

Meals 25c, Quick Lunch—Chinese Dishes. Saun Louie, 420 Ferry.—Adv.

Cars Collide—Al Jail of 2108 Broadway, reported to the police that while driving east on Ferry street he had been involved in a collision with a machine driven by J. W. Lewis of Salem route No. 1, who was proceeding south on Commercial street. The fenders on the Jail car were badly bent and the machine belonging to Lewis was damaged to some extent, it was stated. Mr. Lewis also reported the mishap.

For Rent—Front office room. Apply Gray Belle.—Adv.

Two Are Guests—Dean Frances M. Richards and Professor Harding of Willamette university were the guests of the Beta Chi sorority Tuesday evening.

Discharge Papers Filed—Discharge papers were filed yesterday in the Marion county clerk's office by John B. Fresken, private, who saw service in the Meuse-Argonne campaign and was with the machine gun company of the John Wirtz who was in the medical corps, also filed for record his discharge paper.

Of Interest to Boys—Thursday evening at the Y. M. C. A. A. E. McClain, former wrestling champion at Oregon Agricultural college, will have charge of a class of boys in wrestling. During this first evening of instruction, he will take up the simpler forms of wrestling and at future meetings develop the boys in this sport.

Applications Coming Steadily—According to the report of the World War Veterans' state aid commission, 10,864 former service men who went into the service from Oregon, have applied for the benefits of the bonus law. Of this number, 5,959 prefer the cash offer of $15 a month while in the service, while 4,905 intend to secure a loan on real estate.

M. W. A. Notice—J. G. Tate lectures tonight.—Adv.

Wheat on Low Level—During the past two weeks the wheat market has been dragging, until yesterday the flour mill offer was 82 cents a bushel. It may be said that the Salem price of wheat is always based on the Portland market and that the market in Portland is officially announced each day at noon.

Cocoanuts From Tahiti—Cocoanuts are now on the market, and those to be offered in Salem come direct from Tahiti. For the information of those who have sort of a hazy idea as to the location of this island, it may be said that in traveling there the voyager goes about 2900 miles out in the ocean from San Francisco, then turns to the left and travels another 1900 miles, and is right there. It's a warm country.

Woodmen to Initiate—The Woodmen of the World are making big preparations for the first initiation of members in their new property, the Elks' temple, to be held next Friday evening at 8 o'clock. Already 48 have recently signified their intentions of joining the Woodmen and have been notified to be on hand for initiation Friday evening. The lodge membership now is 68 and plans are now under discussion for a campaign that will bring the membership up to 1000 early in the year.

M. W. A. Notice—J. G. Tate lectures tonight.—Adv.
