Chicago Circuit Court of Appeals Asked to Re-scind Federal Ruling

STRIKERS BACK ACTION

Legal Efforts to Stop Union Method of Aiding Workers Causes Strife

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Nov. 3.—Suspension of Federal Judge Anderson's temporary injunction prohibiting the check-off of union dues by operators and directing cessation of union efforts to organize West Virginia coal fields, will be asked tomorrow of the circuit court of appeals at Chicago by counsel for the United Mine Workers of America, it was learned tonight. Counsel for the Indiana operators who also opposed the injunction suit, will not join in the appeal because of the walkouts of 25,000 miners having forced a shutdown of practically all Indiana mines and the attitude of the operators was to let the union fight out of the case. Formal application for the granting of an appeal also will be made at Chicago by the union but this was said by counsel to be a perfunctory proceeding that might either be brought before Judge Anderson or any judge of the circuit court. Failure to get complete suspension of the injunction, the union's counsel was said to be prepared to press for a ruling that only Indiana operators were affected. Aside from favorable court action, union officials regarded further strike developments as hinging on the action of operators in discontinuing the check-off. President John L. Lewis was advised that the executive board of the Pittsburgh district would meet tomorrow to act on district President R. R. Gibbons' decision to call a strike on Monday. Approximately 40,000 miners would be affected, officials said. Elsewhere in coal producing states the miners were said to be awaiting the decision of operators whether to stop the check-off. Doubt as to the interpretation of the original strike telegram expressed by Frank Farrington, president of the Illinois miners, was not removed by Mr. Lewis' answer sent today to the Illinois anti-administration leader at the miners' convention, accused Lewis of trying to "pass the buck" in calling the strike and Lewis' reply was that "detailed instructions" would be sent whenever Illinois operators declare their intent of stopping the check-off. The answer did not disclose the nature of the instructions, but it was said authoritatively that they would include a strike order.

COLUMBUS, Nov. 3.—Ohio miners who ceased work in protest against the federal injunction abolishing the check-off system were ordered to return to work by the executive board of District No. 6, United Mine Workers of America, after meeting today. Lee Hall, president of the district, was instructed to notify all coal operators that compliance with their contract, which includes provision for the check-off system of collection of union dues is expected and that violation of it will result in strikes.

EDITORIALS OF THE PEOPLE

North Salem Situation

Editor Statesman: Replying to Sunday's Statesman, Relation of Property and Proposed Viaduct. After reading in Sunday's Statesman, and noting the values you have placed on our properties, that are adjacent to and will be affected by the proposed viaduct on the Silverton road, we, the property holders feel we have been done a great injustice.

We notice where the Commercial club of this city and the realty association are going to a great deal of expense and time to induce easterners as well as others to come to our city and invest and make a greater Salem. From your attitude of publishing values on our property, you show that Salem is going backward, which we all know to be false, further, you discourage the incentive for a larger and better business in North Salem as well as kill residence sales. We think you should have come and interviewed at least some of the owners that will be affected. If this viaduct is constructed instead of jumping at conclusions. In every instance where you placed an appraised value, you are entirely out of reason. Quite a number of years ago when the Southern Pacific railroad was buying to double track their system, they paid from $1000 to $1200 per acre and surely values have not decreased since then. Using that as a basis, you have not even taken under consideration any of the improvements on to any of the property affected, not to say anything as to business location. We, the property owners, of both the Silverton road and Pacific highway feel that you should make a thorough investigation and make amends as far as possible for the wrong you have done us. We are all taxpayers and feel that we should have some voice in matters so important to us. We the property owners do not feel that the taxpayers of Oregon and the state of Oregon should bear the expense of making for the Southern Pacific railroad safer and better crossings. The Silverton road has been paved for several years, yet the Southern Pacific crossing remains the same. This will apply to other Southern Pacific crossings in Salem, as well. If the crossings are a menace to the public, let the Southern Pacific, who derives the benefits, improve their own crossings, instead of the taxpayers of this city and state.

Methodists May Add to Sunday School Rooms. That the present housing and equipment were inadequate for the Sunday school enrollment was the decision of the official board of the First Methodist church at a meeting Wednesday night. More than 350 new students have been added to the Sunday school enrollment in the past year, according to Rev. Blain E. Kirkpatrick which brings the total number taking instruction up to 1100. A temporary building to be erected on the rear of the lot now occupied by the church was one of the proposed ways of meeting the conditions as shown last night. Committees on ways and means and a special building committee were named last night to investigate. These committees will report at a meeting of the official board November 9. The special building committee is composed of R. R. Jones, A. A. Siewert and J. B. Littler. The regular finance committee will act as a ways and means committee. W. C. Winslow is chairman of the regular committee.

provided the authorities with information as follows relative to social influences or experiences: Boy No. 1.—Never interested in the Boy Scouts, never asked to join. Went to free swimming class at the Y.M.C.A. twice. Attended Sunday school three years ago. Never has been interested in the Y.M.C.A. Clothes Too Poor. Boy No. 2.—Came to Salem from a little town about 18 months ago. I had attended Sunday school there, but never in Salem. I did not have much clothing. I always wanted to know more about the Boy Scouts, but had no chance in the country. Since I came to Salem, no one ever asked me to join. Boy No. 3.—Only been in Salem a few years. Attended Sunday school a few times. I quit going there just a little while before we started to steal those bicycles. The Sunday school is too slow for a fellow. Once I was asked to join the Boy Scouts but some older boys told me that they are a bunch of sissies who can't ever do anything.

district are closed down and no work is to be had. He told the judge he wished to come back to the training school for the winter and the hospital for the summer. Mr. Gilbert described him as a boy of unusual ability and favored his return. State Treasurer Hoff said to refuse would be to encourage him to commit an offense so he might be sent back. The board voted that he should be allowed to return.

One More Pledge Means Much to Association. The Y. M. C. A. needs but one more pledge of $250 to assure the tentative pledges of seven others who have been given with the understanding that a total of eight pledges of $250 each will be subscribed. Those in charge of the campaign hope to close their work this week. It is known that a number who have pledged for work have not as yet seen many who supported the Y. M. C. A. a year ago. There will be the usual noon luncheon of workers. The following pledges were reported yesterday, bringing the total up to $5669.50. J. A. Kappahn, $5; P. J. Larsen & Sons, $5; Charles H. She uses a 21 ounce cue. Her highest run, she says, was 51 made at Dayton, O., two years ago.

Drager Files Demurrer In School District Suit

D. G. Drager, treasurer of Marion county, in answer to a writ of mandamus ordering him to pay certain school warrants, has demurred on the ground that the mandamus does not state facts sufficient to justify its issuance or to constitute a valid cause against him. The mandamus proceedings were brought against Mr. Drager as treasurer by a school district in the northern part of the county and the legal points involved brings up the question as to whether a school district which has voted funds for a school house may use the funds temporarily for other purposes. The district about a year ago voted $23,500 in order to buy grounds and build a school house. Later, the directors decided to put off building a year or so. In order to secure interest from the idle funds, the directors decided to loan the money to the Willamette Valley Mortgage & Loan company at 6 per cent for one year. The directors then issued a warrant and order on the county treasurer, in favor of the Willamette Valley Mortgage & Loan company. Mr. Drager refused to honor the warrant, on the ground that the money voted by the district could be withdrawn from the county treasury for one purpose only—that of buying property and erecting a school house.

WATSON CHARGE MAY BE DROPPED

Motion to Quash Sensational Issue Will Be Made in Senate Tomorrow. WASHINGTON, Nov. 3.—A motion is to be made in the senate tomorrow, Democratic senators announced tonight, to drop the investigation by the special senate committee into the charges of Senator Watson, Democrat, Georgia, that American soldiers were hanged in France without trial. Whether a partisan issue would develop out of the case was uncertain tonight, but several Republicans declared they were ready to resist the Democratic motion, which Senator Simmons, Democrat, North Carolina, said he planned to offer. He is to move discharge of dissolution of the special investigating committee. The Simmons motion was agreed on after conferences between Republican and Democratic leaders and Senator Watson and after presentation by Mr. Watson of letters, telegrams and newspaper clippings as substantiating his charges. Democratic senators claimed they had assurances from some Republican leaders that they would not object to dissolution of the committee, but other Republicans declared they would oppose the Simmons motion. Senator Watson said he continued to object to presenting the case before any committee and that he proposed to proceed with his evidence in the open senate.

Mary Nelson Commits Suicide in Portland

PORTLAND, Or., Nov. 3.—Mary Nelson, aged 20, was found dead in her room here today with the gas turned on and doors and windows plugged up. A note to her room mate, Miss Ona May Mitchell, stated she was tired of the struggle of life and asked forgiveness for her act. The girl had a brother in Hartline, Wash., and a sister in Woodburn, Or. She had worked as a waitress in local restaurants. Her roommate is in a hospital for an operation.

Portland Wheat Bids Go Down to 97 Cents

PORTLAND, Or., Nov. 3.—Portland wheat bids went down to 97 cents a bushel for the best varieties today on the Merchants Exchange a loss of 2 to 3 cents a bushel for the day. The new prices are the lowest named in this market for approximately six years. Because of the lower prices that wheat is available at in Canada and in Australia, Japanese buyers have been trying to resell wheat purchased here.

Bid Made for Assets of Defunct Seattle Bank

The proposal stipulates further that the two new banks

BONFIRE WILL BURN TONIGHT

Willamette Team Prepared for Game With Pacific University Saturday

The Bearcat bonfire on Sweetland field tonight promises to be a big, enthusiastic event. Coach Bohler, members of the team, rooters, faculty members, co-eds, will have a part on the speaking program, and if they don't pulverize Pacific Saturday, there's nothing in signs or yells. The team is going ahead steadily, working while it waits for the Pacific bunch to arrive. It is pretty certain to be a hot game, for Pacific is said to have the javiest, strongest team in its history; a team with no crippling accidents, while Willamette has had enough sprains and breaks to furnish a whole row of hospitals with horrible examples. The loss of Barnes, from the scrimmage Wednesday night, is the latest discouraging announcement. But there have been so many that it's a rather old story. The Bearcat squad was photographed, making a rather imposing showing. There are good men in reserve for every position; some are pretty green, even greener than their green caps, but they promise strength and courage, and they can soon get experience in a game. Several freshmen will doubtless play in the Pacific game. Saturday's game will be the last on the home field. The next will be at Walla Walla, November 19, with Whitman. The week following the Bearcats will clash with the College of Puget Sound at Tacoma. Then they will deplete the pliskins and get into the moshbals and get into the basketball swim.

Savage Rapids Dam Will Be Dedicated Saturday

GRANTS PASS, Or., Nov. 3.—Dedication services of the Savage Rapids irrigation dam which has been completed this month will be held Saturday, November 5th. Other speakers of the day are State Engineer Percy Cupper, of Salem, and J. W. Harrison of San Francisco. Secretary of State Sam Kozier will press the button which will loose the waters into the canals. Invitations have been sent to many prominent persons all over the Pacific coast and a large attendance is expected at the celebration.

Cheers Greet Proposal To Oust the Hapsburgs

BUDAPEST, Nov. 3.—(By the Associated Press)—When Premier Bethlen today introduced in the assembly the bill calling for the dethroning of former King Charles and the ousting of the Hapsburg dynasty from Hungary, there were cheers for Charles by the legitimists. The bill protests against interference of foreign powers in Hungary, provides removal of the Hapsburgs from power and calls for postponement for an indefinite period of the election of a new king of Hungary. The bill will come up for debate tomorrow. Eight days of mourning for Hungary because of the country's humiliation through the escape of Charles has been ordered by the minister of the interior.

POLICIES FOR ARM PARLEY TAKE FORM

(Continued from page 1) The impression that such a method may not lead to an immediate agreement has been given color by the apparent intention of some other powers to pursue an opposite course and enter the conference setting a high figure as the measure of the naval armament they consider requisite to their national safety. Japan has indicated she would suggest the necessity of maintaining a navy equal to any which might enter her sphere in the Far East, a proportion which naval experts say is well in excess of her present power. Naval Question First. The naval armament question is considered certain to be the first to occupy attention of the conference, but it is not the expectation of officials that the live problems of Far Eastern diplomacy will remain long in the background. As the conference is viewed in prospect, it is believed that the diplomatic and armament angles may develop simultaneously so that instead of having a fixed program of consecutive subjects the delegates will fall into the practice of considering this or that problem as occasion may bring it to the front.

TWO BOYS ARE HELD FOR BICYCLE THEFTS

(Continued from page 1.) at the offices of Judge Bushey yesterday afternoon. "Well, boys, have you put those bicycles together yet?" queried Judge Bushey. And then followed the lad's summing up of their activities since they were taken into custody by the police last Saturday and six bicycles stolen by them recovered. Each of the wheels is in a more or less damaged condition, as the two boys had been busily occupied in dismantling the wheels and tires and in repainting frames. Youngster No. 1, told Judge Bushey that he was having much trouble in making the bicycles "as good as new" which was his promise to the court Monday. "It was easy to ride the wheels away and hide them while their owners were in school," said the little fellow, but somehow I can't find all the pedals and other parts that we took off the bikes. Judge Wants to Help. As in scores of other juvenile cases handled by him, County Judge Bushey is co-operating with the boys in their efforts to make up for their past offenses and to regain a good standing in the community. When questioned as to what their interests had been, both lads stated that they had never paid much attention to the work of the Y.M.C.A. or to the Boy Scouts. Three other boys recently sent to the reform school because of failure to convince the court that their home surroundings would keep them out of further trouble

Bingham Overrules Motion For Children to Appear

Declaring that he did not feel justified to pass an opinion as to whether children should be released from the state institution of the feeble-minded, Judge George C. Bingham yesterday overruled a motion that the four Councilman children should be brought into court, to show why they should be permitted to return to their Eugene home. Attorneys for the children hoped to have them brought into court and there examined. Parents of the children claim that the children were taken from the Boys' and Girls' Aid society at Portland, and without their consent, sent to the feeble-minded school. The parents are endeavoring to have the children returned to their home. On complaint of neighbors last year the Councilman children were originally brought before the Coos county court and sent to the Portland institution.

DR. MATTHIS IS SCHOOL DOCTOR

Miss Grace Taylor Elected Nurse at Special Meeting of Board. At a meeting held yesterday of a special committee appointed by the school board, Dr. J. O. Matthis was elected school physician and Miss Grace Taylor, school nurse. Both will begin their duties at once. Due to the fact that the school board had but a small budget with which to work on, there has been no school physician or nurse. But at the last meeting of the board, the opinion was expressed that it would be for the best for the schools to have a physician and nurse and a committee was appointed with power to act. This will be the first work of Dr. Matthis in an official capacity for the schools. Miss Taylor has served for a number of years as school nurse and is well known to school patrons. The position of school nurse carries with it a salary of $100 a month and school physician, $50 a month.
