SALEM friends of Miss Florence Cleveland will be interested to know of her engagement to James Donald. Both Miss Cleveland and Mr. Donald are University of Oregon graduates. Miss Cleveland is a member of Gamma Phi Beta and Mr. Donald is a Sigma Chi. Both are popular in Salem and Portland.

Miss Cleveland was the first secretary of the local Young Women's Christian Association.

Mr. and Mrs. John L. Rand of Baker arrived in Salem last Saturday. Mr. Rand has been appointed justice of the supreme court.

Salem friends of Captain and Mrs. Earl C. Flegel will be interested to know that Captain Flegel has just been appointed military instructor at Hill Military academy in Portland.

Mrs. Flegel is a daughter of Dr. and Mrs. R. E. Lee Steiner. Captain Steiner, who is a former Williamsite university man, has recently been stationed at Camp

Travis near San Antonio, Texas. He enlisted at the beginning of the war and following his release from service enlisted in the regular army. Captain Flegel is a son of A. P. Flegel of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Clifford were hosts Sunday for a small dinner party. Miss Jessica Todd of Monmouth normal school and Miss Caroline Evans of Denver were out of town guests. Miss Cornelia Marvin was also a guest. Miss Evans is manager for Miss Gay MacLaren, who will give a recital in Salem in January.

Dr. and Mrs. F. Henshaw and Miss Mamie Ziegelman of Portland were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hutton.

Mrs. James English has been a guest for some weeks at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Hopson, 830 South Twelfth street. Mr. English has joined her, and coming by automobile, they will spend a little time in Oregon before returning to California.

Their home is in San Francisco. Mr. English is employed in the subscription department of the Sunset Magazine.

Chadwick social club of the Order of the Eastern Star will hold one of their afternoon gatherings today in their rooms in the Masonic Temple. Visitors in town who are members of the O.E.S. are being urged to attend as well as local members.

Hostesses for the affair are Mrs. Percy Cupper, Mrs. Charles Egan, Mrs. Linn Smith, Mrs. Fred Ellis, Mrs. Lorena Wise, Mrs. W. A. Johnson, and Mrs. E. Paulson.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bernardi returned to Salem last night following a week-end spent in Kings Valley with Mrs. Bernardi's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. Koppelen.

Miss Mildred Smith, a student at Monmouth normal, spent Sunday with Miss Janelle Vandervort.

Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Ireton have as their guest their daughter, Mrs. C. C. Thompson of Seattle. Mrs. Thompson will be in town for a week.

The Monday Night Dancing club will give the second of their dancing parties next Monday night. The club's dances are held every second Monday of the month beginning with the October dance.

The club has a membership of 100 or 150 couples.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hutton were hosts at a dinner party Sunday honoring John W. Cochrane. Other guests were Dr. and Mrs. F. Henshaw and Miss Mamie Ziegelman of Portland; Dr. W. B. Morse, Miss Nell Coppock, Miss Evelyn Stevenson, Mrs. M. Cooper and Mrs. E. Hyne.

Miss Veva Smith, a junior at Oregon Agricultural college in the department of domestic science and home economics, spent the week-end at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Smith.

The original cast lived and acted again.

Miss MacLaren goes back from these Belasco days, when little room is left to the imagination of Shakespeare when, under the stimulus of good acting, the audience could have the pleasure of building its own scenery with the delectable fabrics of its imagination.

Miss MacLaren has played ten times in Boulder, Colo. to audiences composed mostly of miners, to smart women's clubs in New York and to the soldiers during the war.

The Salem Arts league aims to bring talent to Salem and give it to the residents without admission charge but the appearance of Miss MacLaren, like that of Edwin Markham last spring, is at such great expense to the league that admission will be charged, according to the league officials.

Reports of the far sale, the national convention and the activities of the local chapter at the state fair will be given at the meeting of the Salem War Mothers this afternoon. The meeting is to be held in the Commercial club rooms and all members are being urged to attend.

Preparation for the bazaar of the First Presbyterian church are being made. The affair will be held soon. The evening of the bazaar will be the assisting artist.

The Business and Professional Women's club will meet Saturday evening at the state library. Winter reading program will be discussed. Picnic supper will be served, each one being requested to bring plate, knife, fork and spoon.

ADMIRAL MAYO SPEAKER TODAY

Officer Who Commanded Atlantic Fleet During War Comes to Salem

Members of the Kiwanis club will have the pleasure today of hearing Admiral Henry T. Mayo, former commander of the Atlantic fleet during the late war. The admiral will be accompanied from Portland by Dr. George Hinson of that city. Governor Olcott and Mayor George E. Halvorsen will be guests of the Kiwanis club to do honor to this distinguished visitor.

Admiral Mayo, who is now on the retired list, was graduated from the Annapolis naval academy in 1875. He was commissioned as rear admiral in 1893, and was later assigned as commander of the Mare Island navy yard. In 1913 he was assigned to the command of the fourth division of the Atlantic fleet, and in 1916 appointed admiral and given command of the Atlantic fleet. He held this command during the entire World war.

It is claimed in some quarters that the American people are breaking down under too much bathing. This will be a sweet morsel for the folks who have ever been of the opinion that a bath Saturday night is plenty.

CLUBS AND WOMEN'S ACTIVITIES

To transpose New York's Broadway to Salem for one night is the aim of the Salem Arts league in making arrangements to have Gay MacLaren, a re-creator of plays, appear here January 31.

Miss MacLaren reproduces whole plays so that the different characters "live again." Glenn Frank, editor of the Century magazine says of Miss MacLaren, "I can only say the illusion was perfect. It was not reading, it was not an impersonation. It was re-
