

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

Chiropractors Located Here—Dr. R. P. Bradford and wife who just recently moved here from Roseburg, are now located in their beautiful new suburban home on South Commercial street and Fairview avenue, and have opened up offices in the Oregon building.

OREGON Theatre—May McAvoy, Kathryn Williams in "Everything For Sale" Comedy—Scenic Coming Sunday Zane Grey's "Mysterious Rider"

Hartman's Glasses—Easier and Better Wear them and see HARTMAN BROS. Phone 1255 Salem, Oregon

NOMKING—Upstairs at 162 1/2 N. Commercial street Chop Suet, Noodles and American Dishes, Ice cream and drinks. Open 11 a.m. to 1 a.m. Special Sunday—CHICKEN DINNER

SAVE $$$—by buying your hardware and furniture at The Capital Hardware & Furniture Co., 285 N. Commercial street. Phone 947

TREES—For Spring Planting Order From THE SALEM NURSERY CO. 425 Oregon Building SALEM OREGON Phone 1763

STENBOCK JUNK CO.—The House of Half a Million and One Bargains. I buy and sell anything and everything Household Goods Junk Old Cars Rags Sacks Rubber Metals Bottles Before you buy or sell, call us Phone 523. 402 N. Com'l

THE HUB MERCANTILE CO.—Let us supply you with Clothing Hosiery Hats Dishes, etc. at the Lowest Prices SALEM'S BARGAIN CENTER 373-77 Court St.

Schaefer's Cold Tablets—acknowledged by all users as a sure cure for colds, asthma, catarrh, etc. Your business demands your fullest efficiency—act today. Schaefer's Drug Store Sole Agent Garden Court Preparations 135 N. Com'l. Phone 197

Selma Willing, Graduate Nurse—Swedish massage. 416 and 417 Oregon building. Hours 10 to 6. —Adv.

Major General Visits Salem—William M. Wright, major general in command of the ninth corps, United States army, of San Francisco, was in Salem a short time yesterday. He has been in Corvallis inspecting and was on his way to Portland.

Wheelerbarrow Missing—A wooden wheelerbarrow, the property of W. M. Cherrington, was stolen from the Cherrington residence recently, according to a report filed at the police station yesterday.

Speeder Pays $20—Ray Jones, of Waconda, was arrested yesterday by Officer Hayler on a charge of driving at the rate of 28 miles an hour on Capitol street between Union and D streets. Jones entered a plea of guilty and was fined $20 by City Recorder Earl Race.

Another Traffic Sentence—R. Fullenwelder, of Portland, was fined $20 by City Recorder Earl Race when arraigned in court yesterday on a charge of a violation of city traffic laws. Fullenwelder had been arrested by Officer Hayden for driving his machine at 7 miles an hour on North Capitol streets. Pearl McCleary of Silverton, paid a fine of $20 yesterday on a charge of exceeding speed limits by driving at 29 miles an hour on Capitol street between Shipping and Market streets.

Chapin in Jail—"Drunk and disorderly" is the charge booked against F. H. Chapin, Salem chimney sweep at the police station. In the meantime Mr. Chapin languished at the city jail.

Kiwanians Have Match Boxes—As Oliver J. Myers had agreed to furnish the attendance prize at the yesterday meeting of the Kiwanis club, he did something a little different. Instead of bringing just one prize, he presented each member with an automobile safety match box.

Masonic Dance Tomorrow Night—The first dance of the season for all Masons who have taken the Master Mason degree and their wives, will be held Thursday evening at the Salem Shrine Mosque. These dances will be held the second Thursday of each month under the auspices of the Salem Shrine club.

ADMIRAL TALKS TO KIWANIAN

War is Reviewed by Officer Who Held Command of Atlantic Fleet

AMERICA IS CREDITED

Sailor Sees Good in Disarmament Parley, But Avers Some Force Needed

"It is a fact that the United States did win the war," declared Admiral Henry T. Mayo, in addressing the Kiwanis club yesterday. "Without the help of the United States, the allies would have lost."

Little Preparation Made—Admiral Mayo hinted that so many naval and military men have often said, that while everyone knew the United States must get into the war, not a thing had been done in Washington to prepare for war, although some preparations on a small scale had been made unknown to the then secretary of the navy.

Basketball Practice Begins—Basketball practice has started. The men of Willamette university are holding daily sessions at the armory between the hours of 2:30 and 6 in the afternoon. Interest is being shown by the different classes in the matter of interclass rivalry. A number of the men can be seen each afternoon on Sweetland field going around the dirt track getting in trim for the season of basketball starting soon.

Verdict for Plaintiff—A jury in justice court yesterday awarded a verdict in favor of John Rademacher in his suit against John Withycombe. A judgment for damages in the sum of $35.96 was stipulated in the findings against Mr. Withycombe. The case arose out of an automobile accident occurring near Brooks July 6, 1921. Mr. Rademacher had demanded damages in the sum of $50.06.

PERSONALS—Mrs. J. E. Brophy left yesterday for a visit in Portland of a few days with friends. George Sloper of Independence was in the city yesterday attending business matters. Capt. T. E. Rilea of the adjutant general's office, went to Portland yesterday. A. S. McCleary left yesterday for Seattle where he expects to make his home. Mr. and Mrs. D. A. White were in Portland yesterday attending the stock show. Charles M. Atwater of Monmouth was in the city yesterday. O. A. Ponnard, farmer from the Aumsville section, was in Salem Tuesday. W. M. Person is at the Deaconess hospital and will be operated on Monday morning. He will be able to see his friends a day or two later. George Morris, patrolman of road district No. 45, Turner, was in Salem yesterday and while here discussed road matters with members of the county court. Peter Ertter, road patrolman of district No. 32, Stayton, was a visitor to the office of County Commissioner J. T. Hunt yesterday. George Etzel of Stayton was a Salem visitor yesterday, spending some time while in conference with County Judge W. M. Bushey. William Emmer of Mehama was a Salem visitor yesterday. Frank Heater, Mat Mulkey and Edward Charlesworth, all of Victor Point, discussed road matters with the county court Tuesday. Mrs. J. T. Hunt is spending a few days at the old Hunt home, near Sublimity.

SPECIAL "Otter Brand" Early June Peas—2 cans for 35c Per dozen $2—Absolutely first class stock in every respect and specially priced lower than present wholesale cost. This offer good only while present stock lasts.

Complete Day's Rest is Accorded Marshal Foch—CLEVELAND, O., Nov. 8.—Marshal Foch had his first complete rest today since landing in America almost two weeks ago. He rested 15 miles in the country at the home of Parmely Herrick, son of Myron F. Herrick, United States ambassador to France. The marshal was driven to the Herrick home immediately on leaving his special train today. Marshal Foch will remain at the Herrick home until 10 o'clock tomorrow when he will return to the city where a busy day awaits

ADMIRAL TALKS TO KIWANIAN

War is Reviewed by Officer Who Held Command of Atlantic Fleet

AMERICA IS CREDITED

Sailor Sees Good in Disarmament Parley, But Avers Some Force Needed

"It is a fact that the United States did win the war," declared Admiral Henry T. Mayo, in addressing the Kiwanis club yesterday. "Without the help of the United States, the allies would have lost."

Little Preparation Made—Admiral Mayo hinted that so many naval and military men have often said, that while everyone knew the United States must get into the war, not a thing had been done in Washington to prepare for war, although some preparations on a small scale had been made unknown to the then secretary of the navy.

Basketball Practice Begins—Basketball practice has started. The men of Willamette university are holding daily sessions at the armory between the hours of 2:30 and 6 in the afternoon. Interest is being shown by the different classes in the matter of interclass rivalry. A number of the men can be seen each afternoon on Sweetland field going around the dirt track getting in trim for the season of basketball starting soon.

Verdict for Plaintiff—A jury in justice court yesterday awarded a verdict in favor of John Rademacher in his suit against John Withycombe. A judgment for damages in the sum of $35.96 was stipulated in the findings against Mr. Withycombe. The case arose out of an automobile accident occurring near Brooks July 6, 1921. Mr. Rademacher had demanded damages in the sum of $50.06.

PERSONALS—Mrs. J. E. Brophy left yesterday for a visit in Portland of a few days with friends. George Sloper of Independence was in the city yesterday attending business matters. Capt. T. E. Rilea of the adjutant general's office, went to Portland yesterday. A. S. McCleary left yesterday for Seattle where he expects to make his home. Mr. and Mrs. D. A. White were in Portland yesterday attending the stock show. Charles M. Atwater of Monmouth was in the city yesterday. O. A. Ponnard, farmer from the Aumsville section, was in Salem Tuesday. W. M. Person is at the Deaconess hospital and will be operated on Monday morning. He will be able to see his friends a day or two later. George Morris, patrolman of road district No. 45, Turner, was in Salem yesterday and while here discussed road matters with members of the county court. Peter Ertter, road patrolman of district No. 32, Stayton, was a visitor to the office of County Commissioner J. T. Hunt yesterday. George Etzel of Stayton was a Salem visitor yesterday, spending some time while in conference with County Judge W. M. Bushey. William Emmer of Mehama was a Salem visitor yesterday. Frank Heater, Mat Mulkey and Edward Charlesworth, all of Victor Point, discussed road matters with the county court Tuesday. Mrs. J. T. Hunt is spending a few days at the old Hunt home, near Sublimity.

SPECIAL "Otter Brand" Early June Peas—2 cans for 35c Per dozen $2—Absolutely first class stock in every respect and specially priced lower than present wholesale cost. This offer good only while present stock lasts.

Complete Day's Rest is Accorded Marshal Foch—CLEVELAND, O., Nov. 8.—Marshal Foch had his first complete rest today since landing in America almost two weeks ago. He rested 15 miles in the country at the home of Parmely Herrick, son of Myron F. Herrick, United States ambassador to France. The marshal was driven to the Herrick home immediately on leaving his special train today. Marshal Foch will remain at the Herrick home until 10 o'clock tomorrow when he will return to the city where a busy day awaits

Ankeny Grange Endorses Stand Taken by Mr. Hoff—JEFFERSON, Or., Nov. 8.—(Special to the Statesman.) At the regular meeting of the Ankeny grange Saturday a resolution was passed approving the action of State Treasurer Hoff in his stand relative to the state training school for boys, and declaring that a salary of $5000 a year for a superintendent is an unnecessary expense on the taxpayers.

TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY FOR RENT—FURNISHED FIVE room bungalow, modern, with garage. Phone 981-R.

NOTICE—Owing to the very disastrous fire in our store on October 31, we are now occupying temporarily quarters at corner of High and Trade streets. Telephone same, No. 1374. We will be able to take care of all needs in a very few days. Showalter & Jacobs

MEN WHO KNOW Have Their Clothes Made to Measure—You can pick such men out of any crowd—just because they know good clothes. If you want a suit that looks good—feels good—and wears well, have us make you a suit to your individual measure from all wool materials and you will know what real clothes satisfaction means. Suits $30 to $55. SCOTCH WOOLEN MILLS 426 STATE ST. SALEM, ORE.

Did You Price Our Dresses Three Weeks Ago?—If so, you will doubly realize the extent of what we are offering you when we announce New Reductions On the Price of Our Entire Stock of DRESSES. Silk Dresses; Wool Dresses; Dresses for the Misses; Dresses for the Business Woman; Dresses for the School Girl; Dresses for the Debutante and for the Young Matrons! Dresses in both simple and more elaborate styles. In fact, every dress in our store (and we've just received some beauties) has had the price on the price tag considerably lowered. U. G. Shipley Co. The Pay As You Go plan is Money in YOUR Pocket. This store will be closed all day Armistice Day