

STAYTON PERSONALS NEWS NOTES

STAYTON, Ore., Nov. 9.—Leo Bailey and family arrived in Stayton Wednesday from Bend where they have spent the past few months. They will take up their residence in their home property on West Water street.

Carl Fryer, wife and daughter of Portland, in company with Paul Gardner and wife of North Powder were week-end guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Gardner.

Frank Blakely who left Stayton seven months ago to go east in search of health, returned the last of the week to his home here. While away Mr. Blakely visited most all the states and principal cities east of the Rocky Mountains. The trip has proved very beneficial to him, his former good health having been restored. While away, he was married to an eastern woman who was a friend of his boyhood days, and he brought his bride home with him.

The Mehama basketball team played the return game with Stayton in the local gymnasium Friday night, the honors going to Mehama. Following the game a basket supper was enjoyed.

C. S. Clark, former editor of The Stayton Mail returned Tuesday of last week and moved his family and household effects to Salem where they will live. Mr. Clark and his wife made many friends during ten years of their residence in Stayton.

H. C. Ackerman, who is associated with Viek Brothers of Albany, was in Stayton Saturday looking after his business interests here.

Art Cornelius who at one time was in business in Stayton, was here a day or two last week looking over old haunts.

Mrs. Mary Elsenhart, Mrs. William Cornish, Ben Fresh and Ed Jacobs motored to Silverton one day last week where they spent the day. The trip was made in Mr. Jacobs' car.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Stigmund drove in from Fern Ridge Friday, spending the day with Stayton friends.

Armistice day will pass quietly in Stayton, no public demonstration being planned for the day. A dancing party in the evening will mark the occasion for the young people of this community. A patriotic program will be put on by the school, at the auditorium on Thursday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Downey came in from their farm home east of Sublimity Saturday for a days' shopping.

Several car loads of Masons from the local lodge went to Mill City Saturday night to organize a lodge at Mill City. They were scheduled to go there some time ago to put on the work but illness in the family of the grand master necessitated a postponement.

Olin, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. George Davie enjoyed his ninth birthday Tuesday when a party of his young friends gathered at his home to help celebrate the occasion. Games dear to the heart of a 9-year-old boy made the occasion a happy one.

Mrs. Lon Kelly of Roseburg, is visiting friends in this section of the valley.

E. B. Watters I snt again after an attack of tonsillitis. Mrs. Newt Allen and daughter, Leota of Fox alley, were in Stayton Friday.

Norval Fisher came over from O.A.C. where he is attending college, for the last week-end.

W. H. Hobson and E. C. Titus were looking after business in Salem Monday.

John and Ed Blakely were here over the week-end, visiting their father, W. F. Blakely who returned home last Friday.

Quarantine notices are up at the Forrest Mack home as one of the younger Mack children has scarlet fever. Every precaution is being taken to prevent any spread of the disease.

She Knows After 20 Years A cold, even when it has developed a hacking cough, difficult breathing, sleepless nights, raw throat and sore lungs,—even then a cold yields quickly to Foley's Honey and Tar. Mrs. Milton Waite, Box 32, Azalia, Mich., writes: "I have used Foley's Honey and Tar for the past 20 years and find there is no other cough or croup remedy like it. You may use my name." It gets right at the seat of the trouble. Children like it. Sold everywhere.—Adv.

Following the interview Mr. Robinson and Mr. Eakin looked over the armory which has been leased for the convention. The armory is the only building in the city big enough to accommodate the gathering. The following persons have been named by Mr. Eakin of chairmen of the various committees: Entertainment, Lucile Ross; registration, Elizabeth Hogg; finance, Ross Miles; publicity, R. L. Putnam; junior, Mrs. R. L. Putnam; guides and page, Howard Zinsner; music, Miss Alice Judd; recreation, Elsworth Anslow. Other committees are yet to be appointed. Mr. Putnam, publicity chairman, says:

"I believe that the biggest problem in connection with the whole affair is the entertainment of the convention. It is no small matter to entertain 1000 delegates, but I believe that Salem is the one city in the state that can and will do it. It is going to be a splendid opportunity for the city to induce, through its welcome to these young people, many of them to make Salem their future home. It trust that the churches, homes, and business houses and all commercial and civic interests will become interested in this gathering and help to make it the biggest Christian Endeavor convention ever held in the state of Oregon."

Le Roy Robinson of Portland, president of the Oregon Christian Endeavor, was in Salem last Sunday afternoon in the interest of the big all-state Christian Endeavor

RICH AND POOR SUFFER ALIKE DURING MILK STRIKE.

When the milk drivers in New York city went out on a strike and the delivery of milk was stopped, both the rich and the poor suffered alike. The picture on the left shows the chauffeur of a well-to-do business man getting milk direct from the dairy, while the one on the right shows young Francis Morecco, providing for his little sisters.

turkeys, grouse, quail or partridges, wild ducks and the introduced pheasants and gray partridges, by Elizabeth and Joseph Grinnell. "Toasts for all Occasions," selected and arranged by Edith Lea Chase, and Captain W. E. P. French. "The Christian Approach to Social Morality," three lectures by Richard Clark Cabot, on the cooperation of the affections and reform of the commission on social morality. "Far to Seek," a romance of England and India by Maud Diver. "The First Sir Percy," an adventure of the Laughin Cavalier, by Baroness Orczy. "For The Children

"Wonder Tales of the World," retold by Constance Armfield. "Granny's Wonderful Chair and its Tales of Fairy Times," by Frances Browne. "The White Indian Boy," the story of Uncle Nick among the Shoshones, by Elijah Nicholas Wilson. "Martin Crusoe," a boy's adventure on Wizard Island, by T. C. Bridges.

Cohen Buys Interest Of Former Partner Harry Cohen has purchased the interest of his partner, Sam Perner, and is now sole proprietor of the Paris Shoe store, 357 State street.

Mr. Cohen has already put in a much larger stock than has been carried heretofore, and says his new policy will be "a smaller profit but a larger turnover."

"In every sale we make our rule, as heretofore, will be 'They Must Satisfy.'"

BONDS ARE SOLD TO SCHNEELOCH

Salem Securities Amounting to $28,239.35 Sold By City Council

The bond firm of Ralph Schneeloch company of Portland was the successful bidder for $28,239.35 Salem bonds. Bids were opened at the Monday evening meeting of the city council.

The following bids were submitted to the council: United States National bank for the Lumberman's Trust company of Portland, $28,264.35; Ladd & Bush, $28,350; Salem Bank of Commerce, par for $10,000 of the bonds; Ralph Schneeloch company of Portland, $28,257.95.

It will be noted that the bonds were sold to the Portland firm on a bid of only $7.95 in excess of the offer of Ladd & Bush.

On December 31, 1920, the municipal bond debt of the city of Salem amounted to $474,000. However, since that date the city has paid off $34,000 of these bonds. During the year 1920 the city paid off $39,050 of its municipal bonds.

In 1916 the city tax levy was 14 mills, according to the records of the city recorder's office. In 1917 the city's was at the rate of 12 1/2 mills. It was the same in 1918. In 1919 the millage for the city was 13.9 and in 1920 the city's levy was 13.7.

In other words the levy for the city's expenses of doing business is now less than during the first year of the war.

Incorporators are W. O. Kringle, Marguerite Kringle and Donald M. Graham. Resolutions of dissolution were filed by the Eastern Manufacturing company and the Williams company, both of Portland.

YOUTHFUL DEFINITION

Washing dishes is no adventure—not for children of the Greeley school.

In dictionary work conducted by Miss Lillian Walton, teacher in the fourth grade and under the direction of the Franklin branch of the public library, Miss Walton asked:

"What is an adventure?" A little fellow raised his hand. "An adventure is when you go to do something," he said promptly.

"Well, now, suppose I go to wash some dishes," questioned Miss Walton. "No—that's no adventure—it's only when you do something." To the question: "What is a disturbance?" the answer came quickly: "Whenever a person makes a fuss."—Minneapolis Tribune.

NEW CORPORATIONS

Articles of incorporation were filed yesterday by the Central Oregon Hardware & Implement company, capitalized at $5000. The Advertisement for Gale & Co. featuring 'New Scrims, Marquisettes and Curtain Materials'. It includes a photograph of a window with curtains and text stating 'Just Received', 'Special 19c Yd.', and 'Store Close All Day Friday, Armistice Day'.

HEALING CREAM STOPS CATARRH

Clogged Air Passages Open at Once—Nostrils Cleared. If your nostrils are clogged and your head stuffed because of catarrh or a cold, get Ely's Cream Balm at any drug store. Apply a little of this pure, antiseptic, germ destroying cream into your nostrils and let it penetrate through every air passage of your head and membranes. Instant relief. How good it feels. Your head is clear. Your nostrils are open. You breathe freely. No more hawking or snuffing. Head colds and catarrh yield like magic. Don't stay stuffed up, choked up and miserable. Relief is sure.—Adv.

Advertisement for 'CY Says There will be a present' featuring a cartoon of a child with a gift. It promotes a 'FREE' admission to the 'COUNTRY STORE' and 'BLIGH THEATRE'.

Advertisement for 'C. E. PRESIDENT VISITS IN CITY'. It lists committees appointed to have charge of the state convention, including 'The Man Who' and 'The Rage of Paris'.

Advertisement for 'AT THE LIBRARY' listing various books for sale, including 'The Working Forces in Japanese Politics' and 'China of the Chinese'.

Large advertisement for 'PEOPLE'S CASH STORE' featuring 'THRIFTY THURSDAY' with 'Magnetic Bargains in OUR BARGAIN BASEMENT'. It lists various items like aprons, stockings, and dresses with prices.

Advertisement for 'EASTERN CITIES The Sunset Limited' operated by Southern Pacific Lines. It describes the train service between San Francisco and Los Angeles, highlighting the 'Golden Gate and The Crescent City'.