

SALEM TO HONOR SOLDIER HEROES

Program At Armory to Be Featured by Addresses and Special Music

An all-Salem and Marion county audience is expected at the armory at 7:30 this afternoon as a result of the publicity and general invitations extended by the American legion committee which is sponsored today's observance...

- 1. Revolutionary war, Mrs. William Brunk. Colonial dance—Mrs. Charles Reynolds. 2. Civil war, Miss Ada Miller. Musical numbers by Veterans' fifth drum corps. 3. Spanish-American war, Mrs. Arthur Rahn. Assisted by Spanish war veterans. Address—Judge George M. Town.

ROAD BONDS ARE BADLY BEATEN

Residing on Paved Highways Rap Higher Tax Assessment

DALLAS, Or., Nov. 10.—(Special to The Statesman)—Polk county's special road election for the purpose of raising $70,000, building new roads and keeping the ones built this year in repair was defeated by nearly a two to one vote. With but a few precincts to hear from the voters...

VISIT SCHOOL IS PLEA TO PARENTS

Inverton Parents Asked to Take More Interest in School Problems

SILVERTON, Or., Nov. 10.—(Special to The Statesman)—Helen Wrightman, president of the Silverton Parent-Teachers' association, said that the local school has never had such successful meetings as this fall, every meeting a large percentage of the members attend. The association has many plans which are endeavoring to carry out during the winter. Among these are closing of First street between Park and A streets. The association has elected a committee to go before the city council to get the consent of the council to close this street during the school year.

the domestic art class with two mirrors this week. One was a full length mirror and the other a smaller one. The association has been carrying out a plan to get parents to attend the meetings. A picture is awarded to the room who has the largest representation of parents present at a meeting. A group of mothers are selected to visit the schools during a month. Those who are to visit the school this month are Mrs. Frank Hubbs, Mrs. J. A. Campbell, Mrs. E. A. Booth, Mrs. R. E. Kleinsorge and Mrs. V. J. Peterson.

The next meeting of the Parent-Teachers' association will be held the first Friday in December. At this meeting there will be a round table-Good Music in Schools, leading discussion by Mrs. R. E. Kleinsorge, and Not a Book, but The Book. The presentation of the flag won at the county meeting for large attendance will be a feature of the meeting.

Flax Growers Propose To Organize Industry

A meeting of all farmers interested in the growing of flax and hemp in this part of the valley is called for next Wednesday morning, at 10:30 o'clock. The meeting will be held at the Salem Commercial club. With the unfortunate situation that flax growers are now facing, it is felt by growers that the industry is to be preserved for Oregon, it must be by individual effort or by co-operation, and not through the state.

Six Persons Burned In Submarine Blaze

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 10.—The battery compartments of the submarine L-6 caught fire while it was maneuvering in Los Angeles harbor late today and six of the crew were seriously burned. They were removed to the hospital at the submarine base for treatment. The fire brought the craft to the surface and submarine chaser No. 399 quickly went to the rescue. Sailors with gas helmets went into the blazing compartment and brought out the six injured men.

Religious Training Is Issue at Convention

BERKELEY, Cal., Nov. 10.—The importance of religious training in the university curriculum formed the basis of the discussions at the closing session of the inter-collegiate conference of Associated Women Students, held at the University of California today. Miss Norma Brown of the University of Nevada told the delegates that, Sunday picnics and the movies were driving religion out of the life of college women, and that the four years of college were the least religious period of a college woman's life. The delegates advocated, in conclusion, the maintenance of a spiritual life upon the college campus.

Transportation Law Is Undergoing Change

CHICAGO, Nov. 10.—Radical changes in the transportation law submitted in a report to members of the National Industrial Traffic league which closed its annual convention today, will be submitted to shippers for consideration and final action at a meeting of the league to be held here not later than February, it was announced.

San Francisco to Hear President Harding Talk

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 10.—San Francisco tomorrow, although nearly 3,000 miles away will hear the pulse beats of the nation when over the wires strung from coast to coast the voice of President Harding reaches this city. The transmission mechanism to carry the ceremonies here from Arlington cemetery was tonight declared in perfect order.

INDEPENDENCE NEWS AND PERSONALS

INDEPENDENCE, Or., Nov. 10.—(Special to The Statesman)—Rev. Tibbs Maxey of Portland, is conducting a three weeks revival service in the Christian church. Great interest is being manifested in the Bible contest which is being waged by the different Bible classes of the same denomination. Adah chapter of the Eastern Star met Tuesday evening in regular session. There was special work, after which the entertainment and refreshments were provided by the Monmouth members of the chapter. The attendance was quite large. J. E. Hubbert is having a garage built on his Second street property. Chet Hinkle and wife left the first of the week for a trip to southern California, making the trip in their car. It is their intention to make their home in California. Floyd Williams is home again after an absence of several months in India. Thomas Stapleton is here from Goldendale, Wash., and expects to remain for the winter at the home of his sister, Mrs. Catherine McDonald. Red raspberries in November is something out of the ordinary, but a second crop is now being harvested by E. Steptoe, who expects to have as a part of his Thanksgiving feast, a quantity of the luscious fruit. Mrs. Abe Becker and little son are passing the week in Portland.

FARRAR SUING FOR SEPARATION

Charges Not Made Known in Divorce Action Against Lon Telegen

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—The divorce action threatened last September by Geraldine Farrar, grand opera singer, against Lou Telegen, her actor husband, actually has been instituted, it was learned today through proceedings before Supreme Court Justice Guy. Counsel for Miss Farrar and her husband appeared before Justice Guy to argue Miss Farrar's claim that certain allegations in the nature of a counter claim for separation be stricken from Mr. Telegen's answer to her action. These allegations, referring to cruelty on the part of Miss Farrar, were ordered stricken from the document.

North Dakota Restrained From Delivering Bonds

BISMARCK, N. D., Nov. 10.—An order restraining further delivery of $6,100,000 state bonds by the bank of North Dakota to an eastern bonding company, pending a hearing on the merits of the case, was issued by Judge W. L. Nuesse, in district court here today. The order was issued on complaint of taxpayers, who allege that the bonds are being sold at a discount in violation of law. Judge Nuesse said he issued a writ pending a hearing but no time was set, except that it was stipulated the case should come up before the present industrial commission goes out of office, probably on November 23.

Cotton Compress Burns; Railway Shops Fired

SHAWNEE, Okla., Nov. 11.—The Choctaw Cotton compress early today was entirely enveloped in flames which were fast eating into the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific railroad shops here in one of the most spectacular fires in local history. The flames are supposed to have been started by an explosion in a Rock Island oil house. Firemen have not been able to check the flames which are now spreading rapidly into the residence district. Loss if life is feared, but it has not been possible for rescuers to reach the base of the fire.

ENGLISH ENVOY.

Vallejo, Cal., Nov. 10.—Work was resumed today on construction of the Battleship Montana which was suspended at the Mare Island navy yards two months ago on account of lack of funds.

Carrying of Arms is Deplored by Educator

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—A declaration that bearing arms is a certain cause of mutual ill will and an intolerable burden on future human achievements, was expressed in resolutions adopted tonight by alumni of more than 30 universities and colleges at a mass meeting. The resolutions will be placed before alumni associations of the country for action. The gathering was addressed by Dr. John Grier Hibben, President of Princeton university; Professor Franklin H. Giddings of Columbia University and Julia La Thrope and Ada Comstock of Smith college.

Corvallis Man Passes Aboard Oregon Express

MARYSVILLE, Cal., Nov. 10.—The body of W. W. Ashby of Corvallis, Ore., was taken from an Oregon express train here today and will be prepared for shipment to his home. The Oregon man was returning home from Oakland and died suddenly near Roseville this afternoon.

Train Service Resumed; Western Flyer Wrecked

OKLAHOMA CITY, Nov. 10.—Train service discontinued nearly 12 hours after Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe train No. 11 was wrecked ten miles south of Mulhall early today, was resumed tonight. Fourteen persons were injured, one perhaps fatally. One baggage car, one coach and one chair car rolled down an 18-foot embankment, landing on their sides. Three Pullman coaches also left the track. The accident occurred just after the train passed over Beaver creek trestle, according to A. W. Roche, engineer and was due to a broken rail.

Washington Visitors to Visit Woodrow Wilson

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—Plans for a non-partisan demonstration tomorrow at the residence of Woodrow Wilson were announced today by a committee of seven women. Democrats, Republicans and Independents desiring to honor the former president were invited to meet near Mr. Wilson's home immediately after the Arlington exercises. The demonstration was declared to be intended by its sponsors as a method of "congratulating Mr. Wilson, a wounded soldier, on his return to health." The committee in charge of the arrangements include Mrs. Samuel Gompers.

North Dakota Restrained From Delivering Bonds

BISMARCK, N. D., Nov. 10.—An order restraining further delivery of $6,100,000 state bonds by the bank of North Dakota to an eastern bonding company, pending a hearing on the merits of the case, was issued by Judge W. L. Nuesse, in district court here today. The order was issued on complaint of taxpayers, who allege that the bonds are being sold at a discount in violation of law. Judge Nuesse said he issued a writ pending a hearing but no time was set, except that it was stipulated the case should come up before the present industrial commission goes out of office, probably on November 23.

Cotton Compress Burns; Railway Shops Fired

SHAWNEE, Okla., Nov. 11.—The Choctaw Cotton compress early today was entirely enveloped in flames which were fast eating into the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific railroad shops here in one of the most spectacular fires in local history. The flames are supposed to have been started by an explosion in a Rock Island oil house. Firemen have not been able to check the flames which are now spreading rapidly into the residence district. Loss if life is feared, but it has not been possible for rescuers to reach the base of the fire.

ENGLISH ENVOY.

Vallejo, Cal., Nov. 10.—Work was resumed today on construction of the Battleship Montana which was suspended at the Mare Island navy yards two months ago on account of lack of funds.

Carrying of Arms is Deplored by Educator

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—A declaration that bearing arms is a certain cause of mutual ill will and an intolerable burden on future human achievements, was expressed in resolutions adopted tonight by alumni of more than 30 universities and colleges at a mass meeting. The resolutions will be placed before alumni associations of the country for action. The gathering was addressed by Dr. John Grier Hibben, President of Princeton university; Professor Franklin H. Giddings of Columbia University and Julia La Thrope and Ada Comstock of Smith college.

Corvallis Man Passes Aboard Oregon Express

MARYSVILLE, Cal., Nov. 10.—The body of W. W. Ashby of Corvallis, Ore., was taken from an Oregon express train here today and will be prepared for shipment to his home. The Oregon man was returning home from Oakland and died suddenly near Roseville this afternoon.

Train Service Resumed; Western Flyer Wrecked

OKLAHOMA CITY, Nov. 10.—Train service discontinued nearly 12 hours after Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe train No. 11 was wrecked ten miles south of Mulhall early today, was resumed tonight. Fourteen persons were injured, one perhaps fatally. One baggage car, one coach and one chair car rolled down an 18-foot embankment, landing on their

DIVA ARRIVES FOR OPERA SEASON.

Frieda Hempel, noted singer, photographed on board the Olympic when that vessel returned from England. She spent several months visiting her relatives in Germany.

ROYAL SENDOFF IS GIVEN BEARCATS

A student body rally at the Oregon Electric Depot is Well Received. A student body rally at the Oregon Electric depot was the send-off of the Bearcats to Walla Walla. Coach Bohler and Manager McKittick with 17 men left yesterday afternoon to meet the Whitman football team Friday afternoon.

Little hope is expressed by the coach or any of the players of defeating the Missionaries, the only hope being to keep the score to a small margin. The Walla Walla team is credited with having a water tight line and a backfield that is hard to beat. Their advantages placed on paper make it appear that Willamette is defeated.

With Bain, suffering from a wrenched knee and unable to suit up and with Barnes entirely out of the game for the rest of the season Coach Bohler announces the following line-up, providing that wet weather does not show up. Nicol and Richards, ends; Lawson and Rarey, tackles; Ramsey and Moodie, guards; Waite, center; Isham, quarter; Zeiler and Patton, halves; and Socolsky and Baggett, punter, Cramer, Caughlin, Carey and Michaelson will make the trip and act as subs.

COTTON DESTROYED

CLEVELAND, Miss., Nov. 10.—Between 3000 and 5000 bales of cotton were burned or badly damaged in a fire of unknown origin which destroyed a storage shed of the plant of the Bolivar Cotton Compress company today. The loss was estimated at approximately $500,000.

Loggers Enjoy Banquet; Program Wins Plaudits

SILVERTON, Or., Nov. 9.—(Special to The Statesman)—The Local Legion of Loggers and Lumbermen held their annual business meeting last night, after which the 4-L association gave their first entertainment. A program consisted of the following numbers: piano duet by Mrs. J. Farrell and Mrs. Clara Benson; recitation by Miss Mary Egan; piano solo, by Miss Lillian Schaefer; two readings, by Mrs. E. Kottek; piano solo, by Miss Genevieve Skeels. A light lunch was served after the program. The remainder of the evening was spent in dancing.

The bobbed-hair craze has almost knocked the hairpin industry over the ropes.

Over One and One-Half Million r.r. Employees

CHICAGO, Nov. 10.—The latest official employment figures on all American railroads, given out by the interstate commerce commission, show the total 1,586,143. This was the average number of employees in the service during the month of June, 1921. Railroad officials say that there has been an increase in employment since that date, possibly bringing the figure up to 1,800,000.

A rough classification of the railroad workers shows the following figures: Train service employees, 293,850; Shop men, 401,100; Maintenance of way employees, 368,900; Station service employees, 126,000; Clerical forces, 228,440; Miscellaneous, 162,853. Figures given out by the labor organizations have said that approximately 2,000,000 men would be affected in the rail strike.

Advertisement for 'The Statesman Publishing Company' featuring 'What's the Use' and '583 Either One 23'. The ad promotes the company's printing services and includes a large 'FIRST PRIZE' offer of $200.00 and twenty-seven other big prizes totaling $510.00 cash.

Advertisement for 'Ruskin' cigars, featuring the slogan 'The more you smoke them - The better you'll like them' and 'Write for our Premium Catalog No. 4'.

Detailed 'FIRST PRIZE' contest rules and prize list. The contest is for 'The Secret Codes' and 'The Clues'. Prizes include cash amounts ranging from $25.00 to $200.00. The contest is organized by The Statesman Publishing Co., Salem, Or.

Advertisement for 'The Great Movie Mystery' by The Statesman Publishing Co. The ad describes a contest where readers can win a grand prize by solving a mystery. It includes details about the prize, the deadline, and how to enter.