

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

Charles A. Park, administrator of the J. H. Albert estate, has reported to the court the sale of some property in Newport, amounting to $589. It was purchased by Peter Sonnevald. The court approved the sale.

Wendlinghouse Free Sewing Machine. You can't tell it from a writing desk when closed. Won't you call and ask to see it demonstrated. Salem Electric Co.—Adv.

District Clerks Must File Bonds. School district clerks must file bond, as provided by law. Clerks who have not filed bond, will not be mailed the semi-annual county apportionment, which was sent out yesterday by Mrs. M. L. Fulkerson, county school superintendent. There are four districts in the county that will not receive their apportionment until the school district clerks comply with the law.

Real Estate Moving. According to the number of deeds filed in the county recorder's office, real estate in Marion county is changing hands to some extent. Saturday 15 deeds were filed for record, and yesterday 12 were received for record.

Sues For $4500. The Business Men's Adjustment company has brought suit in the Marion county circuit court against John Wirth and wife. In the complaint it is alleged that the Soldier, Ida., on July 19, 1915, they gave a promissory note for $700, due on before three years, and that only $250 of the note has been paid. Suit is $450 and costs.

Experienced Waitresses Wanted. For steady work. The Gray Belle.—Adv.

Of Age, Entitled to Money. John McDonald has filed a petition with the county court that he be permitted to enter his final report as guardian of Charles Summer Reynolds. He relates that Reynolds is now of legal age. In the petition to the court, the report is given that $1,754.75 was received from the estate, and that expenses were $78.50 and that $25 more would be required for the final settlement.

Legal Blanks. Get them at The Statesman office. Catalog on application.—Adv.

Will Speak at Woodburn. Prof. J. T. Mathews, of Willamette university, professor of mathematics, will go to Woodburn Wednesday to attend a banquet given by the teachers and professional men of that city and to deliver an address.

New Postmaster at Turner. Turner will likely have a new postmaster within two or three months. At least, the civil service commission at Washington has announced that a civil service examination will be held December 10 for those who aspire to serve that town as postmaster. The examination will probably be held in Salem.

Is Now a Real Westerner. Prof. C. M. Panunzio, professor of social science of Willamette university, has spent the greater part of his life in the east and especially in the shadow of great educational institutions. But since coming west, he has absorbed the western spirit and is now riding a new bicycle.

DIED

GOODMAN—At a local hospital, November 14, J. N. Goodman, age 80 years. The body was forwarded Monday to Corvallis by the Rigdon mortuary, where funeral services and interment will take place.

MUR—At a local hospital, November 13, John James Muir, age 62 years, a former resident of Eugene. The body was forwarded to that city Monday by the Rigdon mortuary, for funeral services and interment.

HEDGES—In this city, Sunday, November 13, Alfred George Hedges, age 9 years. The body was forwarded to Portland by the Rigdon mortuary, where funeral services and interment will take place.

DANG SO—In this city, November 13, Dang So, age 75 years, a native of China. The body will be interred in the Chinese plot in the I. O. O. F. cemetery this afternoon, under the direction of the Rigdon mortuary.

BARD—Charles A. Bard, Jr., the five-day old son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Bard of 1232 North Liberty street, November 13. The funeral services will be held Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the Webb & Clough chapel, and will be conducted by the Rev. W. T. Milliken. Burial will be in City View cemetery.

O. A. C. Club to Meet. The Salem O. A. C. club will meet Thursday evening at the J. W. Chambers home on Court street. It is planned to have a rally to precede the Oregon O. A. C. game next Saturday.

A. J. Foster, Chiroprapist. Phone for appointment 957; 322 State.—Adv.

Rooms Sought for Delegates. The Young Women's Christian association are listing rooms for the delegates to the Sunday school convention which will convene here this morning. The survey for rooms is being made by the Girl Reserves, under Miss Eva Scott, girl's work secretary of the Y. W. C. A.

Writing University History. Robert Moulton Gatke, assistant historian of Willamette university, is writing a complete history of the university and hopes to have it completed for publication early next year. He has found much original matter in-

Enjoy Life With Perfect Eyes. We make it our business to put your eyes in their normal condition. If they need corrected vision—we'll tell you so; if they merely need rest from overstrain—we'll tell you so. At any rate, we'll correct your eyes and enable you to go through life smiling.

MORRIS OPTICAL CO. 204-211 Salem Bank of Commerce Building Oregon's Largest Optical Institution Phone 239 for appointment SALEM, OREGON

Steinbock Buys—Household Goods Junk Iron Rags Bottles Furniture Clothing Auto parts Etc., etc. Steinbock Junk Co. "The House of Half a Million and One Bargains" 402 North Commercial Phone 523

Students Total 526—Willamette university now has 526 students registered, and it is thought that with several prospects in sight, this may be increased 10 or more before the close of the semester. Already a number of inquiries have been received from those who expect to begin immediately after the holidays. It is thought the second semester may register as high as 560 or more.

Salmon 7 Cents—Fitts Market, Phone 211.—Adv.

Story Tellers To Meet. The story telling section of the Salem Arts League Wednesday evening at the city library at 8 o'clock p. m. Miss Lucile Crockett, children's librarian, and others will tell the stories, mostly on folk lore.

Suit Cases Safe. For those who are in the habit of shipping their suit cases by mail, the postoffice department is willing to do the right thing. Hereafter, instead of shipping the suitcase just as handed in, properly tagged, the department will see that the suit case is properly placed in a mail sack, all by itself.

Commercial Club Busy. The Commercial club rooms and auditorium are becoming general headquarters for the majority of city activities. Yesterday, seven meetings were held in the rooms. The first of the Monday noon luncheon, then a meeting of the directors of the Salem Woman's club, then directors of the Commercial club, a Cherrian entertainment committee, meeting of the Salem Woman's club chorus, and then two other committee meetings.

One License Yesterday. There was only one marriage license issued yesterday, and that was to Floyd Lancaster of Zillah, Wash., a rancher, and Gertrude Arpke of 135 South Twenty-third street, a student.

Sold Lot for $300. A lot at Nineteenth and Bellevue streets, in Capital park addition to the city of Salem, has been sold for $300 by J. E. Ashby, administrator of the estate of E. C. Ashby. The lot was purchased by M. W. Maynard October 27, and the sale approved by the county court.

Oregon Electric Does Good Business. The 7-15 train of the Oregon Electric will do a good passenger business this morning. This is due to the fact that the trial of John W. Todd is called for 9 o'clock today in the federal court in Portland. As the 7:14 train of the Oregon Electric does not reach Portland until about 8:30, it is understood the court has granted Salem witnesses a half hour's leeway, with the understanding that appearance in the court will be all right, following the arrival of the morning Oregon Electric train.

A Classified Ad—Will bring you a buyer.—Adv.

Carrying Records. U. C. Boyer, Marion county clerk, is one of the witnesses subpoenaed by the federal court to appear this morning in the trial of John W. Todd. Unlike other witnesses, Mr. Boyer will be obliged to carry public records with him. His summons is that he is to appear and testify and bring with him all the court records in the trial of the case of H. H. Vandervort vs John W. Todd.

Administrator Appointed. George May has been appointed administrator of the estate of William Heller who died December 5, 1915. His wife, the only heir, died November 4, 1920. The family lived near Mt. Angel, and the heirs are unknown.

O. A. C. Club to Meet. The Salem O. A. C. club will meet Thursday evening at the J. W. Chambers home on Court street. It is planned to have a rally to precede the Oregon O. A. C. game next Saturday.

A. J. Foster, Chiroprapist. Phone for appointment 957; 322 State.—Adv.

Rooms Sought for Delegates. The Young Women's Christian association are listing rooms for the delegates to the Sunday school convention which will convene here this morning. The survey for rooms is being made by the Girl Reserves, under Miss Eva Scott, girl's work secretary of the Y. W. C. A.

Writing University History. Robert Moulton Gatke, assistant historian of Willamette university, is writing a complete history of the university and hopes to have it completed for publication early next year. He has found much original matter in-

The World's Greatest Comedian CHAS. CHAPLIN In "THE IDLE CLASS" Also Katherine MacDonald In "CURTAIN" Today—Tomorrow LIBERTY

MAERION—Portland arrivals included—W. A. Woodward, E. Levensen, Ruth P. Adams, A. A. Soule, W. H. Kayl, S. E. Hodge, Sol Richardson, J. B. Kiskey, H. E. K. Whitney, J. H. Lyons, M. Jeffries, D. N. Hellman, D. H. Drawroad, J. J. McCarthy, R. M. Johns, W. G. Lloyd, W. M. Patterson, C. P. Ross, W. T. Murrin, G. M. Solf, A. C. Hall, E. R. Spencer, Miss Margaret Reid, Harold W. Grivan, H. V. Stohl, R. S. Munde, F. E. Clifton, Addison Bennet, T. C. Shanland, Others

MAERION—Portland arrivals included—W. A. Woodward, E. Levensen, Ruth P. Adams, A. A. Soule, W. H. Kayl, S. E. Hodge, Sol Richardson, J. B. Kiskey, H. E. K. Whitney, J. H. Lyons, M. Jeffries, D. N. Hellman, D. H. Drawroad, J. J. McCarthy, R. M. Johns, W. G. Lloyd, W. M. Patterson, C. P. Ross, W. T. Murrin, G. M. Solf, A. C. Hall, E. R. Spencer, Miss Margaret Reid, Harold W. Grivan, H. V. Stohl, R. S. Munde, F. E. Clifton, Addison Bennet, T. C. Shanland, Others

Registered were: H. W. Smith, Tacoma; F. Silverston, Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Tonsey, G. S. Foster, A. B. Gatschalk, A. R. Cooper, Herbert Beake, B. Lipman, San Francisco; F. A. Hausdorf, J. R. Harvard, Seattle; Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Tague, Chicago; C. C. Young, Pontiac; N. Tax, Shaw, Mo.

BLIGH—Portland arrivals were: Mr. and Mrs. E. Mathers, I. T. Otsin, Pa. Petri, Howard P. Swelland, F. W. Milne, B. W. Durant, F. E. Niester, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Crandel, N. R. Buggs, Georgia Parker, M. Reinhardt. Others: E. H. Wertox, Lapeer, Mich.; Ernest Kelly, R. M. Graham, Spokane; Larry Bikis, Brooks; J. H. Dougherty, Chicago; G. W. Cramer, Brownsville; B. Kewon, Seattle; Pantages troupe.

Catholic Bazaar—Wednesday and Thursday, November 16 and 17, afternoon and evenings, at K. of C. hall. Aprons, rag rugs, comforts, candy, fancy work, Christmas gift booth, etc. Chicken and noodle dinner Wednesday, 5:30 to 8 o'clock.—Adv.

Chinese Are Fined—Lem Lin and Junk Kee, two Chinese arrested in a raid made by local police Friday, were found guilty of a charge of opium smoking and each fined $15 by City Recorder Earl Race. The case was heard in recorder's court Saturday, but Judge Race took the matter under advisement until Monday.

Wonderful—Westinghouse free sewing machine. You can't tell it from a writing desk when closed. Won't you call and ask to see it demonstrated. Salem Electric Co.—Adv.

Son Is Named Gordon. A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Alva Potter of South Twentieth street, Tuesday, November 8. The young man has been named Gordon Frederick.

Rights Unclaimed, $25—R. L. Trechog of Woodburn was fined $25 by Justice of the Peace G. A. Unruh yesterday, after pleading guilty of failure to dim the headlights of his car, as reported.

Planning for Conference. At a meeting held Sunday in the Y. M. C. A., plans were discussed by which it is hoped to secure a large attendance of the older Y. M. C. A. boys at the conference of older boys to be held in Corvallis November 25-27. A special effort will be made to secure a large attendance from Marion county.

To Organize Wednesday. At the meeting of flax and hemp growers to be held at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning at the Commercial club, the Willamette Valley Flax and Hemp Growers Co-operative association will be formed. It is understood that a number of flax growers, convinced that the industry is in danger and fearing that no acreage will be planted next spring, are planning for this organization of all interested in flax.

Committee Getting Ready. A meeting of the committee of Cherrians, appointed to care for the annual initiations, was held yesterday when plans were discussed in general for the big event, to be held the first week in January. As there are to be several formal Cherrian dances this season it was decided at the last meeting of Cherrians to include Cherrians only in the annual initiation ceremonies.

This Is Kiwanis Day. At the regular Tuesday noon luncheon to be held today at the Marion hotel, the feature of the meeting will be entertaining by Ben Scovell, the famous war entertainer, who went with the Canadians overseas. He is a nephew of Sir Henry Irving and has the general Irving cast of features. The annual election of the Kiwanis club will be held on the evening of Tuesday, May 20. Today the noon luncheon at the Marion will be held at the usual hour.

Daughter Born. A daughter was born yesterday to Mr. and Mrs. Lester A. McCracken of 2619 Maple avenue, Salem. She has been named Marie Ethelyn.

PERSONALS N. S. Savage, business secretary of Willamette university, was in Corvallis yesterday. Elmer Johnson, prominent farmer of Gervais, was a business visitor in the city yesterday. Lane Goodell, state commander of the American legion and his law partner, Henry Aiken, were in the city yesterday. They were on their way to Eugene to attend to American legion matters. A. G. Steelhammer and Ole Loe were Silverton visitors from Silvertown, yesterday. While they conferred with the county court on road matters. Lee Wells, of Jefferson, was a Salem visitor, Monday. Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Humphreys of Victor Point were Salem visitors, Monday. Peter Hennison, of Livesley, transacted business in this city Monday. O. B. Darling, of road district No. 19 transacted business in Roadmaster W. J. Culver's office Monday.

DRIVE WILL OPEN FOR SILVERTON HOSPITAL SILVERTON, Or., Nov. 14.—(Special to The Statesman)—Saturday, Nov. 15, has been chosen as tax day for the benefit of the Silverton hospital. The money raised will be used for hospital equipment. Rev. George Henrick has charge of the drive and will be assisted by 15 members of the Women's Social Science club. The 15 women are: Mrs. Charles Reynolds, Mrs. A. Roberts, Mrs. J. Kercher, Mrs. H. Bryden, Mrs. H. Latham, Mrs. E. Kleinsorge, Mrs. I. Stewart, Mrs. F. Syring, Mrs. E. H. Banks, Mrs. H. R. Irish, Mrs. J. A. Campbell, Mrs. E. Booth, Mrs. H. J. Lead, Mrs. S. E. Richardson and Mrs. H. M. Simms.

TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY MUST SELL AT ONCE—WILL sacrifice my 6-room modern cottage at 1541 State street. Large lot, fruit, English walnuts and garage. Price $2750. terms. Phone 1014.

FATHER QUINN TALKS TONIGHT. Nationally Known Lecturer Will Give Illustrated Talk on Ireland. Rev. William L. Quinn, who has recently returned from a trip through Ireland, will give an illustrated lecture at the Knights of Columbus hall tonight. The program for Wednesday noon, for a short talk to Rotarians.

WISDOM OF THE ORIENT. Some Chinese proverbs collected by Roy Chapman Andrews and handed on by him to a recent meeting of the Dutch Treat club in New York City: If you bow at all, bow low. A man thinks he knows—but a woman knows better. Free sitters at the play always grumble most. Only imbeciles want credit for the achievements of their ancestors. The faults which he man condemns out of office he commits when in. No image maker worships the gods. He knows what they are made of. One more good man on earth is better than an extra angel in heaven. It is not the wine which makes a man drunk—it is the man himself. If you suspect a man, don't employ him—if you employ him, don't suspect him.—The Independent.

REALTY EXCHANGES Reported by Union Abstract Company

Robert and Pauline Wenger to William Wenger, 74.74 acres in J. H. Ford donation land claim, 7-2-W., $10.

Robert and Pauline Wenger to William Wenger, 36 acres H. M. McAllister donation land claim, 7-2-W., $10.

H. N. Watts to Peter A. and Muriel Bernard, lot in St. Paul, $1500.

Oscar B. Gingrich Motor and Tire company to Oscar B. Gingrich, lots 11 and 12, block 5, Oak Lodge addition to Salem, $10.

G. M. Campbell et ux to Olive M. Beardsley, lot 1, block 7, N. Salem, $2500.

Isabelle M. Anderson to Olive M. Beardsley, 12 acres William B. Stephens donation land claim, 6-2-W., $12.

Parley Jones to Beatrice E. Jones, part lots 6, 7, 8, block 22, Nob Hill annex, $1.

Marie and Albert Jontentz to Frank M. Ford, lot 6, block 20, Nob Hill addition to Salem, $10.

C. C. Smurker to W. E. Hempstead, land near Aurora, $10.

Josie M. Moe to Samuel Baller, 20 acres Henry White donation land claim, 7-1-E., $10.

Samuel and Dorris Baller to S. I. and Josie M. Moe, 20 acres Henry White donation land claim, 7-1-E., $1.

B. F. Simpson to Julius and Kathryn DLC 8-1-W., $10.

W. A. and Alice Rutherford to G. L. Warren, 10 acres, Alfred Stanton DLC 7-2-W., $10.

Roy E. and Lula Bryant to Guy O. Smith, 60 acres, sec. 32-3-3-W., $1.

Louis J. and Maude Wolford to A. M. and Eliz. Dodson, land in J. M. Brown DLC 6-1-W., $10.

Charles H. and Mary C. Kinder to Frank and Anna Anderson, lots 12 and 13 Pendleton acres, $10.

Frank A. and Cora A. Sandberg to Fred E. and Rosina Hartman, 60 acres D. Cochran donation land claim, 4-1-W., $10.

Charles W. Niemeyer to Blanch Niemeyer, 43.9 feet by 170 feet on State street, Salem, $10.

George E. Brey to Marion county, lots 5 and 6, block 8, Burlington addition to Salem, $500.

C. J. Green to Oscar A. and Alice E. Forgard, east half of lots 38 and 39, Hollywood, $10.

T. E. Hutton to Julia and Tellman Hutton, lot 4, block 5, Peter W. Geiser addition to Silverton, $1.

ROTARIANS WILL HEAR MISS REID. Near East Relief Worker is Scheduled for Presentation Wednesday Noon. For the Wednesday noon luncheon at the Marion hotel, an especially interesting program has been arranged, according to R. O. Snelling, secretary.

Miss Margaret Reid, school teacher of Portland, who has been given a leave of absence of three months, will speak to the Rotarians. She is organizing schools and colleges for the Near East relief.

Miss Reid has recently returned from a visit to Turkey and Armenia and her talk Wednesday will be devoted to telling Rotarians of conditions as she actually saw them in Armenia last winter.

Miss Reid was given time from her school duties for this work at the request of Governor Olect, honorary chairman of the Near East relief.

It is also announced that James A. Wilder of Honolulu, chief Scout of the Boy Scouts of America will speak to the Rotarians Wednesday noon. Mr. Wilder is a wealthy resident of Honolulu and since becoming interested in the Boy Scout movement, is devoting the greater part of his time to aiding the Boy Scouts. He will be in Astoria Tuesday, coming direct to Salem.

Dr. W. B. Morse is also on the program for Wednesday noon, for a short talk to Rotarians.

WISDOM OF THE ORIENT. Some Chinese proverbs collected by Roy Chapman Andrews and handed on by him to a recent meeting of the Dutch Treat club in New York City: If you bow at all, bow low. A man thinks he knows—but a woman knows better. Free sitters at the play always grumble most. Only imbeciles want credit for the achievements of their ancestors. The faults which he man condemns out of office he commits when in. No image maker worships the gods. He knows what they are made of. One more good man on earth is better than an extra angel in heaven. It is not the wine which makes a man drunk—it is the man himself. If you suspect a man, don't employ him—if you employ him, don't suspect him.—The Independent.

WISDOM OF THE ORIENT. Some Chinese proverbs collected by Roy Chapman Andrews and handed on by him to a recent meeting of the Dutch Treat club in New York City: If you bow at all, bow low. A man thinks he knows—but a woman knows better. Free sitters at the play always grumble most. Only imbeciles want credit for the achievements of their ancestors. The faults which he man condemns out of office he commits when in. No image maker worships the gods. He knows what they are made of. One more good man on earth is better than an extra angel in heaven. It is not the wine which makes a man drunk—it is the man himself. If you suspect a man, don't employ him—if you employ him, don't suspect him.—The Independent.

WISDOM OF THE ORIENT. Some Chinese proverbs collected by Roy Chapman Andrews and handed on by him to a recent meeting of the Dutch Treat club in New York City: If you bow at all, bow low. A man thinks he knows—but a woman knows better. Free sitters at the play always grumble most. Only imbeciles want credit for the achievements of their ancestors. The faults which he man condemns out of office he commits when in. No image maker worships the gods. He knows what they are made of. One more good man on earth is better than an extra angel in heaven. It is not the wine which makes a man drunk—it is the man himself. If you suspect a man, don't employ him—if you employ him, don't suspect him.—The Independent.

WISDOM OF THE ORIENT. Some Chinese proverbs collected by Roy Chapman Andrews and handed on by him to a recent meeting of the Dutch Treat club in New York City: If you bow at all, bow low. A man thinks he knows—but a woman knows better. Free sitters at the play always grumble most. Only imbeciles want credit for the achievements of their ancestors. The faults which he man condemns out of office he commits when in. No image maker worships the gods. He knows what they are made of. One more good man on earth is better than an extra angel in heaven. It is not the wine which makes a man drunk—it is the man himself. If you suspect a man, don't employ him—if you employ him, don't suspect him.—The Independent.

WISDOM OF THE ORIENT. Some Chinese proverbs collected by Roy Chapman Andrews and handed on by him to a recent meeting of the Dutch Treat club in New York City: If you bow at all, bow low. A man thinks he knows—but a woman knows better. Free sitters at the play always grumble most. Only imbeciles want credit for the achievements of their ancestors. The faults which he man condemns out of office he commits when in. No image maker worships the gods. He knows what they are made of. One more good man on earth is better than an extra angel in heaven. It is not the wine which makes a man drunk—it is the man himself. If you suspect a man, don't employ him—if you employ him, don't suspect him.—The Independent.

WISDOM OF THE ORIENT. Some Chinese proverbs collected by Roy Chapman Andrews and handed on by him to a recent meeting of the Dutch Treat club in New York City: If you bow at all, bow low. A man thinks he knows—but a woman knows better. Free sitters at the play always grumble most. Only imbeciles want credit for the achievements of their ancestors. The faults which he man condemns out of office he commits when in. No image maker worships the gods. He knows what they are made of. One more good man on earth is better than an extra angel in heaven. It is not the wine which makes a man drunk—it is the man himself. If you suspect a man, don't employ him—if you employ him, don't suspect him.—The Independent.

WISDOM OF THE ORIENT. Some Chinese proverbs collected by Roy Chapman Andrews and handed on by him to a recent meeting of the Dutch Treat club in New York City: If you bow at all, bow low. A man thinks he knows—but a woman knows better. Free sitters at the play always grumble most. Only imbeciles want credit for the achievements of their ancestors. The faults which he man condemns out of office he commits when in. No image maker worships the gods. He knows what they are made of. One more good man on earth is better than an extra angel in heaven. It is not the wine which makes a man drunk—it is the man himself. If you suspect a man, don't employ him—if you employ him, don't suspect him.—The Independent.

WISDOM OF THE ORIENT. Some Chinese proverbs collected by Roy Chapman Andrews and handed on by him to a recent meeting of the Dutch Treat club in New York City: If you bow at all, bow low. A man thinks he knows—but a woman knows better. Free sitters at the play always grumble most. Only imbeciles want credit for the achievements of their ancestors. The faults which he man condemns out of office he commits when in. No image maker worships the gods. He knows what they are made of. One more good man on earth is better than an extra angel in heaven. It is not the wine which makes a man drunk—it is the man himself. If you suspect a man, don't employ him—if you employ him, don't suspect him.—The Independent.

WISDOM OF THE ORIENT. Some Chinese proverbs collected by Roy Chapman Andrews and handed on by him to a recent meeting of the Dutch Treat club in New York City: If you bow at all, bow low. A man thinks he knows—but a woman knows better. Free sitters at the play always grumble most. Only imbeciles want credit for the achievements of their ancestors. The faults which he man condemns out of office he commits when in. No image maker worships the gods. He knows what they are made of. One more good man on earth is better than an extra angel in heaven. It is not the wine which makes a man drunk—it is the man himself. If you suspect a man, don't employ him—if you employ him, don't suspect him.—The Independent.

WISDOM OF THE ORIENT. Some Chinese proverbs collected by Roy Chapman Andrews and handed on by him to a recent meeting of the Dutch Treat club in New York City: If you bow at all, bow low. A man thinks he knows—but a woman knows better. Free sitters at the play always grumble most. Only imbeciles want credit for the achievements of their ancestors. The faults which he man condemns out of office he commits when in. No image maker worships the gods. He knows what they are made of. One more good man on earth is better than an extra angel in heaven. It is not the wine which makes a man drunk—it is the man himself. If you suspect a man, don't employ him—if you employ him, don't suspect him.—The Independent.

WISDOM OF THE ORIENT. Some Chinese proverbs collected by Roy Chapman Andrews and handed on by him to a recent meeting of the Dutch Treat club in New York City: If you bow at all, bow low. A man thinks he knows—but a woman knows better. Free sitters at the play always grumble most. Only imbeciles want credit for the achievements of their ancestors. The faults which he man condemns out of office he commits when in. No image maker worships the gods. He knows what they are made of. One more good man on earth is better than an extra angel in heaven. It is not the wine which makes a man drunk—it is the man himself. If you suspect a man, don't employ him—if you employ him, don't suspect him.—The Independent.

WISDOM OF THE ORIENT. Some Chinese proverbs collected by Roy Chapman Andrews and handed on by him to a recent meeting of the Dutch Treat club in New York City: If you bow at all, bow low. A man thinks he knows—but a woman knows better. Free sitters at the play always grumble most. Only imbeciles want credit for the achievements of their ancestors. The faults which he man condemns out of office he commits when in. No image maker worships the gods. He knows what they are made of. One more good man on earth is better than an extra angel in heaven. It is not the wine which makes a man drunk—it is the man himself. If you suspect a man, don't employ him—if you employ him, don't suspect him.—The Independent.

WISDOM OF THE ORIENT. Some Chinese proverbs collected by Roy Chapman Andrews and handed on by him to a recent meeting of the Dutch Treat club in New York City: If you bow at all, bow low. A man thinks he knows—but a woman knows better. Free sitters at the play always grumble most. Only imbeciles want credit for the achievements of their ancestors. The faults which he man condemns out of office he commits when in. No image maker worships the gods. He knows what they are made of. One more good man on earth is better than an extra angel in heaven. It is not the wine which makes a man drunk—it is the man himself. If you suspect a man, don't employ him—if you employ him, don't suspect him.—The Independent.

WISDOM OF THE ORIENT. Some Chinese proverbs collected by Roy Chapman Andrews and handed on by him to a recent meeting of the Dutch Treat club in New York City: If you bow at all, bow low. A man thinks he knows—but a woman knows better. Free sitters at the play always grumble most. Only imbeciles want credit for the achievements of their ancestors. The faults which he man condemns out of office he commits when in. No image maker worships the gods. He knows what they are made of. One more good man on earth is better than an extra angel in heaven. It is not the wine which makes a man drunk—it is the man himself. If you suspect a man, don't employ him—if you employ him, don't suspect him.—The Independent.

WISDOM OF THE ORIENT. Some Chinese proverbs collected by Roy Chapman Andrews and handed on by him to a recent meeting of the Dutch Treat club in New York City: If you bow at all, bow low. A man thinks he knows—but a woman knows better. Free sitters at the play always grumble most. Only imbeciles want credit for the achievements of their ancestors. The faults which he man condemns out of office he commits when in. No image maker worships the gods. He knows what they are made of. One more good man on earth is better than an extra angel in heaven. It is not the wine which makes a man drunk—it is the man himself. If you suspect a man, don't employ him—if you employ him, don't suspect him.—The Independent.

WISDOM OF THE ORIENT. Some Chinese proverbs collected by Roy Chapman Andrews and handed on by him to a recent meeting of the Dutch Treat club in New York City: If you bow at all, bow low. A man thinks he knows—but a woman knows better. Free sitters at the play always grumble most. Only imbeciles want credit for the achievements of their ancestors. The faults which he man condemns out of office he commits when in. No image maker worships the gods. He knows what they are made of. One more good man on earth is better than an extra angel in heaven. It is not the wine which makes a man drunk—it is the man himself. If you suspect a man, don't employ him—if you employ him, don't suspect him.—The Independent.

WISDOM OF THE ORIENT. Some Chinese proverbs collected by Roy Chapman Andrews and handed on by him to a recent meeting of the Dutch Treat club in New York City: If you bow at all, bow low. A man thinks he knows—but a woman knows better. Free sitters at the play always grumble most. Only imbeciles want credit for the achievements of their ancestors. The faults which he man condemns out of office he commits when in. No image maker worships the gods. He knows what they are made of. One more good man on earth is better than an extra angel in heaven. It is not the wine which makes a man drunk—it is the man himself. If you suspect a man, don't employ him—if you employ him, don't suspect him.—The Independent.

Total of 1046 Persons of School Age Reported. SILVERTON, Or., Nov. 14.—(Special to The Statesman)—A. A. Ulvin, who has just completed the taking of the school census, reports a total of 1046 boys and girls in district No. 4 of the ages between 4 and 20 years. Of these 537 are girls and the other 509 are boys.

WISDOM OF THE ORIENT. Some Chinese proverbs collected by Roy Chapman Andrews and handed on by him to a recent meeting of the Dutch Treat club in New York City: If you bow at all, bow low. A man thinks he knows—but a woman knows better. Free sitters at the play always grumble most. Only imbeciles want credit for the achievements of their ancestors. The faults which he man condemns out of office he commits when in. No image maker worships the gods. He knows what they are made of. One more good man on earth is better than an extra angel in heaven. It is not the wine which makes a man drunk—it is the man himself. If you suspect a man, don't employ him—if you employ him, don't suspect him.—The Independent.

WISDOM OF THE ORIENT. Some Chinese proverbs collected by Roy Chapman Andrews and handed on by him to a recent meeting of the Dutch Treat club in New York City: If you bow at all, bow low. A man thinks he knows—but a woman knows better. Free sitters at the play always grumble most. Only imbeciles want credit for the achievements of their ancestors. The faults which he man condemns out of office he commits when in. No image maker worships the gods. He knows what they are made of. One more good man on earth is better than an extra angel in heaven. It is not the wine which makes a man drunk—it is the man himself. If you suspect a man, don't employ him—if you employ him, don't suspect him.—The Independent.

WISDOM OF THE ORIENT. Some Chinese proverbs collected by Roy Chapman Andrews and handed on by him to a recent meeting of the Dutch Treat club in New York City: If you bow at all, bow low. A man thinks he knows—but a woman knows better. Free sitters at the play always grumble most. Only imbeciles want credit for the achievements of their ancestors. The faults which he man condemns out of office he commits when in. No image maker worships the gods. He knows what they are made of. One more good man on earth is better than an extra angel in heaven. It is not the wine which makes