Very Little Protection—
During the fire at the penitentiary when part of the contents of the flax mill burned Wednesday evening, the business district of the city was left with but little fire protection. All that was left in the firehouse to protect the city was the combination chemical main fire fighting apparatus. For more than two hours fighting the penitentiary fire. There was left for the business district only the force of water to be had from a hydrant, and when two or more are used at the same time, the force is hardly sufficient to fight a real fire. Every month the main pumper and fire fighting apparatus is moved away from the main business district, the district really has but little fire protection, Chief Hutton says. Wednesday evening the business section was unprotected for two hours.

Tire Prices Are Reduced—
Vick Bros. have some real bargains in guaranteed tires.—Adv.

What High School Boys Debate—
When the students of high schools in Oregon debate, they go after many of the same subjects that are troubling congress in the north Willamette district, which includes the counties of Marion, Linn and Clackamas, the students will debate "Shall we submit plan for the control and management of railroads to be enacted into law?" When the winning team in the several high school districts meet for the state championship, the question to be discussed is, "Resolved, That the graduated income tax shall be made a feature of the state tax system."

Hospital Building Going Up—
The third floor walls of the Salem hospital are now going up and with the continuance of favorable weather, the third floor will be laid next week. Those who have pledged amounts for the hospital are urged to get in their checks as it requires money to build. It has also been suggested that it would be greatly appreciated if those who have pledged for a January 1 remittance, would send in their checks at an early date.

Likes Present Regime—
Frank W. Durbin, in his address yesterday to the Marion County Realtors association, said that he did not want its members to think he was longing for the old days, just because he favored the hop industry. "I wouldn't vote for saloons under any circumstances," declared Mr. Durbin. "They were a menace to society."
