Ain't Nature Careless

ity that a determined diplomatic struggle will result. The clear delineation of the American position on this subject served to turn attention again to naval armaments today while the Far Eastern negotiations were at a standstill to permit the powers to work out details of their policy.

Ralph Mason, at 121 pounds, and Bill Severs, 135, went three fast rounds to a draw. Severs is the stronger man, who starts 'em from the ground, and it would take a deep sea diver or an oil rig to reach him in his best crouch. Mason is long and rangy, a good man to keep a long way from the heavy Severs to a draw, though there is a suspicion that Severs had at least one extra arm hid somewhere in his clothes, for the defense that saved him from a hundred cutting punches.

Charles Elliott and John Fraser went three rounds with a decision for Fraser. The two boys are well matched, Elliott apparently forgot that he had a right hand, for he never used it save as a muff to be beaten against his own face.

Another smoker is to be given in about a month, when Brady and Mulkey are to be matched for a 10-round go.

CHINESE WILL GET VIEW OF JAPANESE

The airplane carrier is the type of ship referred to by Admiral Kato as the one on which Japan might like to approximate its tonnage to that of the United States and Great Britain. It was learned from authoritative sources today.

With hundreds of islands to protect, Japan apparently wants to be able to transport airplanes in large number, believing that any future war is likely to be largely fought in the air. This is said to be the basis of her desire to have as many airplane carrier units as the other great naval powers.

Brady is a seasoned boxer. He claimed the welterweight championship of the Philippine Islands when he was a 13th infantryman there during the early days of the war. He is fast as chain lightning on his feet, and packs a genuine kick in either hand. But in Mulkey he met a brawler who certainly had him guessing. Mulkey looked over-fat, but he was handling them out to Brady like a hot-dog vender on circus day, taking some in return, but with Mulkey apparently well in the lead over his better seasoned opponent.
