HONORING Miss Eva L. Scott, former residents of the Y. W. C. A. joined with those now living there, Sunday evening for an informal supper party "round the kitchen table" as is the time-honored custom among those making their home at the association rooms. The party came as a surprise to Miss Scott, who has just tendered her resignation as girls' work secretary of the Y. W. C. A. after more than a year's service. She will be married within the next two months to LeRoy N. Meyers of the state highway department.

A homecoming party—back to do honor to one who was leaving was the spirit of the occasion. The group gathered around the long kitchen table set informally and without decoration except goodies as of old.

Because Sunday night supper is a tradition among the residents Miss Scott was presented with a gift "to use on her Sunday night supper table." A story of the future, when the residents "would gather only in memory 'round the kitchen table at the Y for Sunday night supper" was read, also a clever last word and testament of the guest of honor in which she gave to different ones of her former associates in the Y. W. her traditional accomplishments, failings and possessions, "reserving for herself alone the memories of the Y."

Miss Scott, as girls' work secretary, has had charge of the girl reserve corps in Salem, Salem Heights and Woodburn. She also assisted in the organization of the Tri L club, an organization of business girls affiliated with the Y. W. C. A. Her resignation will take effect December 1.

Miss Scott is a daughter of J. E. Scott of Salem and attended the Salem high school of which she is a graduate.

Those former residents of the association taking part in the party honoring Miss Scott were Miss Marion Zinner, Miss Mizpah Palmerton, Miss Dolores Barker, Miss Gladys Sargent, Miss Doris Welch, Miss Helen Berg, Miss Esther Naterlund, Miss Adelaide Lake, Miss Dorothy Satchell and Miss Doris Siler. Present residents of the Y who were present were Miss Irene Boje, Miss Elsie Beckner, Miss Eva L. Walker, Mrs. Etta Bradford, Mrs. Sadie Keyt, Miss Marguerite Gleeson, Miss Hazel Williams, Miss Leona Hook.

Mrs. A. N. Bush was hostess for a delightful luncheon party last Thursday for the Drama class. The class usually meets in the library every other Monday and
