

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

Referred to Board—
The supreme court yesterday issued an order referring to the board of examiners of the State Bar association the application of Leo Roy E. Keeley, Portland attorney, for admission to the practice of law in Oregon. The board of examiners is asked to submit a recommendation.

The Spa—
Will serve Thanksgiving dinner from 1 p. m. till 8 p. m.—Adv.

Overcoat Stolen—
R. N. Mann, of 444 South Commercial street, reported to the police last night that his overcoat had been stolen from a local restaurant while he was enjoying his dinner. The coat is a gray garment with a black belt.

The Forward Movement Program is on at the First Christian church. Hear LeGrand and Howe tonight, 7:30.—Adv.

One Marriage License—
Just one marriage license was issued yesterday and they will be married Thanksgiving day. It was to Leonard C. Mahony of Gervais, a farmer, and Shirley Crookham of Woodburn.

The Spa—
Will serve Thanksgiving dinner from 1 p. m. till 8 p. m.—Adv.

Appreciated the Courtesy—
Fred E. Mangis is in receipt of a letter from the Veterans' life and drum corps that appeared in Salem on Armistice day, thanking members of Capital post No. 9, American legion, for courtesies extended. W. H. Brooks and J. S. Vaughn of the corps played at the funeral of Lincoln, while T. M. Kellogg in the regiment that captured Jeff Davis.

Mr. Howe will Use—
A different musical instrument each evening at the First Christian church. LeGrand and Howe are worth hearing.—Adv.

Was Worse in 1861—
Gen. W. H. Byers, who can remember pretty well back into the early days of Salem, tells his friends that compared with 1861, the present flood is a small affair. During the 1861 overflow, he says, people traveled between Liberty and Commercial streets on a raft. In those days the court house grounds were surrounded with a picket fence and deep muddy roads.

The Gray Belle—
Will serve roast turkey dinner all day Thanksgiving; $1 per plate.—Adv.

Barometer Rising—
For the first time since last Friday noon the barometer was rising last night and indicated clear weather for today. The reading last night was 29.9, the highest it has been since Friday noon when it was 30.

Wild Animals Loose—
In "The Girl From God's Country" at the Liberty starting on Thanksgiving.—Adv.

Service Impaired—
It is probable that the Oregon Electric will not operate south of Talbot for several days. This is due to the fact that a small bridge is out not far from Talbot and to the washing away of several hundred feet of track. Workmen are now on the job repairing the track.

Northwest Story—
"The Girl From God's Country" at the Liberty starting on Thanksgiving.—Adv.

Band May Organize at Turner—
Musicians who can play horns and other instruments are talking of organizing a Turner band. Several of the Turner musicians have recently been playing with the Liberty band. As soon as the Turner band is fully organized, it will cooperate occasionally with the Liberty players.

Thanksgiving Dinner—
Marion Hotel, Thursday, Nov. 24, 5 to 8 p. m.; $1.50 plate. Come and bring your family.—Adv.

DEED
FLUBACHER—At the family home near Sydney, Oregon, November 22, 1921, Annie Flubacher, at the age of 42 years. She is survived by a brother, Carl Flubacher, of Sydney, and three sisters, Lena Flubacher, of Sydney; Frieda Flubacher, of Estacada and Mrs. Bertha Flubacher, of Canada. The funeral will be held from the Flubacher home, Wednesday at 1 p. m. Rev. F. W. Lanner, of Salem Evangelical church, officiating. Interment will be at the Sydney cemetery. Services and burial will be under direction of the Terwilliger Funeral home.

WARMOTH—At a local hospital Tuesday, November 22, 1921, Mrs. E. W. Warmoth, at the age of 26 years. Body at Webb & Clough establishment. Funeral announcements later.

Webb & Clough
Leading Funeral Directors
Expert Embalmers

RIGDON & SON
Leading Morticians

Stop Coughing
Schaefer's Throat and Lung Balsam, selling for 25c, 50c and $1.00. Produces quick relief for the worst cough. Pleasing to take; beneficial to the system and a sure cure. Get a small bottle today.

Schaefer's Drug Store
Sole Agent
Garden Court Preparations
135 N. Com'l. Phone 197

Game Boards
A special showing of carrom and crokinole game boards at a very special price. Nothing can make a more acceptable gift. See our showing now that the best he not taken before you have your choice. Priced:

$6 to $10
Commercial Book Store
163 N. Com'l. Phone 64

No Luncheon Tomorrow—
As tomorrow is Thanksgiving day and everyone is expected to eat at home or with their neighbors, the Marion County Realtors association has postponed for one week its Thursday noon luncheon at the Marion hotel.

Dr. R. L. Edwards—
Physician and surgeon, 406 U. S. Bank building. Special attention given diseases of children.—Adv.

There Are Strings to the $5000—
For those who are dreaming of capturing a mail robber and securing the $5000 award of the post-office department, a careful reading of the placard in the lobby of the Salem postoffice will show that the big award is not to be handed over until there is a conviction. The notice tells all about offering the $5000 and several other things, and then the final wording is, "upon conviction."

Home-made Mince Pie—
For Thanksgiving. Mistland Bakery. Phone 544.—Adv.

Home-made Mince Pie—
For Thanksgiving. Mistland Bakery. Phone 544.—Adv.

Suit for Appraising Property—
J. S. Gilkey and F. L. Bubb, doing business under the name of the Standard Appraisal company, have brought suit against the Salem Laundry company for $150. The plaintiffs allege that at the request of the Salem Laundry company they appraised the property of the laundry last February and that the services were worth $150, and that the sum has not been paid.

Home-made Mince Pie—
For Thanksgiving. Mistland Bakery. Phone 544.—Adv.

Coming to the United States—
Russell M. Brooks, vice consul at Newberg-on-the-Tyne, England, has been granted a short leave of absence. He visited with his wife at Bordeaux, France, her former home, and left for this country on November 20. On account of his limited leave of absence he will not be able to visit Salem, and will have only a few days to transact business in Washington.

Home-made Mince Pie—
For Thanksgiving. Mistland Bakery. Phone 544.—Adv.

Marion Hotel Services—
Special Thanksgiving dinner tomorrow, 4 to 8 p. m.; $1.50 plate. Make your reservations now.—Adv.

Unlabeled Service Announced—
A union Thanksgiving service will be held in Jason Lee Methodist church Thursday morning. The Free Methodist and Highland Friends church will join in the service. Rev. I. G. Lee will speak. All residents of North Salem are welcome.

The Spa—
Will serve Thanksgiving dinner from 1 p. m. till 8 p. m.—Adv.

Parked Car Struck—
S. McElnea, of the Court apartments, reported to the police that his car which had been left standing in front of the apartments had been struck by a passing automobile late yesterday afternoon. The car had not stopped but a witness turned in the number as being 21237, Oregon license, this machine being recorded in the name of the state highway commission. A front axle of the McElnea car was bent and the car was thrown onto the parking.

Turkey Dinner—
At the Gray Belle all day Thanksgiving; $1 per plate.—Adv.

Drivers Blame Each Other—
George H. Graves of 369 North Liberty street, reported that while driving west on Center street he was struck by Henry Gortmaker, 257 North Church street who was going south on Commercial street. Both drivers reported the mishap and each placed the blame upon the other.

Elks Attention—
Don't forget the big dance Wednesday evening at the Elks temple, beginning at 9 o'clock. Committee.—Adv.

Will Soon Get Mail—
Towns such as Turner, Jefferson, Marion and Mill City and a few others that have been shut off from mail delivery on account of the crippled condition of the railroads, will get mail in a day or two. Postmaster Huestein has taken up with the department the matter of delivering and receiving mails from these towns by truck service.

Special Sale Price—
30x3 1/2 Rugged Federal Tires at Vick Bros. New stock.—Adv.

Will Receive Approval—
Eighty of the 123 school districts in Marion county will receive this week diplomas from the office of the county superintendent entitled, "Public School Award of Honor." These diplomas are sent to each district having an attendance of 95 per cent or more during the school month closing November 4.

Legal Blanks—
Get them at The Statesman office. Catalog on application.—Adv.

Divorce Granted—
The circuit court has granted a divorce to Estella Lundeen, in her suit against Harry Lundeen. She was given the custody of the two children, and $25 a month for their support. The father is to be permitted to visit the children upon giving notice of his intention.

Run Through to Mill City—
The stage lines managed to keep up service yesterday to Mill City by working transfers. The first ride was to a washout close to Mehana where passengers were transferred. Then to another transfer just this side of Mill City. The Silverton stage yesterday was taking the old road to Silverton, as the Pudding river was over the bridge.

Wick Bros.—
Have 30x3 1/2 guaranteed tires at $9. Other sizes at corresponding low prices.—Adv.

Lost a Hog—
It is reported that Mark Savage who has some stock on an island about two miles south of Salem, had a hog or two drowned during the big flood, along with some other stock and quite a number of chickens.

Turkey Dinner—
50c, White Cloud Tea House, 110 1/2 Com'l St.—Adv.

About Turkeys—
The retail price yesterday in Salem for dressed turkeys was from 42 to 45 cents, according to the turkey. The opinion among dealers is that this is about the price that will prevail for the remainder of the week.

A Classified Ad—
Will bring you a buyer.—Adv.

Run Through to Mill City—
The stage lines managed to keep up service yesterday to Mill City by working transfers. The first ride was to a washout close to Mehana where passengers were transferred. Then to another transfer just this side of Mill City. The Silverton stage yesterday was taking the old road to Silverton, as the Pudding river was over the bridge.

Wick Bros.—
Have 30x3 1/2 guaranteed tires at $9. Other sizes at corresponding low prices.—Adv.

Lost a Hog—
It is reported that Mark Savage who has some stock on an island about two miles south of Salem, had a hog or two drowned during the big flood, along with some other stock and quite a number of chickens.

Turkey Dinner—
50c, White Cloud Tea House, 110 1/2 Com'l St.—Adv.

Son is Born—
A son was born November 22, to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Waser of Salem, rural route 5. He has been named Frank Earnest Joseph tended visit. But if he does not keep up a regular remittance of $25 a month, as ordered by the court, the permit to visit his children is revoked. He is also ordered to return to his former wife her wrist watch and some silverware.

Home-made Mince Pie—
For Thanksgiving. Mistland Bakery. Phone 544.—Adv.

Library Closed—
The Salem public library, following the example of all state institutions, the court house and the postoffice, will be closed all day Thanksgiving day.

Home-made Mince Pie—
For Thanksgiving. Mistland Bakery. Phone 544.—Adv.

Suit for Appraising Property—
J. S. Gilkey and F. L. Bubb, doing business under the name of the Standard Appraisal company, have brought suit against the Salem Laundry company for $150. The plaintiffs allege that at the request of the Salem Laundry company they appraised the property of the laundry last February and that the services were worth $150, and that the sum has not been paid.

Home-made Mince Pie—
For Thanksgiving. Mistland Bakery. Phone 544.—Adv.

Coming to the United States—
Russell M. Brooks, vice consul at Newberg-on-the-Tyne, England, has been granted a short leave of absence. He visited with his wife at Bordeaux, France, her former home, and left for this country on November 20. On account of his limited leave of absence he will not be able to visit Salem, and will have only a few days to transact business in Washington.

Home-made Mince Pie—
For Thanksgiving. Mistland Bakery. Phone 544.—Adv.

Marion Hotel Services—
Special Thanksgiving dinner tomorrow, 4 to 8 p. m.; $1.50 plate. Make your reservations now.—Adv.

Unlabeled Service Announced—
A union Thanksgiving service will be held in Jason Lee Methodist church Thursday morning. The Free Methodist and Highland Friends church will join in the service. Rev. I. G. Lee will speak. All residents of North Salem are welcome.

The Spa—
Will serve Thanksgiving dinner from 1 p. m. till 8 p. m.—Adv.

Parked Car Struck—
S. McElnea, of the Court apartments, reported to the police that his car which had been left standing in front of the apartments had been struck by a passing automobile late yesterday afternoon. The car had not stopped but a witness turned in the number as being 21237, Oregon license, this machine being recorded in the name of the state highway commission. A front axle of the McElnea car was bent and the car was thrown onto the parking.

Turkey Dinner—
At the Gray Belle all day Thanksgiving; $1 per plate.—Adv.

Drivers Blame Each Other—
George H. Graves of 369 North Liberty street, reported that while driving west on Center street he was struck by Henry Gortmaker, 257 North Church street who was going south on Commercial street. Both drivers reported the mishap and each placed the blame upon the other.

Elks Attention—
Don't forget the big dance Wednesday evening at the Elks temple, beginning at 9 o'clock. Committee.—Adv.

Will Soon Get Mail—
Towns such as Turner, Jefferson, Marion and Mill City and a few others that have been shut off from mail delivery on account of the crippled condition of the railroads, will get mail in a day or two. Postmaster Huestein has taken up with the department the matter of delivering and receiving mails from these towns by truck service.

Special Sale Price—
30x3 1/2 Rugged Federal Tires at Vick Bros. New stock.—Adv.

Will Receive Approval—
Eighty of the 123 school districts in Marion county will receive this week diplomas from the office of the county superintendent entitled, "Public School Award of Honor." These diplomas are sent to each district having an attendance of 95 per cent or more during the school month closing November 4.

Legal Blanks—
Get them at The Statesman office. Catalog on application.—Adv.

Divorce Granted—
The circuit court has granted a divorce to Estella Lundeen, in her suit against Harry Lundeen. She was given the custody of the two children, and $25 a month for their support. The father is to be permitted to visit the children upon giving notice of his intention.

Run Through to Mill City—
The stage lines managed to keep up service yesterday to Mill City by working transfers. The first ride was to a washout close to Mehana where passengers were transferred. Then to another transfer just this side of Mill City. The Silverton stage yesterday was taking the old road to Silverton, as the Pudding river was over the bridge.

Wick Bros.—
Have 30x3 1/2 guaranteed tires at $9. Other sizes at corresponding low prices.—Adv.

Lost a Hog—
It is reported that Mark Savage who has some stock on an island about two miles south of Salem, had a hog or two drowned during the big flood, along with some other stock and quite a number of chickens.

Turkey Dinner—
50c, White Cloud Tea House, 110 1/2 Com'l St.—Adv.

About Turkeys—
The retail price yesterday in Salem for dressed turkeys was from 42 to 45 cents, according to the turkey. The opinion among dealers is that this is about the price that will prevail for the remainder of the week.

A Classified Ad—
Will bring you a buyer.—Adv.

Run Through to Mill City—
The stage lines managed to keep up service yesterday to Mill City by working transfers. The first ride was to a washout close to Mehana where passengers were transferred. Then to another transfer just this side of Mill City. The Silverton stage yesterday was taking the old road to Silverton, as the Pudding river was over the bridge.

Wick Bros.—
Have 30x3 1/2 guaranteed tires at $9. Other sizes at corresponding low prices.—Adv.

Lost a Hog—
It is reported that Mark Savage who has some stock on an island about two miles south of Salem, had a hog or two drowned during the big flood, along with some other stock and quite a number of chickens.

Turkey Dinner—
50c, White Cloud Tea House, 110 1/2 Com'l St.—Adv.

Son is Born—
A son was born November 22, to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Waser of Salem, rural route 5. He has been named Frank Earnest Joseph

Waser. Mr. Waser is a cheesemaker by occupation.

Girl From God's Country—
Thanksgiving at the Liberty.—Adv.

Will be Quiet Thursday—
Not even the grocery stores will open Thanksgiving day. The meat markets will remain open until 10 o'clock, and then close. All public offices as well as banks will close, and at the postoffice there will be only the general delivery held open from 9 until 10 o'clock a. m. for transients.

Experienced Waitresses Wanted
For steady work. The Gray Belle.—Adv.

Another Bicycle Is Stolen—
Donald Lockwood, of 1133 Court street reported to the police yesterday that his bicycle had been stolen from the parking strip south of the Y. M. C. A. building on North Commercial street. The many bicycle thefts reported recently are attributed by the police to youths who seize wheels and abandon them a short time afterward.

30x3 1/2 Rugged Tires—
$13.99 at Vick Bros. New stock.—Adv.

Five Secure Beds—
Five transients, Lee Nelson, Alfred Batts, Joseph Bernard, S. Davi and Joe Canby were booked for beds at the city jail last night. Lee Nelson, one of the quintet, is an itinerant street preacher who visits Salem, occasionally, according to police records. When he applied for a bed last night, Mr. Nelson pleaded the cause of a small dog that had followed him, and the homeless canine was also booked for shelter.

Henry Souvaine—
America's greatest pianist, at armory tonight, at 8:30 p. m. Plays exclusively for mpico reproducing piano.—Adv.

HOTEL ARRIVALS
MARION — Portland arrivals were Sue Richardart, H. D. Flary, C. A. Pearl, Mrs. R. Bernfeld, Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Wynn, D. A. Van Bostkirk, O. M. Brewster, Frank H. Rhodes, I. T. Olsen, J. R. Reed, C. H. Brakeman, L. W. Damon, Scott Kent, H. O. Barr, H. W. Underhill, E. M. Pugh. Others registering were F. N. Marks, Albany; Helen S. Smith, Eugene; Miss L. Young, Ethel Martelle, F. F. Moore, San Francisco; F. A. Wintz, Anna Tanager, Woodburn; Elbert Bede, Cottage Grove.

BLIGH—Portland arrivals. C. W. Robbery, H. W. Wright, J. A. Lindsay, E. C. Clark, R. L. Hansen, Z. P. Lee, L. M. Flint, G. W. Moore, J. J. Graff. Others registering were Marlan Chase, Corvallis; G. L. Paxton, Newberg; Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Elliott, Seattle; Zeta Prichard, Stayton; A. Rock, Silverton; G. F. Wright, Woodburn; Mr. and Mrs. Claud Schrook, Lorraine; E. R. Eldridge, Los Angeles; William Cameron, Asbury Park, N. J.

PERSONALS
Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Brotton were guests Monday night at the C. McClain home. Mr. Brotton is physical director of the Eugene Y. M. C. A.

Robert A. Eakin of La Grande is a visitor in the city.

Mrs. R. L. Mathews left Monday for her home in Seattle after several days' visit with Mrs. John R. Sikes.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Astill had as their guests over the week-end Mr. and Mrs. James Johns, Jr., of Pendleton.

Mrs. G. E. Terwilliger went to Oregon City yesterday in the interest of the Women's Relief corps of which she is a department officer.

Sid Russell, of Marion, transacted business with the Marion county court yesterday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Cline and family, of Mt. Angel, were Salem visitors Tuesday.

John Kinsey, of Macleay, who is road patrolman for district No. 60 conferred with County Roadmaster W. J. Culver yesterday.

John Davenport, of near Silverton, visited Salem friends Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Hunt of Sublimity, are visiting in Salem at the J. T. Hunt residence.

Charles Heinz of Scotts Mills, was a Salem visitor yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Stupp, of 54.87 acres John Stupp DLC 7-2-W, $1 and other.

Sarah E. A. Stayton to G. E. and Emma Thomas, 399.59 acres land in sec 11-12-9-1-W, $1.

Sarah E. Stayton to G. E. and Emma Thomas, part sec. 11-9-1-W $1.00.

Carrie M. and L. A. Thomas to G. E. and Emma Thomas, 399.59 acres sec 11 and 12-9-1-W, $1492.51.

J. W. Thomas to G. E. and Emma Thomas, 399.59 acres sec. 11 and 12-9-1-W $1492.51.

Emma Hurst et al to Geo. O. Hardwick, lot 1, block 3, Englewood, $200.

H. W. and Anna L. Smith to Seth H. and Nellie M. Baker, lot in Turner, $4500.

J. H. and Olive J. Moser to Gilbert R. and Minnie Moser, part of lot 1, block 5, Davenport add to Silverton, $1.

Willis and Stella Caldwell to J. L. and Eva Quinn, lot 1, block 3, Hollister's add to Stayton, $200.

Gottfried Horn to Lucinda Horn, lots 3 and 4, block 3 Boise's first add to Salem, $1.

J. D. and S. C. Barber to M. T. and Mary Irwin, part of lots 5 and 6, block 16, Geo. H. Jones add to Salem, $10.

Mrs. Margaret M. Huffman to Albert and Helen Meyers, part of block 73, North Salem, $300.

Winnie Bettyjohn to W. E. Smith, 37x100 feet in block 33, University addition to Salem, $10.

Mary Anderson et al by sheriff to Flora Woodward Burns, lots 2, 3, 7, 9, 10 and 11, subdivision of block 27, University addition to Salem, $1857.16.

Helen M. and J. B. Perrott to Viletha and Charles A. Bort, lots 5 and 6, block 14, McClain's addition to North Salem, $10 and other considerations.

Harvey and Nettie N. Good to Cornelia Galbraith, 1 1/2 acres in P. Cox donation land claim 6-1-W, $10 and other considerations.

W. W. and Clara Hall to John Baughman, lots 12 and 13, block 1, Ben Hall's addition to Salem, $225.

Ella and Frank McCaffry to John J. and Agatheo Wiens, pt. of block 57, N. Salem, $10.

Mr. Heinz has extensive walnut plantings near Scotts Mills.

A. R. Porter, ferryman in charge of the Buena Vista ferry was a visitor in the office of County Commissioner J. T. Hunt yesterday.

Charles Smith, of Aumsville, has been visiting in Salem during the past week.

Mrs. David H. Looney of Jefferson is in the city for a short visit with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Hocken-smith of Albany will spend Thanksgiving in Salem, at the home of their daughter, Mrs. James H. G. Ewing, 1565 South Cottage street.

R. O. Snelling of the Associated Oil company was in Albany yesterday.

Charles M. Atwater, businessman of Monmouth, was in Salem Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. I. C. Conner arrived in Salem last night and are visiting at the home of their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Goodwin on North Commercial street.

REALTY EXCHANGES
Reported by Union Abstract Company

Homer and Pauline Harrison to Frank W. and Mabel L. Bath, 54.87 acres John Stupp DLC 7-2-W, $1 and other.

Sarah E. A. Stayton to G. E. and Emma Thomas, 399.59 acres land in sec 11-12-9-1-W, $1.

Sarah E. Stayton to G. E. and Emma Thomas, part sec. 11-9-1-W $1.00.

Carrie M. and L. A. Thomas to G. E. and Emma Thomas, 399.59 acres sec 11 and 12-9-1-W, $1492.51.

J. W. Thomas to G. E. and Emma Thomas, 399.59 acres sec. 11 and 12-9-1-W $1492.51.

Emma Hurst et al to Geo. O. Hardwick, lot 1, block 3, Englewood, $200.

H. W. and Anna L. Smith to Seth H. and Nellie M. Baker, lot in Turner, $4500.

J. H. and Olive J. Moser to Gilbert R. and Minnie Moser, part of lot 1, block 5, Davenport add to Silverton, $1.

Willis and Stella Caldwell to J. L. and Eva Quinn, lot 1, block 3, Hollister's add to Stayton, $200.

Gottfried Horn to Lucinda Horn, lots 3 and 4, block 3 Boise's first add to Salem, $1.

J. D. and S. C. Barber to M. T. and Mary Irwin, part of lots 5 and 6, block 16, Geo. H. Jones add to Salem, $10.

Mrs. Margaret M. Huffman to Albert and Helen Meyers, part of