A FIGHT FOR LIFE!

In these busy days of keen cometition, the average man finds himself in a grim struggle for the very necessitiies of life.

A proper training furnishes the capons for successful combat in the battle of life. Yet think of the thous ands of men who are attempting to win with their bare hands, fighting a battle without any weapons, predestined to failure.

A proper training may be secure in one of two ways; through long laborious experience, or through technical schooling. The latter vay is the short cut some sward. We or call for information.
