Defer Union Attempts

NEW YORK, Dec. 14.-Proposals for union of all Presbyterian and reformed churches in the United States have been deferred for the juniors, but that wasn't definitely, pwing to the inaenough to win. The top class men bility of representatives of the various denominations to agree on a unification program, said a report of the special conference investigating the matter, made public tonight.

The report said that the vorious denominations would continue to cooperate as before through the council of reformed churches holding the Presbyterian system, but without modifying their independent organizations. The point of disagreement, the report said, was as to whether there should be a complete union, with one general assembly and a number of general synolds or a federal union in which the various denominations would preserve their autonomy.

Denominations represented in the conference were the Presbyterian church in the United States (South); Presbyterian church in the United States of America (North); Reformed Church in the
