

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

Appreciated by Secretary—During the week the Marion county teachers were attending institute in Salem, they voted that Secretary Hughes did the right thing on the armament proposition. They also instructed Mary L. Fulkerson, county superintendent, to telegraph Mr. Hughes and tell him how the teachers here felt about it. Yesterday she received the following telegram from the private secretary of Mr. Hughes: "The secretary of state, chairman of the conference, directs me to acknowledge receipt of your telegram of November 23 and to ask you to communicate to the public school teachers of Marion county, Oregon, his sincere appreciation of the interest and support which they have manifested."

For Her Christmas—A beautiful floor lamp selected from our line. Prices range from $20 to $110. Salem Electric Co. Masonic bldg. Phone 1200.—Adv.

Examining Teachers Today—The state examination of teachers in Marion county is being held today at the First Methodist church. It is thought about 60 will take the examinations, although a number may not arrive on account of the unfavorable weather.

We Have a Supply—Of Mac Donald's Farmer's Appliances. Tyler's Drug Store, 157 South Commercial street.—Adv.

Going Home for Vacation—A number of students of Willamette university will leave for their homes today, especially those living in Spokane, and also in Montana. The last recitation before Christmas will be on Thursday afternoon. The second semester begins February 1, the first day for registration.

Dr. R. P. and Pearl M. Bradford—State licensed chiropractic physicians; ten years in practice. Consultation and examination free. Phone 526. Suite 318-20 Oregon bldg., cor. State and High streets.—Adv.

P. O. Rush Continues—Judging from the one continuous rush at the postoffice, about half the Christmas givers simply cannot arrange to have their presents on the way before the final rush. Beginning shortly after 3 o'clock yesterday morning, the rush began and it was there at the closing hour.

Holiday Gifts—Woman's Exchange and Needlecraft shop. Over Prices Shoe Store. Original Stamping designs.—Adv.

Red Cross Cooperating—The Red Cross is cooperating with the Associated Charities in helping the poor at this time of year, especially in regard to the families of ex-service men. In fact, all cases of distress in homes of ex-service men are referred to the Red Cross, where everything is done that can be done.

A Christmas Present—From the American Ironer Co. of $35.50. We can give you a 42-inch Simplex Ironer for $139.50. Salem Electric Co., Masonic Temple. Phone 1200.—Adv.

Shriners to Dance—Announcements are out naming Thursday evening of this week as the evening of the Salem Shrine dance, to be held in the Salem Shrine mosque. The affair is formal.

DIED

PETERS—Mary Peters passed away Dec. 19 in Salem. The body is at the Rigdon chapel and funeral announcement will be made later.

GOODILL—Frank Edward Goodell of Maclay passed away at a local hospital December 20, at the age of 58 years. The funeral will be held from the Rigdon chapel at 1:30 Thursday, and interment will be in City View cemetery.

RIGDON & SON
Leading Morticians

Webb & Clough
Leading Funeral Directors
Expert Embalmers

Growers--
wanting to sign up flax or hemp acreage will please call at 407 Masonic Temple on or after Wednesday, the 21st.

Willamette Valley Flax & Hemp Growers' Cooperative Association

SO THEY GAVE IVORY
How often have you heard girls say, "I don't want anything this Christmas but ivory?"

A complete set of toilet articles in ivory is the dream of every girl. And what is there more practical for a gift?

Schaefer's Drug Store
Sole Agent
Garden Court Preparations
135 N. Com'l. Phone 197

Born at Heppner—Word was received today of the birth of a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Hammer Monday, December 19. Mrs. Hammer was formerly Miss Jane Haverson, and made her home in Salem. Mr. Hammer is proprietor of a bakery in Heppner.

A Classified Ad—Will bring you a buyer.—Adv.

All Building Stopped—Contractors report that the sudden cold spell has stopped all building in Salem. This includes work on the Salem hospital which was being rushed to completion, and also on the dormitory of the girls' industrial school.

Give One For Christmas—Ticket $1. Symphony orchestra concert. Sale; music and book stores.—Adv.

Turkeys Going Up—The Christmas turkey will cost from 45 to 50 cents a pound, according to the market. The present market prices is from 38 to 40 cents a pound, this being the prices paid yesterday. Market men say there is a good demand and turkeys are in good condition.

We Have a Few More—English walnuts for sale. Oregon Growers' Cooperative Assn. Trade and High streets.—Adv.

Wants Will Probated—Margaret J. Brown, administratrix of the estate of Harry P. Brown, who died November 3, has petitioned the county court for probate of the will. The personal property in Marion county is valued at $420, and real estate in Jefferson county, Montana, at $2,000.

Buy Your "Brunswick" Here—And know you have the latest model. All new stock. Terms to suit. Moore-Dunn Music Store, 444 State and Masonic Temple.—Adv.

Its An Ill Wind—Just as the mild weather was bringing in eggs in large quantities and forcing the price down, along comes the cold weather and now they are going up. Yesterday the market price was 38 cents a dozen.

Save Water—During the cold weather, it will be necessary for every water consumer to cooperate with the company and avoid all unnecessary use of water. Do not let the faucets RUN.—Adv.

Not Coming Home—The canoe house which went wandering during the big flood and finally made a landing near Wheatland, is still resting where it landed. According to members of the Salem Canoe club, the chances are that the house will not be returned.

Brings Suit for $1888.22—F. C. Doerfler has brought suit in circuit court against A. E. Royal, alleging that between June 25 and December 7 he had performed work and furnished parts for an automobile owned by Mr. Royal, and that there is still due him

Let Him Sing It!

ST. ANDREASBURG ROLLER
The canary with a musical education.
For sale in Salem only by
E. B. FLAKE
Birds and Flowers
273 State St., U. S. Bank Bldg.
Phone 636 Res. 1016-J

The Perfect Gift

Start your children's home library this Christmas by giving them the RIGHT books. Unless you give the right ones they may select the wrong ones for themselves. We carry a line of children's books recommended by the Salem public library.

COMMERCIAL BOOK STORE
163 N. Com'l. Phone 64

$188.22. Mr. Doerfler asks for payment of the amount he claims due, or a foreclosure of his mechanic's lien on the auto.

People of Salem—Are using good judgment this year in making their candy purchases at THE ACE.—Adv.

Elks Invited to Attend—Members of the Salem lodge of Elks have been invited to attend open house at the Y.M.C.A. on the afternoon and evening of January 2. The invitation has been posted on the bulletin board of the lodge.

Xmas Dance Tonight—Elite hall. Valuable gifts free. Ladies free.—Adv.

Nearing Completion—The new banquet room of the Marion hotel is nearing completion and everything will be in readiness for the evening of January 3 when the Cherrians hold their installation of officers and an evening of entertainment. Just adjoining the banquet room is a reception room, which will be fitted up for waiting guests. Between the new banquet room and the large dining room, there is an entrance in which French doors will be placed.

Ladies Matinee—Special seance for ladies only. Rex, the mental wizard, Thursday, 2 p. m. No children. Liberty.—Adv.

C. B. Webb in Charge—C. B. Webb will be in charge of the Rotarian program today noon at the Marion hotel. It is understood the program as prepared by Mr. Webb will be of the home talent variety.

Just Received—New shipment of Christmas cards. Clean assortment, latest designs. Commercial Book Store.—Adv.

To Quiet Title—G. E. Thomas and Emma Thomas have brought suit in the Marion county circuit court against Virginia C. McKinney and a number of others, to quiet title of 249 acres of land in section 11, township 9 south of range one west. Part of the land borders on the Santiam river.

Xmas Dance Tonight—Elite hall. Everyone gets a gift. Steam heated. Ladies free.—Adv.

Regarding War Saving Stamps—After December 31, there will be sold no more war saving stamps nor thrift stamps, according to recent orders received by the post-office. The government is now selling larger denominations, known as treasury saving certificates to cost $20, $80 and $800, to mature in five years. These will draw 4 1/2 per cent interest. The face value of these treasury saving certificates are $25, $100 and $1000.

Floor Lamp for Christmas—Select your preference now while the variety is here. Priced from $20 to $110. Salem Electric Co., Masonic building, Phone 1200.—Adv.

Bounty Paid for Wild Cat—A bounty was yesterday paid W. T. Matheny of Silver Creek Falls country by U. G. Boyer, county clerk.

Undergoes Operation—W. F. Shan's of 1550 South Liberty street underwent a serious operation for cancer of the stomach yesterday morning at the Salem hospital. His son, J. B. Shank of Superior, Neb., will arrive in Salem Thursday.

New model "Brunswicks" $60 and up. Moore-Dunn Co., 444 State and Masonic Temple.—Adv.

Got the First Cupid Book—The first free cupid book to be given to all who apply for a marriage license in Marion county was earned yesterday when R. R. McAdams of Salem route 6, a farmer, applied for a license to marry Nettie De Witt of 467 North Twenty-first street, Salem. The cupid book was given the county and the generosity in handing out a copy with each license costs the taxpayers nothing.

Settle "Xmas" At Home—With a "Brunswick" Moore-Dunn Co., 44 State and Masonic Temple.—Adv.

To Foreclose Lot in Stayton—Liston A. Darby has brought suit against Joe Girschner and wife. In the complaint it is alleged that on April 15, 1921, Mr. Girschner and wife gave a promissory note for $600, payable in six months, as a mortgage on a lot in Stayton was given as security and as no payment has been made on the note, the foreclosure of the mortgage is asked in the complaint.

Sherman Clay & Co. Pianos—For "Xmas". Moore-Dunn Co., 44 State and Masonic Temple.—Adv.

48 Miles in Cold Weather—Bernard Krechter, substitute mail carrier for the Salem post-office, traveled 48 miles yesterday, the first half driving a horse with mail and the other half with auto. O. L. Fisher of route 6 was unable to be out on account of illness, and Krechter was called in to supply. Then on his return he was sent out to carry mail over rural route 4. Postmaster Huckestein asks that patrons of these routes take the unusual conditions into consideration.

For Mistletoe, Christmas Trees—and Oregon Grape phone 34F22.—Adv.

Helping Associated Charities—The Presbyterian church has contributed $25 as its first payment of the 10 per cent per capita asked of all organizations in the city by the Associated Charities to help the poor and distressed this winter. Watt Shipp has given an order for 2 1/2 cords of wood to be disposed of as thought best and the Fairmount dairy an order for a quart of milk a day for 30 days, or an equal amount to be used as needed. Dr. H. E. Morris also says that a number of people have sent in contributions of from $2 to $5 each and that bundle days has proved quite a success.

Legal Blanks—Get them at The Statesman office. Catalog on application.—Adv.

Wants Date for Final Hearing—Clara L. Pike, administratrix of the estate of Isaiah D. Pike, has petitioned the county court for a date when a final hearing may be heard. She states there are no claims against the estate. Included in the expenses of administration were $330.50 burial expenses and doctor's bill of $326.50.

Administrator Appointed—William A. Hermens has been appointed administrator of the estate of Martin Hermens, who died December 1, 1921. The estate is in Washington county, of which $600 is real estate and $9000 personal property. Annie Van Handle, a daughter living at Sublimity, is one of the four heirs.

Final Debate—The final debate of the interclass rivalry will be held tomorrow morning at 11:30 at Willamette university. The winner of this debate will obtain the Elmo S. White trophy cup. The subject, "Resolved that the United States should take the lead in international disarmament by suspending her present naval program." The Juniors will represent the affirmative and the freshmen the negative. Roy Skeen and Rodney Alden are the junior representatives and Robert Litter and Percy Hammond the frosh.

Will Give Recital—Professor William Wallace Graham will give a violin recital at the chapel of Willamette university this evening at 8:15 o'clock.

Going to Pasadena—Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Cummings will leave about the first of the year for a visit at Pasadena, Cal., with their daughter, Mrs. Luther Hall. Mr. Hall was formerly a student at Willamette university and is now in the fruit business in Pasadena. Mr. Cummings says he expects to stay in the south until about the first of April.

Even in "No Man's Land"—There is a Christmas tree in "No Man's Land." This does not refer to some place over in France but to the office of Mrs. Mildred Brooks, county recorder, in the Marion county court house. No man has been employed in the office for a number of years, and hence the name.

Christmas Goodies

Candies, nuts and raisins, just the kind for the Yuletide dinner and for the Christmas tree too.

Dates and figs and specially packed layer raisins for eating.

CARL & BOWERSOX
383 Court St. Phone 409

SEVICEABILITY
You get out of a pair of glasses in wear, just what the makers have put in, in skill, in quality, in care. We take a justifiable pride in the deft craftsmanship of our workmen, the "Quality Reason" of our Shur-on frames and mountings and the painstaking care which characterizes our efforts—all of which ensures your getting long, satisfactory service from our glasses.

MORRIS OPTICAL CO.
204-211 Salem Bank of Commerce Building
Oregon's Largest Optical Institution
Phone 239 for appointment
SALEM, OREGON

REALTY EXCHANGES

Reported by Union Abstract Company

Grace and O. D. McClellan to O. L. and L. M. Fisher, part of block 40, Salem, $10.
Grace and O. D. McClellan to O. L. and Lillia M. Fisher, part of block 40, Salem, $20.
Fargo Orchards Co., to Frank E. and Blanche Peterson, lot 20 block B, Fargo, $1.
Paul A. and Vivian Hendricks to J. E. Bollier, lot 11, block 7, Nob Hill annex to Salem, $10.
W. C. and Phoebe Mason to Albert W. and Emma M. Brown, lot 4, block 50, North Salem, $1100.
D. and Anna E. Snyfoster, lot 8, block 15, George H. Jones add, to Salem, $10.
C. H. Chapman to J. F. Axler, 4.54 acres, I. N. Gilbert die 7-3-W $10.

J. F. and Mae E. Axley to D. R. and Anna E. Snyfoster, lot 8, block 15, George H. Jones add, to Salem, $10.
Arthur R. and Edna C. Barnard to A. J. and Helen A. Paris, lot 6 Lons Hill Fruit Tracts, $10.
Alonzo W. and Eliz. S. Kephart to A. and Annie Stollar, 141 acres in sec. 34-2-W, $10.
Andrew and Martha A. Etter to Julia Viola Nagel, part of block 15, Capitol Park add to Salem, $10.
Julia Viola Nagel to Andrew and Martha Ettner, part of block 15, Capitol Park add to Salem, $10.

O. A. and Emma G. Solle to Bennett and Olga Furnue, 10 acres in Langlois die 6-1-W, $1.
W. E. and Ida Keyes to J. M. Long, lot 4, block 22, Pleasant Home add, to Salem, $10.
Marie Lemery to Sarah Lemery four tracts of land in 5-2 & 3-W, $1.
Maney Elizabeth Armstrong to Harry and Mabel E. Wikoff, part of block 19 Nob Hill Annex, $10 and other.

George W. and Etta Wright to John A. Gamble, part of block 40 University add, to Salem, $275.
Homer and Edna L. McDonough to Arthur Tucker, part of block 38 North Salem, $1.
John Kern to Arthur Tucker, part of block 38, North Salem, $1.
United States to Otis C. Dike, SE 1-4 of NE 1-4, sec. 39-4-E, patent.

Jesse R. and Nellie C. White to John and Mary Scholl, lot 1, Scholl acres, $450.
Franz J. Schmidt to Emma Meyer, 2 acres sec. 3-6-1-W, $10.
Fred and Anna Schwab to City of Mt. Angel, 629 square feet of land in Mt. Angel, $10.

A. A. and A. M. Kilinger to R. L. and Mary Young, lots 7 and 8, block 7, Palmer's second addition to Mt. Angel, $1.
A. B. and Lulu L. Culver to Mrs. Johnnie N. Horn, south one foot of lot 6, block 7, Compton's addition to Salem, $1.

Thomas and Addie F. Fitzgerald to P. H. Fitzgerald, the DLO of Thomas Fitzgerald, 5-1-W, $1.
Mary E. Hershberger to P. H. Fitzgerald et al, 48.75 acres in Fitzgerald DLO 5-1-W, $1.
Alice E. Caldwell to Arthur W.

Friday—Saturday
Sunday
Four Big Acts
VAUDEVILLE
Guaranteed the Biggest and Best
Show in Town
35c, Why Pay More
BLIGH

WHAT COMFORT A BATHROBE BRINGS ON THESE CHILLY MORNINGS
No more practical gift can hang from the Christmas tree! We have the loveliest shades in bathrobes for women and for little girls! And we are especially proud of the prices that we can quote. They are real Christmas prices! You'll find them ranging from
$1.98 to $2.98—Children's
$2.98 to $9.75—Women's

H. G. Shipley Co.
The "Pay As You Go" plan is the cure for the lost bank account!

Special Message from Shipley's
Won't you please try and shop mornings? We are crowded to the guards afternoons.
Read The Classified Ads.

A CORRECTION
Our advertisement in Tuesday's Statesman erroneously stated that we are furnishing denatured alcohol free to motorists. The ad. should have stated that we are offering FREE SERVICE, we will sell the alcohol and make no charge for putting same in your radiator.
FRY'S DRUG STORE

LADD & BUSH, BANKERS
Established 1868
General Banking Business
Office Hours from 10 a. m. to 5 p. m.

Rushed To the Doors
But Still Giving Salem People The Service They Deserve
Our stock is well assorted and is yet nearly complete in its range of selection. This will not last long as every day we are running out of certain lines. Better hurry before all the best gifts are chosen.
A Few Reminders
Pyrex Baking Dishes and Casseroles
Handpainted China
Oriental Jardiner and Vases
Baskets—We are headquarters for oriental novelties, a most pretty line to select from Toys—the only place in Salem that carries anything you want
Salem Variety Store
152 North Commercial St.