

SALVATION ARMY APPEALS FOR AID

The Salvation Army of this city is calling attention to the fact that a large number of poor families are in need and are looking to the Army for help. A more ready liberal response to the present appeal must be made, if all these families are to receive the usual Christmas fare provided. In excess of 50 deserving cases have already been investigated and must be relieved, but unfortunately the response to the Army's appeal so far has been decidedly below the mark. During the next few days a generous response is asked, for the wish of the Army is to relieve all who come to them. While not wishing to minimize the amount of good done by the organization, the majority of the poor experience more freedom in applying to the Army for help. For nearly 60 years the Salvation Army has performed this work and the public can therefore have confidence that the best methods are employed and the most possible amount of good done. None of the money given this year will be used for state institutions—but will go directly to the deserving families. Ensign Hancock, of the local Army post reports.

SCHOOLS ARE CLOSED

EUGENE, Or., Dec. 20.—The public schools of Cottage Grove, Lane county, have been ordered closed for two weeks on account of an epidemic of diphtheria among the pupils, according to announcement today of E. J. Moore, county school superintendent.

Salem Citizens Meet E. L. Mogge, Who Has Aided in Extension Task

Y.M.C.A.'s ARE GROWING

Success of Ellensburg's Efforts to Eliminate Debt Told by Speaker

Twenty-six representative citizens met at lunch at the Y.M.C.A. yesterday noon to confer with E. L. Mogge, building campaign specialist, of the international committee. He stopped off as he was passing through the city on his way to his home in Long Beach. Mr. Mogge has been engaged in the work of the Y.M.C.A. for 30 years, seven of which has been devised entirely to helping to raise building funds. Tells of Work In the course of his remarks Mr. Mogge said that the Y.M.C.A. has a place among the essential institutions of the city. He referred to the city of Dayton, Ohio, that is now in the third building built expressly for "Y" work, and it is commonly known as one of Dayton's 1000 factories. The necessity of adequate equipment was given stress to, for he said it is impossible to do an up to date piece of work without the tools. Funds Raised The question was asked about the right time to have a building campaign to which he replied that there is never a right time. He just came from Ellensburg, Wash., where under the most adverse conditions they raised $50,000 to release their building from debt and to provide an operating budget. He advised that there should never be a campaign undertaken unless about two-fifths of the total amount was pledged in advance. Interesting discussion followed the address, and it was generally conceded that Salem is badly in need of a modern Y.M.C.A. building.

Noel Christmas Cantata Given by High School

The cantata "Noel" was given last night by the music department of the senior high school. The program was marked by especially good solo work. Among those doing specially creditable work were Miss Ruth Tucker and Miss Alice Roth. Numbers particularly enjoyed were "And in the Sixth Month," by Miss Tucker, "My Soul Doth Magnify the Lord," Miss Roth and the duet "O Little Town of Bethlehem," by Miss Tucker and Ellis Welty. The solo "Once in Royal David's City," by Harold Socolofsky, was enthusiastically received by the audience. The accompanists were Miss Louise Findley, Miss Eugenia Myers and Cecil Deacon. Delbert Moore directed the orchestra. Russel was in charge of the decorations and Kenneth Perry was general student manager of the affair. Miss Lena Belle Tartar, in charge of the music department of the high school, was in charge of the affair.

ICY PAVEMENT CAUSES MISHAP
Elmer Falk, of South Salem District, Injured While Coasting in Road

The snow and slippery conditions of the streets were responsible for a number of accidents that have happened the past day or so. Elmer Falk, 14 years old, son of Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Falk of rural route 3, Salem, is unconscious at the Salem sanatorium as a result of an accident Monday evening. According to reports to police headquarters, a car driven by L. W. Swigert of the Seward hotel, Portland, while driving near the Falk cannery south of Salem, collided with the boy as he was coasting down hill. Reports are that the sled ran suddenly in front of the Swigert car. In the collision the boy was knocked unconscious and was taken to the sanatorium. The accident was witnessed by Frank Hrubetz, who corroborated the testimony of Swigert, that the sled suddenly ran in front of the auto. Other accidents caused by slippery roads are as follows: E. A. Brown of 17 1/2 South Liberty street, while driving yesterday morning on west Court street, was struck by a street car. The running board of the automobile was broken. William Sheridan of Salem, rural route 5, was struck by a Southern Pacific train Monday evening about 5 o'clock as he was returning from Silverton in his car. No damage was done to any extent. Yesterday afternoon R. L. Hart of 1192 Shipping street, while driving on South Cottage, was struck by a street car traveling east on Chemeketa. But little damage was done to the automobile and no one was hurt. M. C. Andresen of 670 Mill street, while driving yesterday afternoon into the state house grounds, ran into the rear of a truck driven by D. P. Johnson.

625 North Sixteenth street. There was slight damage done to the car driven by Andresen, which was a delivery car of the American Express company.

stitutionality of a law passed at the 1921 session of the Oregon legislature making purse seining unlawful in any of the waters of Oregon after January 1, 1922, or to have in possession in the state any salmon or other food fish caught in a purse seine in the waters of the Pacific ocean outside of the three-mile limit, was upheld in a decision by Circuit Judge John S. Coke, of Coos county, filed here today. Another thing about Joe Tumulty's book is that so many of us have forgotten really what Tumulty was at one time.
