

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

Daughter Born—A daughter was born Friday, Dec. 30, to Mr. and Mrs. Emil J. Montandon. They live on rural route 9, Salem.

One Cent Ahead—One of the manifold blessings for which everyone is to be thankful for the coming year, is the fact that a 5-cent piece will last longer. Hereafter, there will be no internal revenue tax on ice cream and similar refreshments.

No Luncheon Monday—Due to the fact that Monday will be observed in the city as a legal holiday, and to the fact that all business houses and banks will be also observing the day, no luncheon will be held Monday noon at the Commercial club.

Symphony Orchestra Concert—Wed., Jan. 4 at armory. Tickets music and book stores.—Adv.

Mr. Gley Buys Property—John B. Gley has purchased from C. M. Schriver lot 12, in block 10 in Richmond addition to Salem for a consideration of $1500. He has also bought a lot adjoining from R. C. Hallberg for $500.

Appeals to Supreme Court—In the petition of Fisher Brothers and Will Purdy, asking for a new trial in their suit recently brought against the Citizens Investment company, the circuit court yesterday denied the petition on the ground that the motion for the new trial was not made within the time specified by law. From this decision Fisher Brothers and Mr. Purdy have appealed to the supreme court. They filed affidavits recently that new evidence had been discovered.

Had $1000 in Bank—In the estate of Milton Marsh, a minor, the appraisers, Homer Marsh, E. M. Page and Olga Gray have reported to the county court that the estate is valued at $1000, all deposited in a Salem bank.

Legal Blank—Get them at The Statesman office. Catalog on application.—Adv.

Sam Smokoon in Business—Sam Smokoon has filed with the Marion county court the assumed name under which he will do business in Salem. The business is to be known as the Northwestern Pipe company and will be that of wholesale and retail plumbing at 219 North Commercial street.

Some Lawyer—Marion Putnam of 1045 North Commercial street says he has a White Leghorn hen that can beat the record when it comes to laying large eggs. Her last record in that line is that of laying an egg 7 1/2 inches around one way and 6 3/4 inches around the other. Next.

A Classified Ad—Will bring you a buyer.—Adv.

To Foreclose City Liens—City Attorney Ray L. Smith filed with the county clerk late Saturday evening judgments from the circuit court and orders for the foreclosing of liens against property in Oaks addition owned by Josie L. Stewart and Grace G. Stevens. In all 25 judgments. The foreclosing property for nonpayment of taxes, were filed.

Viola City Manager—Mrs. Poor, 331 Hotel Marion.—Adv.

Goes Out Monday Night—The star on the Cherrian Christmas tree in the court house grounds will twinkle out Monday night. And with it 200 colored electric lights which have decorated the tree and in general caused such favorable comment, especially from strangers passing through the city. The illuminating of the tree during the holidays, has been the custom of the Cherrians for several years.

Grand Jury Discharged—The grand jury for the September term of the Marion county circuit court has been officially discharged. The sheriff has made return to the county clerk of the jurors drawn for the January term which will begin next Tuesday at 10 o'clock in the morning. Of the 31 jurors drawn, all were notified excepting Charles W. Seely, who is out of the state. George W. Hubbs of Silverton was excused on account of his duties as school director and the work connected with the building of a new heating plant for the Silverton schools.

Hickman Speaker—President E. C. Hickman of Kimball School of Theology was a speaker at the watch party held at the Jason Lee Methodist church last night to usher in the new year. His address was of an informal nature and urged all to make plans to live the new year in a manner befitting a Christian. Previous to the hour of worship a social hour was held in which games of different kinds were played.

Boys To Rehearse—Dr. H. C. Epley calls attention to the fact that the Whitney boys' chorus of Salem will again begin rehearsals, and the next will be Tuesday afternoon at 8 o'clock in the auditorium of the high school. This meeting will be of interest to the many boys who are availing themselves of the opportunity for chorus training, as there will be the election of officers. All officers in the chorus are held by the boy members.

To Our Many Old Patrons—And friends, we have this week sold our real estate and insurance business to Anderson and Rupert, who are quite well known to the people of Salem and vicinity. They will conduct the business along the same lines as it has been conducted by us and will extend all accommodations possible. G. W. Laflair, Sr., member of the firm, will retain an interest in the business and will be found at the same old place assisting with the business and looking after his loans and private affairs. We also desire to extend to our patrons many thanks for their business for the past ten years and hope you will remain with us for the next ten, and that many new ones will come into the fold. Wishing you all a most happy and prosperous New Year, we are, yours respectfully, Laflair & Laflair.—Adv.

1922 Greets Us—With a finger pointed toward prosperous times. This means more and better help will be needed. Will you be one of the few who will be ready for a place? New classes in all subjects at the Capital Business College January 2d.—Adv.

Fee—Consultation and examination. Drs. Bradford & Bradford, D. C., state licensed physicians. Ten years in practice. Phone 526, Suite 919 Oregon Bldg.—Adv.

Attracting Attention—Company 1 of Silverton is attracting the attention military men in he state as it was recently awarded first place in the state in the matter of attendance, having secured percentage of about 80. Lieutenant A. L. Dahl, commanding officer, was in the city yesterday and says recruits are coming in and that Silverton and community is taking a strong interest in its military company. It is now 78 strong.

Honor Students—Among those who have been mentioned as honor students for the close of the year at the University of Oregon, are W. Earl Shafer, sophomore, in mathematics, and Margery Gilbert, senior, in education, both of Salem.

Nice New Year's Present—David Patterson, as a New Year's eve present, was given his freedom, after languishing several weeks in the Marion county jail. He had been arrested in Multnomah county following his parole and brought to this county. He brought habeas proceedings before the circuit court and an order was issued late Saturday evening ordering his release by Sheriff O. L. Bower. His home is in Portland.

Almanac Information—The sun is scheduled to rise this morning at 7:30 o'clock and set at 4:28 o'clock. There will be two eclipses of the sun this year, but neither visible in Oregon. Easter Sunday comes on April 16.

County Budget Signed—At 5 o'clock Saturday afternoon the last official act of the Marion county court for 1921 was the signing of the budget for 1922, the county's figures being $1,095,047.76.

Installation January 13—Friday evening, Jan. 13, is the date announced for the joint installation of officers of the Woodmen of the World and the Women of Woodcraft. The jewelry won the competitive drill with the Eugene team, will be presented the lodge on the evening of installation.

Everybody Invited—About 40 clubs and lodges in the city have been invited by the Y. M. C. A. to attend the open house Monday afternoon, and all this in addition to invitations sent to all churches in the city. The Mothers' club is making efforts to serve special refreshments during the afternoon. The H-Y club decorated the rooms.

Undergoes Operation—Charles Maxwell, colored porter and news vender at the Oregon Electric depot will Monday undergo an operation at Portland for goitre.

Johnson Pays Fine—Claud Johnson, arrested Friday night on a charge of being drunk and disorderly, yesterday pleaded guilty when brought before City Recorder Earl Race. Judge Race imposed a fine of $40 which Johnson paid into the city's coffers.

Hoy's Wagon Stolen—Harry Elgin, of 1466 North Liberty street reported to the police that some one had stolen a small Overland wagon, the property of his son.

Bicycles Stolen—Dwight Armstrong of Highland avenue, reported to police that his wheel had been taken from in front of a Highland avenue grocery yesterday afternoon. About the same time, a bicycle, the property of Salmer Larsen, of 542 North Liberty street, was taken from the parking near the Y. M. C. A., it was reported.

Woman Escapes Injury—R. W. Gilmer, 332 North Nineteenth street, reported to police yesterday that while driving west on State street and endeavoring to make the turn north on Liberty, his car had run into Mrs. G.

Will Close Two Days—The Spaulding mill will be closed Monday and Tuesday of this week. On account of some necessary repairs to the carriage which carries the logs to the saw, it was found advisable to close down for the two days.

All Set for Tuesday—Fred A. Erickson has made good on his promise of having the banquet room of the Marion hotel ready for the Cherrians Tuesday night. Yesterday the painters were putting on the finishing touches. Incidentally, it may be said that the stunts committee has also been putting on the finishing touches on some very entertaining features to be introduced during the evening of initiations.

Returns to Washington—After making a short stay in Salem, George F. Rodgers left yesterday for Washington, D. C. He will travel over the Union Pacific, Chicago & Northwestern, and from Chicago, take the Pennsylvania road direct to Washington.

Here Over Sunday—Miss Dorris Sikes, writer for the Eugene Guard, is in the city visiting friends over Sunday. She will go to Portland tomorrow for a few days' visit with friends before returning to Eugene.

Turkey Dinner—At the Gray Belle all day today and tomorrow.—Adv.

Building Home—George D. Cotton, who has been living in the old Smith homestead house, just south of Salem, is building himself a home on a tract of land just south of the Smith homestead, near Jefferson way. He expects to move into his home in about three weeks.

The Gray Belle Will Serve—A special turkey dinner all day today and Monday, $1 per plate.—Adv.

Fees of Recorder's Office—According to the annual report of Mrs. Mildred Brooks, Marion county recorder, the fees of the office for 1921 amounted to $7,494.75. The number of documents filed for record was 3840, or an average of 320 a month. Fees received for recording during December amounted to $589.25.

Hear Cantatas—This evening at Congregational church. Something superior. Repeated by request.

All Closed Monday—Monday will be an enforced day of rest as the following will be closed: State house, court house, postoffice, banks and even the meat markets and stores. If you get your mail at the general delivery of the postoffice, there is a chance between the hour of 9 and 10 o'clock in the morning.

Cars Collide—Lawrence A. Edwards, of 1253 Chemeketa street, reported to the police that while driving south on the Turner road he had been involved in a collision with E. P. Mills of Turner who was proceeding north on the highway.

Johnson Pays Fine—Claud Johnson, arrested Friday night on a charge of being drunk and disorderly, yesterday pleaded guilty when brought before City Recorder Earl Race. Judge Race imposed a fine of $40 which Johnson paid into the city's coffers.

Hoy's Wagon Stolen—Harry Elgin, of 1466 North Liberty street reported to the police that some one had stolen a small Overland wagon, the property of his son.

Bicycles Stolen—Dwight Armstrong of Highland avenue, reported to police that his wheel had been taken from in front of a Highland avenue grocery yesterday afternoon. About the same time, a bicycle, the property of Salmer Larsen, of 542 North Liberty street, was taken from the parking near the Y. M. C. A., it was reported.

Woman Escapes Injury—R. W. Gilmer, 332 North Nineteenth street, reported to police yesterday that while driving west on State street and endeavoring to make the turn north on Liberty, his car had run into Mrs. G.

Will Close Two Days—The Spaulding mill will be closed Monday and Tuesday of this week. On account of some necessary repairs to the carriage which carries the logs to the saw, it was found advisable to close down for the two days.

All Set for Tuesday—Fred A. Erickson has made good on his promise of having the banquet room of the Marion hotel ready for the Cherrians Tuesday night. Yesterday the painters were putting on the finishing touches. Incidentally, it may be said that the stunts committee has also been putting on the finishing touches on some very entertaining features to be introduced during the evening of initiations.

Returns to Washington—After making a short stay in Salem, George F. Rodgers left yesterday for Washington, D. C. He will travel over the Union Pacific, Chicago & Northwestern, and from Chicago, take the Pennsylvania road direct to Washington.

Here Over Sunday—Miss Dorris Sikes, writer for the Eugene Guard, is in the city visiting friends over Sunday. She will go to Portland tomorrow for a few days' visit with friends before returning to Eugene.

Turkey Dinner—At the Gray Belle all day today and tomorrow.—Adv.

Building Home—George D. Cotton, who has been living in the old Smith homestead house, just south of Salem, is building himself a home on a tract of land just south of the Smith homestead, near Jefferson way. He expects to move into his home in about three weeks.

The Gray Belle Will Serve—A special turkey dinner all day today and Monday, $1 per plate.—Adv.

Fees of Recorder's Office—According to the annual report of Mrs. Mildred Brooks, Marion county recorder, the fees of the office for 1921 amounted to $7,494.75. The number of documents filed for record was 3840, or an average of 320 a month. Fees received for recording during December amounted to $589.25.

Hear Cantatas—This evening at Congregational church. Something superior. Repeated by request.

All Closed Monday—Monday will be an enforced day of rest as the following will be closed: State house, court house, postoffice, banks and even the meat markets and stores. If you get your mail at the general delivery of the postoffice, there is a chance between the hour of 9 and 10 o'clock in the morning.

Cars Collide—Lawrence A. Edwards, of 1253 Chemeketa street, reported to the police that while driving south on the Turner road he had been involved in a collision with E. P. Mills of Turner who was proceeding north on the highway.

Johnson Pays Fine—Claud Johnson, arrested Friday night on a charge of being drunk and disorderly, yesterday pleaded guilty when brought before City Recorder Earl Race. Judge Race imposed a fine of $40 which Johnson paid into the city's coffers.

Hoy's Wagon Stolen—Harry Elgin, of 1466 North Liberty street reported to the police that some one had stolen a small Overland wagon, the property of his son.

Bicycles Stolen—Dwight Armstrong of Highland avenue, reported to police that his wheel had been taken from in front of a Highland avenue grocery yesterday afternoon. About the same time, a bicycle, the property of Salmer Larsen, of 542 North Liberty street, was taken from the parking near the Y. M. C. A., it was reported.

Woman Escapes Injury—R. W. Gilmer, 332 North Nineteenth street, reported to police yesterday that while driving west on State street and endeavoring to make the turn north on Liberty, his car had run into Mrs. G.

Will Close Two Days—The Spaulding mill will be closed Monday and Tuesday of this week. On account of some necessary repairs to the carriage which carries the logs to the saw, it was found advisable to close down for the two days.

All Set for Tuesday—Fred A. Erickson has made good on his promise of having the banquet room of the Marion hotel ready for the Cherrians Tuesday night. Yesterday the painters were putting on the finishing touches. Incidentally, it may be said that the stunts committee has also been putting on the finishing touches on some very entertaining features to be introduced during the evening of initiations.

Returns to Washington—After making a short stay in Salem, George F. Rodgers left yesterday for Washington, D. C. He will travel over the Union Pacific, Chicago & Northwestern, and from Chicago, take the Pennsylvania road direct to Washington.

Here Over Sunday—Miss Dorris Sikes, writer for the Eugene Guard, is in the city visiting friends over Sunday. She will go to Portland tomorrow for a few days' visit with friends before returning to Eugene.

Turkey Dinner—At the Gray Belle all day today and tomorrow.—Adv.

Building Home—George D. Cotton, who has been living in the old Smith homestead house, just south of Salem, is building himself a home on a tract of land just south of the Smith homestead, near Jefferson way. He expects to move into his home in about three weeks.

The Gray Belle Will Serve—A special turkey dinner all day today and Monday, $1 per plate.—Adv.

Fees of Recorder's Office—According to the annual report of Mrs. Mildred Brooks, Marion county recorder, the fees of the office for 1921 amounted to $7,494.75. The number of documents filed for record was 3840, or an average of 320 a month. Fees received for recording during December amounted to $589.25.

Hear Cantatas—This evening at Congregational church. Something superior. Repeated by request.

All Closed Monday—Monday will be an enforced day of rest as the following will be closed: State house, court house, postoffice, banks and even the meat markets and stores. If you get your mail at the general delivery of the postoffice, there is a chance between the hour of 9 and 10 o'clock in the morning.

Cars Collide—Lawrence A. Edwards, of 1253 Chemeketa street, reported to the police that while driving south on the Turner road he had been involved in a collision with E. P. Mills of Turner who was proceeding north on the highway.

Johnson Pays Fine—Claud Johnson, arrested Friday night on a charge of being drunk and disorderly, yesterday pleaded guilty when brought before City Recorder Earl Race. Judge Race imposed a fine of $40 which Johnson paid into the city's coffers.

Hoy's Wagon Stolen—Harry Elgin, of 1466 North Liberty street reported to the police that some one had stolen a small Overland wagon, the property of his son.

Bicycles Stolen—Dwight Armstrong of Highland avenue, reported to police that his wheel had been taken from in front of a Highland avenue grocery yesterday afternoon. About the same time, a bicycle, the property of Salmer Larsen, of 542 North Liberty street, was taken from the parking near the Y. M. C. A., it was reported.

Woman Escapes Injury—R. W. Gilmer, 332 North Nineteenth street, reported to police yesterday that while driving west on State street and endeavoring to make the turn north on Liberty, his car had run into Mrs. G.

Will Close Two Days—The Spaulding mill will be closed Monday and Tuesday of this week. On account of some necessary repairs to the carriage which carries the logs to the saw, it was found advisable to close down for the two days.

All Set for Tuesday—Fred A. Erickson has made good on his promise of having the banquet room of the Marion hotel ready for the Cherrians Tuesday night. Yesterday the painters were putting on the finishing touches. Incidentally, it may be said that the stunts committee has also been putting on the finishing touches on some very entertaining features to be introduced during the evening of initiations.

Returns to Washington—After making a short stay in Salem, George F. Rodgers left yesterday for Washington, D. C. He will travel over the Union Pacific, Chicago & Northwestern, and from Chicago, take the Pennsylvania road direct to Washington.

Here Over Sunday—Miss Dorris Sikes, writer for the Eugene Guard, is in the city visiting friends over Sunday. She will go to Portland tomorrow for a few days' visit with friends before returning to Eugene.

Turkey Dinner—At the Gray Belle all day today and tomorrow.—Adv.

Building Home—George D. Cotton, who has been living in the old Smith homestead house, just south of Salem, is building himself a home on a tract of land just south of the Smith homestead, near Jefferson way. He expects to move into his home in about three weeks.

The Gray Belle Will Serve—A special turkey dinner all day today and Monday, $1 per plate.—Adv.

Fees of Recorder's Office—According to the annual report of Mrs. Mildred Brooks, Marion county recorder, the fees of the office for 1921 amounted to $7,494.75. The number of documents filed for record was 3840, or an average of 320 a month. Fees received for recording during December amounted to $589.25.

Hear Cantatas—This evening at Congregational church. Something superior. Repeated by request.

All Closed Monday—Monday will be an enforced day of rest as the following will be closed: State house, court house, postoffice, banks and even the meat markets and stores. If you get your mail at the general delivery of the postoffice, there is a chance between the hour of 9 and 10 o'clock in the morning.

Cars Collide—Lawrence A. Edwards, of 1253 Chemeketa street, reported to the police that while driving south on the Turner road he had been involved in a collision with E. P. Mills of Turner who was proceeding north on the highway.

Johnson Pays Fine—Claud Johnson, arrested Friday night on a charge of being drunk and disorderly, yesterday pleaded guilty when brought before City Recorder Earl Race. Judge Race imposed a fine of $40 which Johnson paid into the city's coffers.

Hoy's Wagon Stolen—Harry Elgin, of 1466 North Liberty street reported to the police that some one had stolen a small Overland wagon, the property of his son.

Bicycles Stolen—Dwight Armstrong of Highland avenue, reported to police that his wheel had been taken from in front of a Highland avenue grocery yesterday afternoon. About the same time, a bicycle, the property of Salmer Larsen, of 542 North Liberty street, was taken from the parking near the Y. M. C. A., it was reported.

Woman Escapes Injury—R. W. Gilmer, 332 North Nineteenth street, reported to police yesterday that while driving west on State street and endeavoring to make the turn north on Liberty, his car had run into Mrs. G.

Will Close Two Days—The Spaulding mill will be closed Monday and Tuesday of this week. On account of some necessary repairs to the carriage which carries the logs to the saw, it was found advisable to close down for the two days.

All Set for Tuesday—Fred A. Erickson has made good on his promise of having the banquet room of the Marion hotel ready for the Cherrians Tuesday night. Yesterday the painters were putting on the finishing touches. Incidentally, it may be said that the stunts committee has also been putting on the finishing touches on some very entertaining features to be introduced during the evening of initiations.

Returns to Washington—After making a short stay in Salem, George F. Rodgers left yesterday for Washington, D. C. He will travel over the Union Pacific, Chicago & Northwestern, and from Chicago, take the Pennsylvania road direct to Washington.

Here Over Sunday—Miss Dorris Sikes, writer for the Eugene Guard, is in the city visiting friends over Sunday. She will go to Portland tomorrow for a few days' visit with friends before returning to Eugene.

Turkey Dinner—At the Gray Belle all day today and tomorrow.—Adv.

Building Home—George D. Cotton, who has been living in the old Smith homestead house, just south of Salem, is building himself a home on a tract of land just south of the Smith homestead, near Jefferson way. He expects to move into his home in about three weeks.

The Gray Belle Will Serve—A special turkey dinner all day today and Monday, $1 per plate.—Adv.

Fees of Recorder's Office—According to the annual report of Mrs. Mildred Brooks, Marion county recorder, the fees of the office for 1921 amounted to $7,494.75. The number of documents filed for record was 3840, or an average of 320 a month. Fees received for recording during December amounted to $589.25.

Hear Cantatas—This evening at Congregational church. Something superior. Repeated by request.

All Closed Monday—Monday will be an enforced day of rest as the following will be closed: State house, court house, postoffice, banks and even the meat markets and stores. If you get your mail at the general delivery of the postoffice, there is a chance between the hour of 9 and 10 o'clock in the morning.

Cars Collide—Lawrence A. Edwards, of 1253 Chemeketa street, reported to the police that while driving south on the Turner road he had been involved in a collision with E. P. Mills of Turner who was proceeding north on the highway.

Johnson Pays Fine—Claud Johnson, arrested Friday night on a charge of being drunk and disorderly, yesterday pleaded guilty when brought before City Recorder Earl Race. Judge Race imposed a fine of $40 which Johnson paid into the city's coffers.

Hoy's Wagon Stolen—Harry Elgin, of 1466 North Liberty street reported to the police that some one had stolen a small Overland wagon, the property of his son.

Bicycles Stolen—Dwight Armstrong of Highland avenue, reported to police that his wheel had been taken from in front of a Highland avenue grocery yesterday afternoon. About the same time, a bicycle, the property of Salmer Larsen, of 542 North Liberty street, was taken from the parking near the Y. M. C. A., it was reported.

Woman Escapes Injury—R. W. Gilmer, 332 North Nineteenth street, reported to police yesterday that while driving west on State street and endeavoring to make the turn north on Liberty, his car had run into Mrs. G.

Will Close Two Days—The Spaulding mill will be closed Monday and Tuesday of this week. On account of some necessary repairs to the carriage which carries the logs to the saw, it was found advisable to close down for the two days.

All Set for Tuesday—Fred A. Erickson has made good on his promise of having the banquet room of the Marion hotel ready for the Cherrians Tuesday night. Yesterday the painters were putting on the finishing touches. Incidentally, it may be said that the stunts committee has also been putting on the finishing touches on some very entertaining features to be introduced during the evening of initiations.

Returns to Washington—After making a short stay in Salem, George F. Rodgers left yesterday for Washington, D. C. He will travel over the Union Pacific, Chicago & Northwestern, and from Chicago, take the Pennsylvania road direct to Washington.

Here Over Sunday—Miss Dorris Sikes, writer for the Eugene Guard, is in the city visiting friends over Sunday. She will go to Portland tomorrow for a few days' visit with friends before returning to Eugene.

Turkey Dinner—At the Gray Belle all day today and tomorrow.—Adv.

Building Home—George D. Cotton, who has been living in the old Smith homestead house, just south of Salem, is building himself a home on a tract of land just south of the Smith homestead, near Jefferson way. He expects to move into his home in about three weeks.

The Gray Belle Will Serve—A special turkey dinner all day today and Monday, $1 per plate.—Adv.

Fees of Recorder's Office—According to the annual report of Mrs. Mildred Brooks, Marion county recorder, the fees of the office for 1921 amounted to $7,494.75. The number of documents filed for record was 3840, or an average of 320 a month. Fees received for recording during December amounted to $589.25.

Hear Cantatas—This evening at Congregational church. Something superior. Repeated by request.

All Closed Monday—Monday will be an enforced day of rest as the following will be closed: State house, court house, postoffice, banks and even the meat markets and stores. If you get your mail at the general delivery of the postoffice, there is a chance between the hour of 9 and 10 o'clock in the morning.

Cars Collide—Lawrence A. Edwards, of 1253 Chemeketa street, reported to the police that while driving south on the Turner road he had been involved in a collision with E. P. Mills of Turner who was proceeding north on the highway.

Johnson Pays Fine—Claud Johnson, arrested Friday night on a charge of being drunk and disorderly, yesterday pleaded guilty when brought before City Recorder Earl Race. Judge Race imposed a fine of $40 which Johnson paid into the city's coffers.

Hoy's Wagon Stolen—Harry Elgin, of 1466 North Liberty street reported to the police that some one had stolen a small Overland wagon, the property of his son.

Bicycles Stolen—Dwight Armstrong of Highland avenue, reported to police that his wheel had been taken from in front of a Highland avenue grocery yesterday afternoon. About the same time, a bicycle, the property of Salmer Larsen, of 542 North Liberty street, was taken from the parking near the Y. M. C. A., it was reported.

Woman Escapes Injury—R. W. Gilmer, 332 North Nineteenth street, reported to police yesterday that while driving west on State street and endeavoring to make the turn north on Liberty, his car had run into Mrs. G.

Will Close Two Days—The Spaulding mill will be closed Monday and Tuesday of this week. On account of some necessary repairs to the carriage which carries the logs to the saw, it was found advisable to close down for the two days.

All Set for Tuesday—Fred A. Erickson has made good on his promise of having the banquet room of the Marion hotel ready for the Cherrians Tuesday night. Yesterday the painters were putting on the finishing touches. Incidentally, it may be said that the stunts committee has also been putting on the finishing touches on some very entertaining features to be introduced during the evening of initiations.

Returns to Washington—After making a short stay in Salem, George F. Rodgers left yesterday for Washington, D. C. He will travel over the Union Pacific, Chicago & Northwestern, and from Chicago, take the Pennsylvania road direct to Washington.

Here Over Sunday—Miss Dorris Sikes, writer for the Eugene Guard, is in the city visiting friends over Sunday. She will go to Portland tomorrow for a few days' visit with friends before returning to Eugene.

Turkey Dinner—At the Gray Belle all day today and tomorrow.—Adv.

Building Home—George D. Cotton, who has been living in the old Smith homestead house, just south of Salem, is building himself a home on a tract of land just south of the Smith homestead, near Jefferson way. He expects to move into his home in about three weeks.

The Gray Belle Will Serve—A special turkey dinner all day today and Monday, $1 per plate.—Adv.

Fees of Recorder's Office—According to the annual report of Mrs. Mildred Brooks, Marion county recorder, the fees of the office for 1921 amounted to $7,494.75. The number of documents filed for record was 3840, or an average of 320 a month. Fees received for recording during December amounted to $589.25.

Hear Cantatas—This evening at Congregational church. Something superior. Repeated by request.

All Closed Monday—Monday will be an enforced day of rest as the following will be closed: State house, court house, postoffice, banks and even the meat markets and stores. If you get your mail at the general delivery of the postoffice, there is a chance between the hour of 9 and 10 o'clock in the morning.

Cars Collide—Lawrence A. Edwards, of 1253 Chemeketa street, reported to the police that while driving south on the Turner road he had been involved in a collision with E. P. Mills of Turner who was proceeding north on the highway.

Johnson Pays Fine—Claud Johnson, arrested Friday night on a charge of being drunk and disorderly, yesterday pleaded guilty when brought before City Recorder Earl Race. Judge Race imposed a fine of $40 which Johnson paid into the city's coffers.

Hoy's Wagon Stolen—Harry Elgin, of 1466 North Liberty street reported to the police that some one had stolen a small Overland wagon, the property of his son.

Bicycles Stolen—Dwight Armstrong of Highland avenue, reported to police that his wheel had been taken from in front of a Highland avenue grocery yesterday afternoon. About the same time, a bicycle, the property of Salmer Larsen, of 542 North Liberty street, was taken from the parking near the Y. M. C. A., it was reported.

Woman Escapes Injury—R. W. Gilmer, 332 North Nineteenth street, reported to police yesterday that while driving west on State street and endeavoring to make the turn north on Liberty, his car had run into Mrs. G.

Will Close Two Days—The Spaulding mill will be closed Monday and Tuesday of this week. On account of some necessary repairs to the carriage which carries the logs to the saw, it was found advisable to close down for the two days.

All Set for Tuesday—Fred A.