GERMAN GOLD SOUGHT

Dynamite and Arduous Toil Fail to Bring Trove from Secret Cache

PAPEETE, Tahiti, Dec. 27 .-The year 1921 has been the open season for treasure hunting in the islands. Every month or so a report that the vast treasure (alleged to have been buried some 60 years ago) on the Island of Pinaki had at last been located, has induced a new company of adventurous Papeete capitalists equip a fresh expedition only to return with nothing more than a goodly coat of sunburn and backaching from the strenuous exercise of digging for weeks in the

What a tribute that occasion, under the action of good charges of dynamite; but the "Genesee" sailed away leaving a new treasure. The tale is, that about 50 y ears ago a Chillan warship deposited on the island of Moorea (the island close by Tahiti) a treasure of gold belonging to the Chilian government of that time-as a measure to keep it from falling into the hands of instant, looking around with as-sumed interest at the trees, then revolution must have been successful; for none returned to take away the gold, the story runs. Years afterward, however, Protestant missionary at Moores received a letter from a priest in Chile enclosing an outline drawing easily recognized as the outline of the mountain peaks about Opunchy Bay in Moorea, asking a powerful loping movement for information of the location of
