

GRAND THEATRE 18

WEDNESDAY, JAN'Y 18

Mail Orders now—Seats January 17
Prices $2, $1.50, $1 Plus Tax.

The PLAY THAT BARES A WOMAN'S SOUL

The Most Welcomed Play in America

Richard Walton Tully Presents
The Pulsating Romance

The BIRD of PARADISE

A Brilliant New Cast With Ann Reader

Why the "Bird of Paradise" Has Lived for 10 Years

The Theme A fascinating love story, depicting the sterling virtues and weaknesses of mankind.

The Production Reveals the enchanting atmosphere of the Hawaiian islands.

The Music Heightens the illusions by songs and weird melodies strummed by a band of Hawaiians.

The Volcano Scene Will Amaze You

FLARES AND FLICKERS

Westerners who attend the Bligh theater today will recognize "Sandy Brouke," "Soda Water," "Manning" and "Morman Peters," the three principal characters of "Action," the Universal photodrama with Hoot Gibson in the starring role of "Sandy Brouke." The three men battled their way through one of the most romantic chapters in the history of the west. J. Allan Dunn recalled the story for "The Mascotte of the Three Star," which was filmed as "Action" by Universal as a starring vehicle for Hoot Gibson.

Out of the depths of New York's East Side comes a screen story of fascinating character and striking realism. It is the Whitman Bennett production, "Salvation Nell," which began an engagement at the Liberty theater today.

Pauline Starke, in the title role, reveals herself as a wonderful actress portraying a strong dramatic and emotional part. She is seen as the forlorn little Nell, who, discharged from a sweatshop, gets a position in the luncheon room of Hash House Sal because of her love for the stalwart, but hard drinking Jim Platt, she is driven to a still lower level, becoming a saloon scrubwoman. Then the Salvation Army claims her and her true character triumphs. The great dramatic moment in this photoplay comes when she effects the salvation of Jim.

Once more Norma Talmadge has turned to a famous stage success for a motion picture production, for her latest picture, distributed by Associated First National Pictures, Inc., and the attraction at the Liberty theater, beginning next Sunday is "The Wonderful Thing," which was a most successful starring vehicle for Miss Jane Eagles on the stage. Miss Talmadge portrays the role of Jacqueline Boggs, the part played in the stage version by Miss Eagles.

The Violin Duo, in a revue of popular songs at the piano and musical numbers on the novelty musical instruments. The violin invented and made by Miss Harriett Tryon in selections which are splendidly woven into a very desirable entertainment. On the vaudeville bill at the Bligh today.

"O'Neill and O'Neill," two clever eccentric comedians, both with ready wit and an abundance of comedy, songs and laughable patter which they put over for laughing purposes in a splendid manner which proves they have talent and ability that will make them popular favorites. On the vaudeville bill at the Bligh today.

Leonard Foster in cowboy costume does many difficult tricks with the rope or lariat. His performance is done in a graceful and easy manner which will prove entertaining and interesting. On the vaudeville bill at the Bligh today.

Dancing Wilbars, a versatile pair of novelty dancers in a choice selection of dancing numbers, done in a lively manner displaying graceful movements and wearing many pretty and costly costumes. On the vaudeville bill at the Bligh today.

Art Acord, who won the World's championship at the big "Stampede," the rodeo held in New York City in 1916, and winner of the 1921 rodeo championship, held in California last spring, will be featured in the chaptered photodrama, "Winners of the West," to be shown for the first time at the Bligh theater today.

Acord learned how to punch and ride on his father's ranch in Oklahoma and later ran away to Wyoming, becoming a regular cowboy. At 20 he was famous for his riding and his daring.

A perfectly good building was destroyed in the making of Lionel Barrymore's latest motion picture tracks of the pioneer railroad through the Alaskan wilderness before the terrible winter closed down on the workers, and the desperate opposition of enemies in human form a profusion of high spots that keep intense interest suspended from start to finish.

The Grand theater announces that the Pantazes bill Monday will consist of comedy, music, dancing and some superior specialties will have a place on the bill at the Grand theater Monday matinee and evening.

Jesse Blair Sterling and her Seven Glasgow Maids in an elaborate production featuring Scottish songs and dances. It is called the "Eneoes from Bonnie Scotland."

Silda Stanley, a young girl who calls herself "Little Miss Nobody," Miss Stanley is a pretty girl as well as being very clever.

Four sons from Japan are the Ishikawa Brothers, and there is no more sensational athletics offered in astonishing and daring feats of equilibrium and acrobatics.

Rangin' tram ballroom to modern Jazz the "Smart Times and Dance Originalities." The act is said to be handsomely staged and costumed.

Johnsone, Fox and Gibson are responsible for an amusing oddity that they call "Bluff," eccentric dancing and singing are mingled in their entertainment.

Harry Lamore the high class entertainer, direct from Europe "It's a knockout."

More absorbing than the "Witching Hour," more sensational than "The Thirteenth Chair," is the H. B. Warner pictorial triumph "One Hour Before Dawn," which comes to the Grand Tuesday and Wednesday.

STAYTON NEWS

STAYTON, Ore., Jan. 7.—(Special to The Statesman)—The Commercial hotel building which has stood empty and idle for some time, is being repaired and thoroughly renovated by the overseer of the property, George Spaniol, and will soon be reopened to the public under new management.

Mrs. Preston, who has leased the property and will run the hotel, is said to be an experienced hotel woman and expects to open the place within a short time. Stayton people are glad to see the improvement, which will add greatly to that part of town.

After an illness of three days Miss Sallie Taylor, passed away at the farm home three miles east of Stayton Wednesday night, just at the dawning of her 66th birthday. Miss Taylor was a member of the Baptist church, and of one of the best respected families in this part of the county.

The funeral service was held from the Baptist church Friday at 12:30 o'clock, and interment was made at the Rock oint cemetery.

G. T. Rawley of Amusville was a business visitor in Stayton on Thursday.

Phillip Fischer a prominent citizen of the Victor Point district, was looking after business interests in Stayton Thursday.

Andy Titel closed a deal yesterday for the purchase of the Lizzie Bilyea residence property in Stayton, from the layoff estate George Morrow of Seio is administrator of the estate.

William Cladek made a business trip to Portland the week, returning Wednesday, with a bunch of new cars. Mr. Cladek is the new Ford dealer.

Melvin Gildw and family of Amusville were here on a grief business trip Monday.

Miss Emma Hendricks and a cousin from Idaho, who is visiting at the Hendricks home near Su blimity, were in Stayton Thursday.

Forest Mack and Mr. Burland, two of Stayton's business men, were recent Portland visitors.

Chris Cramer and wife were in from their farm home on route 1, Friday for a day's shopping.

Mrs. Harvey Skelton and Mrs. Heatt and daughter, drove over from Lyons Friday and spent the afternoon among the various business houses shopping.

Miss Maycel Montgomery who is teaching a district school above Mosama is taking an enforced layoff, on account of an attack

Capital Punishment Test Case is Set for Hearing

The Elvie D. Kerby habeas corpus case to test out the validity of the Oregon capital punishment law has been set for hearing in the supreme court on January 25. Whether Kerby and several other prisoners in the state penitentiary are to hang for murder, according to the sentences now hanging over them will depend on the outcome of the case.

Prohibition has done another good thing for the country. It has cut off alcoholists who used to think they could sing

Matinee 2 p. m. MONDAY Evening 6:45 and 8:45

PANTAGES

SEASON'S MUSICAL TREAT

Vaudeville

JESSIE BLAIR STIRLING AND HER GLASGOW MAIDS IN "ECHOES OF BONNIE SCOTLAND"

ISHIKAWA BROS. JAPANESE EQUILIBRISTS

PEDRICK & DEVERE DANCE ORIGINALITIES

JOHNSON FOX & GIBSON "BLUFF"

ADDED ATTRACTION POPULAR COMEDienne ZELDA SANTLEY AS "LITTLE MISS EVERYBODY"

ADDED ATTRACTION FRED & TOMMY HAYDEN IN "ARTISTIC ODDITIES"

GRAND

A WANT AD. IN THE STATESMAN WILL BRING RESULTS

LITTLE DANCERS FROM FRANCE MAKE BIG HIT.

"Stirring melodrama with all of the spectacular features and none of the crudities of this popular style of entertainment," is the classification that the motion picture officials have given to the new big Rex Beach production of his great Alaskan railroad story, "The Iron Trail," which will be the feature at the Oregon theater, beginning Sunday next.

Snow and ice, rain and thaw, and the feverish rush to lay the

There were a great many Salemites who missed seeing Rudolph Valentino and Agnes Ayres in the Oregon's recent showing of "The Sheik," and after repeated requests the Oregon will show this picture again, one day only, Wednesday, January 11.

Mrs. Preston, who has leased the property and will run the hotel, is said to be an experienced hotel woman and expects to open the place within a short time. Stayton people are glad to see the improvement, which will add greatly to that part of town.

After an illness of three days Miss Sallie Taylor, passed away at the farm home three miles east of Stayton Wednesday night, just at the dawning of her 66th birthday. Miss Taylor was a member of

LIBERTY

4 Days Starting TODAY

The Drama that Carried the Nation by Storm
The Story of a Girl Who Was Down But Never Out

The Play That Lives For Ever

WHITMAN BENNETT PRESENTS his personally supervised production

"Salvation Nell"

Directed by Kenneth Webb

A FIRST NATIONAL ATTRACTION

COMEDY—NEWS

Continuous Show Daily 2 p. m. to 11

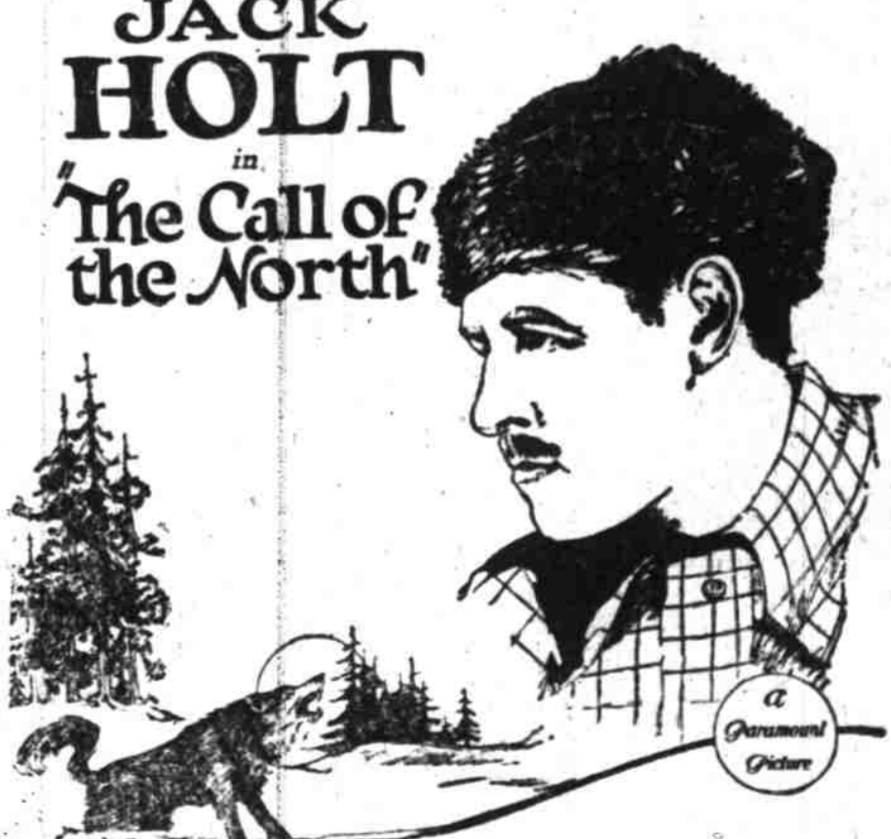

TODAY—TOMORROW—TUESDAY

Today 2—4—5:45—7:30—9:15 Monday—Tuesday 2—7—9 p. m.

JESSE L. LASKY PRESENTS

JACK HOLT

in "The Call of the North"

He heard the call to a real man's adventure and dared to go where his foes forbade.

Knowing well that the wolf pack awaited every beaten man who took the "Trail of Death."

The rest is a drama of struggle and love as fierce as the primitive wilds.

Cast includes Noah Berry and Midge Bellamy

From the Novel, "Conjuror's House," by Stewart Edward White and the Play by George Broadhurst

Pathé News Pictorial

"No Parking" For Laughing Purposes Only

Special Musical Interpretation by L. Carlos Meier

OREGON

LAST TIMES TODAY Continuous from 2 till 11 25c and 10c

WANDA HAWLEY

The Smile Girl in

"HER FACE VALUE"

From the Saturday Evening Post story "The Girl who paid dividends"

Also NEWS SENNETT EVENTS COMEDY

BERNICE HUTTO At the Organ

PANTAGES MONDAY

GRAND THEATRE

VAUDEVILLE

TODAY ONLY

4 BIG FEATURE ACTS

The Biggest and Best Show in Town 35c
Feature Pictures Too

All New Show Monday

BLIGH THEATRE

Zeta and Nero Lockford, two French impersonators, came direct from the Folies Bergere in Paris to America to appear in vaudeville. Their first appearance in this country was a distinct success. They are brother and sister and have been on the stage since they were 6 years of age. Their biggest hit is their impersonation of Charlie Chaplin. They will tour the country before they return.