Card of Thanks—We wish to thank our many friends, the industrial accident commission and employees of the gas company for their sympathy and beautiful floral offerings during our recent bereavement of our son and sister, Mrs. E. M. Anderson, Anna and Magdalene Peterson and Andrew Petersen. Adv.

Will Address Artisans—Dr. G. C. Eshelman, former resident of Salem, but now of Portland, will address members of the Artisans lodge Thursday evening. He is supreme medical director of the United Artisans.

Liberty Band to Entertain—The Liberty band having been entertained a few weeks ago by the Turner band, there will be a return engagement at an early date. Several Livesley musicians will also attend the Liberty affair. With the Turner and Liberty bands combined they can present an entertainment with 40 players.

No War Tax on Express—One of the internal revenue taxes taken off the first of the year was that of 5 per cent on all shipments made by express. While it is stated that people in the United States will save about $1,200,000 a year by eliminating this tax, coming down to a bearing estimate it figures out that the people of Salem and vicinity will save about $600 a month, according to W. T. Hickey, local manager.

Getting Ready—William J. Culver, county road master, says that as spring is coming he is having the county road making machinery gone over and put into working condition. This includes putting tractors and trucks in the finest of condition. Just at present the machinery is properly housed in the county's barns on Center street. As soon as weather conditions and roads permit, Mr. Culver says some of the roads to be paved will be smoothed down to a uniform base. With the paving machinery in good condition and with the mileage already graded and prepared for paving, Mr. Culver hopes to lay at least 25 miles of hard surface roads the coming season.

Card of Thanks—We wish to thank all of our neighbors and friends, especially of Central Congregational church, for their many words and expressions of sympathy for us during the recent illness and death of our beloved daughter and sister, Mildred.

Boy Scout Week—Boy Scout week will be observed in Salem February 9 to 14, according to Howard Zinzer, scout executive. On February 10 there will be put on a conclave, at which time there will be presented special stunts of Boy Scouts. During Boy Scout week there will be a meeting of the court of honor, to which is assigned the duty of presenting awards and medals to Boy Scouts for meritorious service.

He Got Even—A bath tub story is told by a member of a local fraternity of Willamette university. During the course of disciplinary action one of the members was taken to the bath tub to be given his punishment with an immersion of cold water. The immersion was made and without much trouble. The trouble came the next day when the drain pipe from the bath tub had to be cleaned. It is now rumored that this member is im-mune from bath tubbings hereafter.

Of Interest to Elks—The program of the Elks on Thursday evening of this week is attracting much attention among members of the lodge. The special attraction will be the address to be made on taxes by T. B. Kay.

Old Timer Coming—Another old timer, who will come to Salem to participate in the 50th birthday celebration of Haj D. Patton, is Charles S. Riley of Portland. He was a former resident of Salem and for a number of years was in the clothing business.

Thinking About It—For a number of years there has existed in Albany a social organization among men known as the Monday Round table. It has been hinted the organization was due to the fact that Monday is generally washday in Albany, and the men folks thought it more convenient to take their luncheon in town. Anyhow, a number of Rotarians visited Albany Monday and talked over with members of the Monday Round Table club the advisability of lining up with a new movement and officially becoming Rotarians. The Albany men are taking a week to think it over.

Captain Milner in City—Capt. Lawrence A. Milner, captain of the Multnomah county armory and adjutant of the 162d regiment, was in the city yesterday attending to official business. Mrs. Milner accompanied the captain and they were entertained by Capt. and Mrs. T. E. Rilea.

Banta Pledged—The Phi Kappa Pi fraternity, of Willamette university, has accepted the pledging of Harold Banta as a house member. Mr. Banta is from Waldport, Or., and is enrolled as a freshman in the law school of Willamette university.

View From Capitol Street—In answering the suit for $640 damages, filed by H. D. Drew against the Southern Pacific for damages to his automobile when struck by a train last summer when the car was driven by Mrs. S. E. Drew, while driving across the track where it crosses the street, the railroad relates: "Although the railroad crossing was plainly visible for a considerable distance along Capitol street south from the Union street, said Mrs. S. E. Drew did not stop, look and listen for the approach of said train on said track." This is the crossing that the city council once attempted to compel the railroad to install a ringing bell device, to warn passengers of approaching train. There has at other times been attempted city legislation to remove the danger from this crossing.

Clubs Photographed—Yesterday both glee clubs of Willamette university were visitors at a local photo gallery and had their photos taken. These pictures will be used to advertise the coming tours. Professor Hobson has been constantly training his singers and when they appear in concert there will be a fine treat in store.

Will Make Wool Dress—The home economics class of Willamette university plans to make a wool dress for some one, according to the announcement made from the chapel platform.

Mace Released—Out again, in again, out again, is now the record made by Andrew Mace during the past two days, since his arrest upon an assault charge. Later re-arrested in connection with alleged issuance of worthless checks, Mace is said to have repaid the amount of the check, thereby securing withdrawal of the complaint.

Impression Corrected—In justice to the city council

Pay of Civil Service—For those interested in securing positions with the civil service, there is now opportunity for the new year. Posters have been placed in the Salem postoffice lobby, in which the following salaries are offered when working for the government: telegraph operator, from $900 to $1800 a year; typist, from $900 to $1200 yearly; investigator of marketing of live stock, $2400 to $4000 a year; physician, three grades, $2400 to $5000.
The secret service man is paid $5 a day by the government if under the civil service. Married internes are valued at $1200 a year and maintenance and trained nurses from $720 to $1700. Those interested may receive information at the postoffice.

Reckless Driver Fined—Forrest Fulton, local youth with a reported propensity for sensational auto driving was arrested yesterday upon a charge of reckless driving and was fined $20 by City Recorder Earl Race. According to the police, Fulton made life interesting for Market street pedestrians.

Oregon Lawyers at Trial—Of the assemblage of legal talent arrayed in the Kamp-Osborne suit now in progress in Department No. 1 circuit court, there are three native Oregonians. E. V. Littlefield of Portland, was born in Yamhill county, and R. L. Connor, of McMinnville and Walter Winslow of Salem, were born in Polk county.
