Downward Swing in Wheat Is Caused by News Coming from Grain Region

CHICAGO, an. 10 .- Assertions that the drought in the southwest had been broken did much today to give a downward swing to wheat. Prices closed heavy 2 5-8 to 3 lower, with May 1.08 3-4 to 1.09 and July 98 1-8 to 98 1-4. Corn lost half to 3-4 and oats 3-4 @ 7-8. In provisions there were gains of 21/2 to 15 cents.

Rains which fell where most needed in the winter wheat belt and which many traders said might prove the salvation of the Kansas crop gave bears a big advantage. With longs unloading and the market nearly devoid of support, sentiment against the bulls received additional impetus from reports that Argentine wheat was selling in Europe at five to ten cents under United States harad winter wheat shipped by way of the Gulf of Mexico. On the decline. July wheat was forced charply below $1. The amount of buying after the market went into the nineties was but little enlarged and the finish was at almost bottom figures. Corn and oats showed considerable resistance in selling pressure; excellent demand for corn being in evidence from the seaboard. Besides, there was a fair southern call for oats
