THE OREGON STATESMAN, SALEM, OREGON

which the floating supply is believed to be so small as to make them readily available for speculative purposes.

Change in Character of Business Noted on Stock Exchange Yesterday

STEEL IS ON UP GRADE

Dealings in Foreign Exchange Light and Without Notable Changes

NEW YORK. Jan. 19 .- For the first time in a week the stock market today indicated an excess of offerings over demand, the list recording irregular or uneven changes throughout the active session.

The market's reversal was pop- rising sharply over their issue ularly attributed to the firmer pr'ce. tone of money. Call loans opened gregated $16,275,000. at 4 1/2 per cent, rising to 5 per cent at mid day with a 6 per cent rate in the final hours. The only stocks to hold their recent gains were specialties dominated by professionals, and other shares in Gulf States steel added almost 20 points to its steady upward movement and closed at $2, a net gain of 16% points. This represents an advance of 31 points thus far this week. The reactionary side of the market was featured by motors.

oils, tobaccos and various miscellangous issues, including textiles and the major equipments at declines of 1 to 3 points. Rails again were listless, investment or dividend paying issues being only remarks: occasionally quoted and then mainly at concessions. Sales amounted to $35,000 shares. including British and French bills always kind and affectionate, were light and without notable changes, aside from the easier tone of sterling, marks and guilders. The Bank of England weekiy report disclosed further years of our lives I can only strengthening of that institution's speak in the highest terms of him liabilities reserves. Bonds were moderately unsettled by the tighter maney market.

Liberty issues with one exception closing at declines. Most foreign issues were steady, but rails displayed hesitancy aside from the predicts new Southern railway 6 1/2 's, these Total sales, par value, ag-

Skating Championship

ST. JOHNS, N. B., Jan. 19 .-Joe Moor of New York, international skating champion, wore the dying agony, with intentional And as for women who may be senior Canadian championship at cruelty. 880 yards in the tourcament at al heat in 1:35. treme M. Leonard of St. Johns. won under 12 years in 51 1-5 seconds Duke Donovan of St Paul, won farmers and poultry raisers who the three-mile final, fintshing in 9 minutes, 34 1-2 seconds. it is surely time that steps were and Hungary has been terminated. But how many Cuban soldiers fought in Hungary?

Another Sleepless Night?

Tribute to Watt Shipp Editor Statesman: As a tribute to the memory ow Watt Shipp. lately deceased in Salem, allow me the privilege of the following As children we lived side by side for many years, attending slaughterhouse and all it stands the same school and sabbath for is something far removed from Dealings in foreign exchange, school. As a young had he was our daily life. We never see it. It honest, truthful and manly. As I look back on those many happy years of childhood which so soon merged into the later and feel that I would like to give to his memory these few words. Watt's Pal of Childhood. Humaneness Urged Editor Statesman: In the arti- where men pursue their lasks with cle printed below, Dr. Rowley hands and clothing crimson-dyed; condislaughterhouse tions at their best which is cer- struggle in the agony of death. tainly bad enough. Can the read- The choice steak brings no vision er just imagine what the poor animals must suffer when the eyes; the tender chop no sugges-butcher is incompetent or deliber- tion of a lamb hanging by the leg ately cruel as is often the case ! and mutely bleeding to death. The We know of instances where cat- sights and smells, the filth that Is Won by New York Man tie were slowly beaten to death is a part of the slaughtering pen. through want of skill on the part are as unthought of things as counted upon to champion almost

The present method of killing every righteous cause, here is a realm of cruelty they simply can-Lilly Lake today, taking the fin- poultry is also brutal in the exnot enter to see with their own Dr. Andrews, agent for the

the final at 440 yards for boys Stat: Humane society, is daily receiving letters from prominent are anxious to see a change in these distressing conditions, and

The state of war between Cuba taken to effect such a change, Sincerely, E.R.C.

An Indictment of the American Slaughterhouse

By DR. FRANCIS H. DOWLEY resident of the Massachusetts Soclety for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals.

By as careful an estimate as 1 ters and refuges; but the cattle, nave been able to make from the the swine that die each day, the examination of federal and state lambs that are led to the slaughter without a cry .- these we see tatistics, something over a hunired million of cattle, sheep and not, think not of, so out of our wine are slaughtered every year world they seem to be. n this country in what we may Present Method: Described speak of as its public and private You must permit me briefly to laughterhouses. One has but to describe to you the methods that think of what is involved in this characterize the average slaughstatement to understand that, hutering establishment as it exists man nature being what it is, the among us. The larger animals, traffic in meat being carried on as such as the bullock and the cow. it is, now in vast wholesale estabishments, and now in the obscurhave we as humane organizations failed to do our duty, that no na-tional or state legislation with regard to methods of slaughter has beer secured that has materially changed conditions. How many of the convictions for cruelty, reported by us year by year, are for crusties occurring in slaughterhouses? And yet that these places are the daily scenes of many un- Thirteenth Annual Event in Portland Promises to Top necessary inflictions of pain, not an agent of any humane society All Others Why Present Methods Are Tolerated

questions.

experience.

The lame, or galled, or worn-out horse is in evidence to all, in tient cattle stands upon the siding as our train passes; the home-

master.—these are daily coming to our attention, and we prosecute

for the cruelty and build our shel-

ever the Jewish method of slaughter is used, as it is wherever cattle are killed for the Hebrew trade

the animal is destroyed while in full consciousness and without previous stunning, by the use of the knife which is drawn deeply last from loss of blood. This practice involves no little cruelty

With the smaller animals,

together, over a hook, and then to

I have stood, more than once.

with watch in my hand and timed the death struggle of many of opens wide the throat.

out their throats.

The explanation of the public indifference to this subject is doubtless in the fact that the municipal auditorium January 23 to 28. The display is to be the biggest ever, more automobiles. more styles and greater, vareity is seldom called to our attention. having been assured the management through the fact that every Few ever think of visiting it. Here and there will be found a map who, as a boy, followed his the opining drawing. This has cariosity far enough to see some animal butchered, but the chances given the matter a moment's from the top of the big building thought. He sees the meat on his to the lower floor will be filled table, but there rises in his mind no picture of the shambles where the floors run red with blood.

business. Announcement of the show where cattle, sheep and swine states that this is to be an exhibition of values. Most makes are now down to pre-war price levels. ed that they are at to slight their o, gaping throat and pleading but the present automobile going work. under the old name can hardly be compared to the vahicle of those days. Another important feature of the 1922 display is that the prodof the bufcher and where they though they pertained to the life uct to be shown is the first prowere needlessly tortured in their of men in the jungles of Africa. duced by the standard American factories since getting to their new basis of competition. In the months following the war in what are now called the "boom" months no factory had time to eyes. Few of them could endure consider improving its product. the sight. Many a strong man who The demand for cars from a world has forced himself to stand for a starved by war was so great that single hour amid such scenes has quality or improvement in the gone away faint and sick at heart. cars could not be thought of. The resolved never to repeat the sad only problem was more automebile3.

> Then came the relaxation and now the natural product of a letcity or country, who have eyes to up in the demand. Aiready seversee. The long train load of pa. al of the old makes have appeared with an automobile that resembles the old in name only. This is less cat, the starved dog without a particularly true in the low and medium price fields. Automobiles that for years seemed to have arrived at a certain standard are now announced in entirely new designs from motor to top. Old makes show the change in a different way. Certain highly standardized lines considered perféction almost in motor car making. appear with still greater refinement or else in various luxurious body models. But through it all is the idea of new value-values that almost startle when one thinks of what a

are generally stunned either by a plied facilities to escape superviblow which shatters the brain or, sion and inspection

FRIDAY MORNING, JANUARY 20, 1922

Each afternoon and night there will be concerts by the Stoudenmeyer exposition band

good car cost only a few months

In connection with the automobile show is to be an unusually comprehensive display of equipment, tools and accessories of all sorts-things that aid either in making a car more serviceable or more economical.

All railroads have granted special rates to Portland for this event

Smiff-I always try to go to early movie shows; instead of the late ones Midkiff-Why? What's the difference ?

Smiff-The actors are sa tired by the time the last show is reach-

There is seemingly no end to the delightfully varied ways of plaids, checks and pleats in these skirts. This group is a special purchase which was just unpacked and the skirts represent much greater values than the price indicates.

There are side pleats, cluster pleats, panels and box pleats in a wonderful array of blue, brown, tan and black plaids and checks. Specially priced

STATESMAN CLASSIFIED ADS. BRING RESULTS

SPECIAL

, AND

FRANK MAYO

IN

"GO STRAIGHT"

AND

"WINNERS OF THE WEST"

Free Matinee for Kiddies Saturday

10:30 a. m.

BLIGH THEATRE

car space was sold on the night of never before happened in the history of the show. For the first are that for years he has never time every available foot of space with automobiles, there being no room for any commercial vehicles or side lines of the automobile scheme Portland's 13th annual automobile show takes place at the

It's been a busy and fretful day. Brain fagged, nerves frayed and body exhausted—conscious that tomorrow is fraught with new trials and tribulations, he realizes the imperative need of a refreshing night's rest. Yet, he hesitates and dreads to go to bed lest he roll and toss throughout the night. Do you experience the horrors of nightmare and insomnial Are you troubled with wakaful, retless night? Do you set up in the morning feeling more tired than when you went to bed because your rest is so disturbed and broken? Then, try shacks hidden away in the woods. or unseen by any except the fewone has but to dwell, I say, upon this, for a moment, to realize that

n. It re-

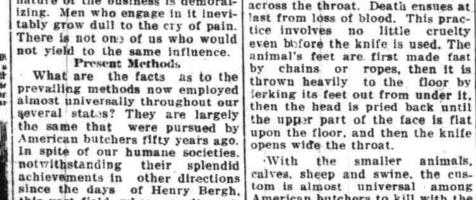

YKO MEDICINE CO. Kansas City, Mo.

For sale by all druggists, aiways in stock at Perry's Drug Store with pleasurable anticipation of es. "LYKO" will bless you with dumber and bring you down to th elty, at least of needless suffering. that beggars description. The very nature of the business is demoral-The Great General Tonic ity of a thousand little barns of

there is bound to be inflicted upon these poor creatures annually

slain for food, an amount of crun some cases, by a bullet. The The Great End To Be Sought bleeding follows while the animal What is the one first goal we is, of course, unconscious. Where-are to set before ourselves as humane organizations, the attainment of which we are to seek in the matter of slaughterhouse reform? There can be no question as to the answer. It is the requirement by law that every animal killed for human food shall be first rendered unconscious by some method of stunning before this knife is thrust into its throat.

The Individual Appeal animal's feet are first made fast by chains or ropes, then it is And now to my individual readthrown heavily to the floor by er this last appeal. Who creates lerking its feet out from under it. this demand that brings to the then the head is pried back until shambles every year to die at the upper part of the face is flat man's hand the more than a hundred million of cattle, sheep and swine that are annually sacrificed for food? Every man, woman and child who eats the meat their carcasses supply. After the last word is said about the ranchman and the railroad, about the callons drover, the butcher whose hands must drip with blood, the packer who grows rich out of his traffic. -we come face to face with ourselves. But for us there would be no demand and no supply. Upon us then, no less positively and heavily rests the moral obligation to do the utmost that is within our power to see that these victims of our appetite and desire are slain in what shall be to them as painless and merciful a deth as the noblest humanity can devise.

KIDNEY TROUBLE

irritation or Back-

ache

hese unfortunate animals and ound that it was anywhere from wo to five, and in some cases six two to five, and in some cases six minutes before it ended and the final collapse came. All this we know is wholly unnecessary. A properly delivered blow, or a bullet fired into the brain, all sensibility to suffering ceases, and the bleeding follows with no consciousness of pain.

Take Salts at first sign of Bladder In our great packing houses alves and sheep and swine, herded in their several pens, are one by one jerked up by a chain and fastened about a hind ankle, car-

The American men and women ried, thus suspended, by an overmust guard constantly against head dryise one after the other Kidney trouble, because we eat down the line to where the too much and all our food is rich. butcher stands. As rapidly as he Our blood is filled with uric acid can thrust his knife into the which the kidneys strive to filter throa' he does his part of the out, they weaken from overwork, work; or they swing down the become sluggish; the elimination line, the blood pouring over face tissues clog and the result is kidand eyes in blinding flood while ney trouble, bladder weakness and they slowly bleed to death, strug- a general decline in health. gling more or less violently with their waning strength.

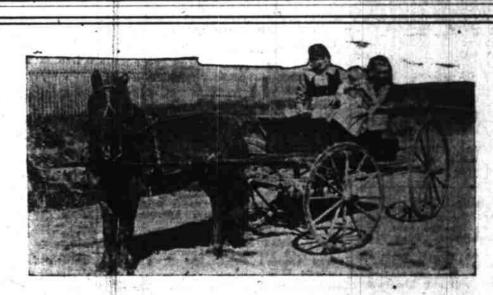

In European Countries

When your kidneys feel like lumps of lead; your back hurts or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment or you are obliged to seek Scenes like these in certain Eu- relief two or three times during opean countries would be con- the night; if you suffer with sick sidered as relics of barbarous headache or dizzy, nervous spells, times, unworthy a modern state, acid stomach, or you have rheuand a disgrace to any community. matism when the weather is bad. Germany is so far ahead of us in get from your pharmacist about her methods of slaughter, in the four ounces of Jad Salts; take a building of public abattoirs, in the tablespoonful in a glass of water humanity that characterizes the before breakfast for a few days handling of all food animals, that and your kidneys will then act one familiar with conditions there fine. This famous salts is made stands amazed at the inexplicable from the acid of grapes and lemsavagery that is permitted in the on juice, combined with lithia. slaughter pens of the United and has been used for generations States, Sweden, Austria, France, to flush and stimulate clogged all are far in advance of us in the kidneys; to neutralize the acids inhumaneness of their slaughtering the urine so it no longer is a methods. England alone of pro-pressive European nations, though bladder disorders.

the subject is being much agitat- Jad Salts is inexpensive; caned there, is still permitting the not injure, makes a delightful efexistence of innumerable private fervescent lithia-water beverage, slaughterhouses with all their at- and belongs in every home, betending evils, their larger oppor- cause nobody can make a mistake

A pretty prancing pony. The greatest of chums for a boy. A real sweetheart for a girlie To win one, oh, think of the joy!

SENSATIONAL PONY CONTEST ANNOUNCEMENT

To assist Pony Contestants to get a good start for the handsome and valuable ponies and outfits the Statesman Company will give 50,000 extra (free) votes on each and every $3.00 worth of subscriptions to any of our publications secured during the ten days ending January 31, 1922 at 8 p.m., that is handed in at the office or placed in the mail between 8 a. m., Friday, January 20th and 8 p. m. Saturday, January 31st.

There is no limit to the number of extra 50,000 bonuses you may secure before 8 p. m. Tuesday, January 31st, an extra 50,000 votes bonus will be given for each and every $3.00 worth of subscriptions collected. Collections may consist of new, renewal, arrearage, monthly, quarterly, yearly, etc., subscriptions. In fact, any money paid on any of our publications to be delivered by carrier or mail which is one month or more in length, earn bonuses. Accordingly, get all you can of any kind. These bonus votes are in addition to the regular vote schedule and do not interfere with it in any way.

It is not necessary to bring in or send in the entire $3.00 at one time. Send in or bring in your subscriptions as you get them. We keep an accurate record and will award you the bonuses on all $3.00 clubs you report.

This entire vote offer is given for your assistance to help you get a good start, so make the most of it. These are bargain days in votes-make every one count. Nobody has the ponies cinched yet.

This bonus offer positively ends on January 31st at 8 p. m. and will not be renewed.

HURRRY-HURRY-HURRY

Make every one of the ten days count

