

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

Postmasters in Luck—According to reports from Washington, D. C., Marion county appointments of two postmasters yesterday. These were Ronald G. White, appointed as postmaster at Falls City and Edgar B. Watters to serve as postmaster at Stayton. Among those who are supposed to be well informed on conditions, politically speaking, there is a feeling that within a week or two, announcement will be made by the civil service commission as to who will receive the appointment as postmaster at Salem.

Comforts and Blankets—At Hamilton's.—Adv.

Stiff Employs Expert—F. D. Addis, who for the past five years has been engaged in special phonograph work in a large Portland retail house, has come to Salem to take charge of the phonograph department of the H. L. Stiff Furniture Co. Mr. Addis is a phonograph expert and will be able to give special service to Salem music lovers.

The Crime of Love—And hundreds of other interesting paper novels just received. Now 15c. The Ace, High Street.—Adv.

Escaped Girls—Two girls escaped last evening about 8:30 o'clock from the Oregon state feeble minded institution and it thought they were headed for the bright lights of the city. Their names are Garnet Eline, 17, and Olive Fieze, 18. The prize girls of light complexion and were wearing a blue

Hartman's Glasses—Easier and Better Wear them and see

HARTMAN BROS.—Phone 1255 Salem, Oregon

SAVE $$$
by buying your hardware and furniture at The Capital Hardware & Furniture Co., 225 N. Commercial street. Phone 947

Nomking
Upstairs at 122 1/2 N. Commercial Street
Chop, Saus, Noodles and American Dishes.
Open 11 a.m. to 1 a.m.
Special Sunday—
CHICKEN DINNER

CAPITAL BARGAIN
HOUSE
We pay highest price.
We buy and sell everything
We sell for less.
215 Center St. Phone 298

WANTED
To Buy Used Furniture
Phone us before you sell, we pay the highest cash price for furniture, guns, stoves, kodaks, etc.
THE HUB
Furniture Co.
373 Court St. Phone 464

RAGS
We want them and want them bad. Because we do we will pay you the highest price obtainable anywhere. Bring us all you have.
Also old clothing, furniture and junk of all kinds.

STEINBOCK JUNK CO.
The House of Half a Million and One Bargains
402 N. Com'l. Phone 523

MONEY FOR YOU
Look around in your attic or store room and you will find long-forgotten articles, useless to you, but very useful to others.
Turn these articles in to cash or exchange them for something useful.
A classified ad. in the Statesman will tell hundreds about it.
You can telephone your ad.
PHONE 23

coat at the time of her departure from the institution.

Save Money on—Comforts and blankets at Hamilton's.—Adv.

Auto Collision—R. M. Hofer of 785 South Commercial street, reported to the police last evening that while driving south on the highway north of Salem, he struck a car traveling north. At the time of the accident the north-bound car, which belonged to R. C. Roberts was attempting to pass a wagon. The result of the collision was that the Roberts car sustained a bent frame and a rear wheel torn off, while the Hofer car had a fender damaged.

Reduction Sale—On comforts and blankets at Hamilton's.—Adv.

Doctors to Meet—The Polk-Yamhill-Marion medical society will hold its next meeting at the Salem Commercial club next Tuesday evening. The program of the evening includes the election of the following members: Dr. R. L. Edwards of Salem, Dr. W. W. Kettle of Woodburn, Dr. L. A. Steeves of Dallas and Dr. S. N. Wendt of Newberg. A paper will be read by Dr. Raymond E. Watkins of Portland on "The Female Perineum."

Everybody Wants Swift's—Fertilizers. For prices and easy terms see Clarence S. Bowne or phone 353.—Adv.

Appraisers Report—The estate of Martha Williams has been appraised at $2207.50. The appraisers were Robin D. Day, H. Gearhart and Don W. Miles.

Good Second-Hand—Heating stoves at Hamilton's.—Adv.

It Was Up to the Jury—P. A. Bachelor alleged in his suit against A. B. Dental that between October 21 and October 29, 1921, he delivered to Dental 7745 pounds of hay, 3699 pounds of oats, and 1 1/2 bushels of wheat and that a reasonable value for the same was $94.13. Filing an answer to the suit, Dental alleged that Bachelor did not deliver the merchandise. When it came for trial before a jury, it decided that the oats and wheat had actually been delivered to Dental and returned a verdict in favor of Bachelor for the amount sued, $94.13. Costs of the suit are assessed against Dental.

Suits Dismissed—Suits against J. L. Van Doren have been dismissed in the circuit court by the Spaulding Logging company and the Great Western garage. Before the sale of the Van Doren home in Fairmount Park, these suits served as a lien against the property.

Free—Consultation and examination. Drs. Bradford & Bradford, D. C., state licensed physicians. Ten years in practice. Phone 526. Suite 319 Oregon Bldg.—Adv.

Suit to Quiet Title—Suit has been brought against the city of Salem by Fred W. Wilson to quiet title to all that part of the north half of block 56 in North Salem, lying east of the fairgrounds road. The suit alleges that the city claims some interest in this land and it is asked that the city be required to set forth its interest, if any.

Yeomen, Attention—Meeting tonight in Foresters hall, instead of our room in Whitman hall.—Adv.

Wants Tax Title—A. R. Trindle has brought suit in the Marion county circuit court asking for foreclosure proceedings on a tax lien on lot 12, block 15 of Highland addition to the city of Salem. It is alleged that the delinquent taxes of 1914 were purchased in 1916, and subsequent taxes paid, amounting to $13.03. As three years have elapsed since the first tax title was issued, a tax title is asked.

Penitentiary Minstrels—Will show Saturday night. General admission, no reservations. 50c. Tickets at Perry's drug store or at door.—Adv.

Tonsils Removed—Having had his tonsils extracted, Frank Myers will enjoy the remainder of his vacation by visiting his brother who lives near Medford. Mr. Myers left for that city, famous for its pears, last evening.

A Classified Ad—Will bring you a buyer.—Adv.

"Own Your Own Home"—Members of the Marion County Realtors association who are also members of the Commercial club, have been invited to take charge of the Commercial club noon luncheon next Monday. They will be given the privilege of telling Commercial club members something that should be done in order that more should own their own homes in Salem.

Legal Blanks—Get them at The Statesman office. Catalog on application.—Adv.

Military Men in Town—Lieutenant Arthur I. Dahl and Lieutenant Carl R. Moser of Company I, Silverton, were in the city yesterday, callers at the office of Adjutant General White. They report a big company banquet for the evening of Tuesday, January 24. Company I attracted favorable attention of military men in the state recently on account of its high attendance record. The company is 90 strong.

"Millions of Trees"—For production but not one for destruction.—See added attraction, "Conquest of the Forest" at the Grand theater Friday, Saturday and Sunday evenings.—Adv.

Butter Up—Creamery butter and butter fat climbed up a few notches in the market yesterday, with quotations of 49 cents for butter, and 24 cents for butterfat. Eggs are holding strong at 30 cents a dozen.

From the Tree—In the forest to the finished product. See "Conquest of the Forest"—added film attraction at the Grand theater, Friday, Saturday and Sunday evenings.—Adv.

Both Recovering—Walter Blaco of Turner who was operated on January 11 at the Salem hospital, is reported to be making a favorable recovery. The same is true of Robert Lester Groshonz, who was operated on at the Salem hospital January 16.

A Lesson—In Oregon's greatest industry. See "Conquest of the Forest"—an added attraction to usual features at the Grand theater, Friday, Saturday and Sunday evenings.—Adv.

To Meet Jan. 25—Members of the American legion will meet next Wednesday evening at the armory for a general social session and to take note of the closing of a membership campaign. The legion now has a membership of about 500 and there is a feeling among the boys that this should be increased to 700.

Bugle Corps Coming—The bugle corps of the Astoria Boy Scouts are arranging to visit Salem at the time of the big Boy Scout convalescence to be held in Salem, February 10. It is understood that Harold Cook, scout executive at Astoria will accompany the buglers.

Going to Portland—L. S. Geer, secretary of the Salem Woodmen of the World is in Portland today attending a conference with J. L. Wilson, head manager of the Woodmen of the World, and other officials.

Scouts Holding Meetings—Last evening three meetings were held of boy scouts. Troop No. 5, under scout master Charles Goodwin, met at the Leslie Methodist church. Troop 6, under command of scout master Harry Scott, met at the First Methodist church. Troop 7, S. G. Robinson, scout master, met at the Christian church. The scouts are planning a number of stunts for the February 10 convalescence.

Free Balloons—For the kiddies today, 2 p. m. to 5 p. m. Liberty theater, and a crackerjack show for the children also.—Adv.

Visited Brush College—Last evening Mrs. M. L. Fulker, county superintendent, attended a Parent-Teachers' meeting. For the benefit of those who are not acquainted with that school district, it may be said that Brush college is a regulation rural district school of two rooms.

Expecting Large Attendance—Examinations for the second semester of Willamette university will be held February 1 to 4. The second semester opens Monday, February 6. According to reports, there will be an increased attendance.

Some Champions—The basketball players of the Washington junior high schools are preening themselves, feeling the effects of several victories. Thursday evening they played the McKinley junior high school basketball team and won with a score of 21 to 8. Thursday night they played the Grant junior high school and won with a score of 10 to 6. Therefore the Washington players are some champions.

Left for Coos County—Miss Marjorie Minton, having completed the course of Willamette university, left yesterday for Coos county where she has accepted a position as teacher. Willamette university graduates are in demand as teachers, according to William E. Kirk, registrar.

Settled Out of Court—The suit of Stausloff Bros. against J. L. Van Dorn and wife has been dismissed. The records show that it had been settled out of court.

Sues as Guardian—Allan Bynon, administrator of the estate of Alfreda Badorek, and guardian for the four Badorek children, has brought suit in the circuit court against Michael Nichol for $974.50. In the suit it is alleged that before the death of Alfreda Badorek, Nichol had converted to his own use $135 of her money and had taken possession of personal property, a total value of $302.50. Also that Nichol had received from the four Badorek children the sum of $537 which he refused to return.

HOTEL ARRIVALS
MARION—L. R. Lyon, J. W. Gate, C. H. Cook, J. A. Goss, A. M. Page, C. K. Tibbets, Ray E. Wenger, G. H. Roy, L. R. Bond, W. L. Adams, F. Krause, Frank M. Barrett, E. M. Pugh, A. W. Muehner, Portland; F. M. Willis, Des Moines; Percy R. Kelly, Albany; E. B. Gabriel, Eugene; R. L. C. Coulin, Grand Rapids; L. R. Waters, F. B. Guthrie, Roseburg; C. H. Tisdale, Sutherlin.
BLIGH—Ben Caston, F. E. Grimes, S. A. Harmon, G. E. Scott, O. C. Webb, J. C. Cornett, W. L. Frederickson, R. Comps, Portland; E. A. Lewis, Forest Grove; J. R. Maulsey, Everett, Wash.; E. Hines, Aberdeen, Ida.; Earl Hillton, Newberg; O. A. Berger, Seattle; H. B. Scofield, Washington, D. C.

PERSONALS
Dr. Carl Gregg Doney left yesterday for Wenatchee, where he will deliver several addresses.
John Nelson left yesterday over the Oregon Electric for Astoria.
Henry Meyers is spending the day in Portland.
Miss Gladys Taylor is the guest of Miss Ruth Smith at the Beta Chi sorority of Willamette university.
Miss Mary Jane Albert of Willamette university will be a weekend visitor in Eugene as the guest of the Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority of which she is a member.

REALTY EXCHANGES
Reported by Union Abstract & Company
W. E. and Belle Compton to S. E. Probert, part of lot 8, block 29, University addition to Salem, $1500.
Forrest W. and Viola R. Bartholomew to Charles C. and Mi-

SKIPPER, RESCUER OF SIX AT SEA, AND HIS WIFE

Capt. and Mrs. A. B. Randall. Capt. Randall has charge of the steamer Hudson and picked the crew and two dogs from a French fishing smack. He was accused of failing to make a rescue at sea several months ago, but was exonerated.

Photo by Underwood & Underwood
dred E. Lozue, part of lots 86 and 87, Friends Oregon colony, $4,000.
D. B. Simpson et ux to Jacob Fuhrer, lot 5, block 1, Church street addition to Salem, $10.
Irene Davis to George Pale, 4.62 acres in section 6-8-3-W, $500.
Gracie Wolfard to Kreta Dahl, part of lot 11, Brown's addition to Silverton, $3800.

FOLEY'S HAS NEVER FAILED
January is a bad month for influenza, la grippe and bronchial troubles. It is unwise to neglect the slightest cough or cold. Foley's Honey and Tar gives prompt relief, gets right at the trouble, covers raw inflamed surfaces with a healing coating, clears the air passages, eases stuffy breathing and permits sound, refreshing, health-building sleep. Mrs. P. A. Gibson, 1547 College Ave., Racine, Wis., writes: "Foley's has never failed in giving immediate relief and I am never without it." Sold everywhere.—Adv.

THOMPSON SELLS DALLAS HOSTELRY

Hotel Gail Purchased by Cottage Grove Man, Consideration $50,000

DALLAS, Or., Jan. 20.—(Special to The Statesman.)—The Gail hotel in this city, the property of J. B. Thompson, a veteran hotel man of Oregon, was sold by Mr. Thompson yesterday afternoon to George B. Dickinson of Cottage Grove.
The Gail hotel has for a number of years been one of the popular hotels of the state. Its meals have been unexcelled, and the accommodations better than most of those in cities larger than Dallas. Traveling men from all over the country have been high in their praise of the hostelry, and made an endeavor to stop over night here if possible. For several years prior to the first of

DIED
LAURI—Franz T. Lauri died at a local hospital, January 19; age 82 years. Body will be shipped to Astoria by Webb & Clough.
WARNER—At his home, located at Church and Trade streets, Thursday, January 19, 1922, Al Warner, at the age of 36 years. Heart failure was the cause. Deceased is survived by his wife and one son, Wayne, five years of age. Funeral will be held Sunday from Rigdon's chapel. Hour will be announced later.

FUNERAL NOTICES
The funeral of Andrew Eld will be held at 1:30 Friday afternoon from Rigdon's chapel. Interment was made in City View cemetery.
The funeral of August A. Kusel will be held Monday at 2 p. m. from Rigdon's. Interment at City View cemetery.

Webb & Clough
Leading Funeral Directors
Expert Embalmers
RIGDON & SON
Leading Morticians

LADD & BUSH, BANKERS
Established 1868
General Banking Business
Office Hours from 10 a. m. to 8 p. m.

SATURDAY SPECIALS
CHOICE MEATS
Buy your Groceries and Meat together and have them delivered free.
Beef to Boil, pound..... 8c and 10c
Beef to Roast..... 10c and 15c
Hamburger..... 12 1/2c
Pork Sausage..... 15c
Steak..... 15c and 20c
YEW PARK STORE
12th and Leslie Streets Phone 9

Queen Quality SHOES
TODAY LAST DAY OF Semi-Annual Shoe Sale Prices
Entire Stock Reduced 20%
SHOES AS LOW AS 95c PAIR
Last Day of Sale Saturday January 21
Valiton's
415 State St. 114 N. Liberty

McDOWELL MARKET
Where a Dollar Does Its Duty
Phone 1421 173 S. Commercial Street
We are now using the choicest steer beef of any market in Salem. We do not hold you up for this choice meat as the markets do that sell steer beef in Salem. We sell this choice meat at the same prices others charge for their old tough cow meat.
Choice Pork to Roast..... 18c
Thick Round Beef Steaks, known as Swiss Steak, per pound..... 15c
We have a nice lot of Dressed Chickens.
Corned Beef, choice..... 12 1/2c
Our Own Sugar Cured Breakfast Bacon..... 25c
Our Own Pure Lard in bulk..... 15c
Bring your empty pails.
IT COSTS YOU LESS TO TRADE AT McDOWELL'S

"Big Moments In 'Queen Of Sheba'"
When Nornis drowns herself in the pool after her betrayal by the King

OREGON Theatre
Last Times
TOM MIX
In
"Trailin"
Tomorrow
Harold Lloyd
In
"A Sailor-Made Man"

You Should Hear
DR. GEO. M. LEHIGH
He will speak twice on Sunday at the
First Baptist Church
Also each night next week
The Church should be filled to hear his interesting messages

TODAY
Special Vaudeville and FRANK MAYO In "Go Straight"
BRIGHT THEATRE

Now Showing
A Super Special
"The Woman In His House"
Continuous Show Daily
Free Balloons for Children at Saturday Matinee
LIBERTY

Tomorrow
Has been the cause for failure of more than one promising young man or woman. Putting off till tomorrow what ought to be done today is always dangerous.
Your eyes should be examined TODAY. The knowledge that your eyes are just what they should be is worth dollars to you. Phone us for appointment.
MORRIS OPTICAL CO.
204-211 Salem Bank of Commerce Building
Oregon's Largest Optical Institution
Phone 239 for appointment
SALEM, OREGON

KIDS
FREE SHOW TODAY
10:30 a. m.
"WINNERS OF THE WEST"
BLIGH THEATRE