Women Challenged to Put on Vaudeville and Date Set for Another Event

together meetings ever given by a community was given at the Mountain View school house, district No. 61, just two and a half miles across the , intercounty bridge on the Oak Grove road Friday night.

Instead of the regular Parent-Teacher program, three acts of vaudeville, rivalling the Hippodrome circuit were given. The first act was a rearing comedy, "Mr. and Mrs. Fido," given by Albert and Turfield

The second act was obtained from far-off Hawaii-three genuine "Hula" dancers-Mile, Smart, Princess Grice, and petite LaBelle Southwick.

The third and last act was a first class minstrel. J. A. Smart and L. Grice as end men were exceptionally fine. They were ably assisted by Sam Chapman. Arthur Swart, Charley Pierce, Clarence Adams, Turfield Schindler, Albert Schindler, Ammon Grice, Albert Bauffledur and Glen Southwick. The crowded house was kept in constant laugh-

The program closed with challenge to the women of the school district likewise to give a program. Judges would be chosen and the winners of the best entertainment would be treated to a genuine feed by the losers. The challenge was readily accepted and the date was immediately set for the last Friday in February. After a bounteous lunch of salad, sandwiches, cake and coffee, the meeting was declared ad-
